Camp 6-W

The S. L. Henderson home was the scene of a gay youngsters party November 14 when their youngest son Larry and the Carl Morehead's baby daughter celebrated their birthdays together. Larry Henderson became five years old on November 14 and Alene Morehead was one year old on November 16. The dozen children who attended enjoyed games and cake and ice cream. Prizes were won by Billy Mike Thompson, Bobby Morehead, Faye Brown, Anita Gail Hall, and Danny Thomson.

The last regular meeting of the Dixie club was held at the home of Mrs. Dick Fairfield. The ladies enjoyed luncheon and then played Bingo. Wanda Johnson won high and Wanna Leatherwood second high.

A number of camp people like to get together on Saturday nights and cut a rug. On October 23 a dancing party was held at the S. L. Henderson home in honor of the return of Jim and Mary Baker to camp. On November 5 a crowd gathered at the Lew Bemis home for dancing. Jive records furnished the music. Coffee and a light lunch was served at midnight on each occasion.

Freeman of Washington, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Earl Johnson and children from Ashland, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miner of Portland and Miss Helen Corum from Klamath Falls. The last three are grandchildren. Then on Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. C. Albert Waterhouse and children joined the group from Lakeview for a birthday dinner in honor of Mr. Waterhouse Sr.

The Puckett-Scherer mill that has been closed for the past three weeks is now operating with a small crew that is grading and shipping lumber still on the yard.

A group of friends from Calvary Baptist church of Klamath Falls surprised Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Waterhouse a day or two before Thanksgiving by bringing them a nice assortment of good things to eat for Thanksgiving and future use. This seems to be becoming a custom with them in remembering this old retired minister and wife, members of the same church.

Elder C. A. Waterhouse was called to Silver Lake to conduct the funeral of Mrs. Mary Long an intimate acquaintance of 20 years.

A home extension unit has been formed in camp with 26 women signing up for regular membership. Gertrud Good was the power behind this very useful movement and at the election of officers the women elected her as chairman with Pearl Henderson as vice-chairman, Vivian Huck as secretary and Wanna Leatherwood as treasurer. Two all-day meetings have been held already in the Scout cabin with a good attendance both times. The first meeting was devoted to learning how to make Christmas decorations with local greenery, and the second to blouse-making demonstrated by the county home extension agent, Miss Mary Glenn. A more complete report on the activities of this club may be seen in the regular home extension news in The Herald and News. On November 2, Mrs. G. Good and Mrs. R. L. Schlotfeldt attended the home extension demonstration in Klamath Falls on Herb cookery. They will be the project leaders at the next regular meeting.
