Initiation Held By Catholic Daughters

About eighty members attended the annual initiatory ceremonies of Court Klamath, 1295, Catholic Daughters of America, held in the KC hall Wednesday evening, November 30, at 8 p. m. Mildred Smith, grand regent of the degree team and state vice-regent of Oregon, conducted the initiation. The meeting was opened by Leone Mathis, grand regent of the court, and the opening prayer was led by the Rev. John Phelan, pastor of Our Lady of Mount Carmel in Chiloquin.

The degree team exemplifying the ritualistic work was composed of the following members: grand regent, Mildred Smith; vice regent, Phillis Mahoney; prophetess, Florence Pickett; monitor, Ann Fiala; lecturer, Rose O'Leary; historian, Sarah Erie; treasurer, Martha Krize; financial secretary, Gladys Stephens; sentinel, Mary Anne Grant; banner bearers, Ida Mochetiar, Arnes Ellis and Frances Drullner; color guard, Marion Cronon, Lois Smith and Ethel Brunner; musician, Louise Vaughn. The officers' stations were decorated with purple and gold chrysanthemums, in accord with the colors of the order.

New members initiated at this time were Catherine Berg, Gloria G Foster, Elda Gasperine, Cecelia Hedlund, Harriet Lavenik, Agnes Miller, Opal Marie Nielsen, Norma Sari, Delphine Parano, Saverina G. Smith and Marguerite Turner. Martha Perreau of Court Little Flower, Wolf Point, Mont., and Marion Walker of Ascension Court, Independence, Iowa, were introduced as transfer members. Elizabeth Brandness, financial secretary of the court, assisted with the financial recordings of the new members.

At the close of the initiation the Salute to the Flag was given, followed by group singing of the Star Spangled Banner. Leone Mathis, grand regent, welcomed the new members and introduced Mildred Smith, state representative, and state vice regent, who gave a very interesting talk. "God Bless America" was sung by the entire assembly and the Rev. Phelan after an inspiring talk, closed with a prayer.

Refreshments were served at prettily decorated tables which carried out the same color scheme as the hall, with gold and purple candles, tablecloths and flowers. Delores McAndrews and Millie Hector were chairmen for the evening and they were assisted by Victorine Milani, Lillian Reiling, Elizabeth Schuh, Ann Fiala, Darlene Smith, Clara Beard, Elizabeth Mayberry, Marie Bertruff and Ruth Duff.

Out-of-town members attending were Nora McAuliffe and Helen McAuliffe of Fort Klamath, Katherine Elliott of Klamath Agency and Margaret Molitor, Catherine Leake and Elida De Bortoli of Chiloquin.

CONNIE AND ROBBIE, who both celebrated birthdays this month, are the children of Cpl. and Mrs. Robert Evans, 1506 Sargent street. Connie is four years old, and Robbie is one. Grandparents are John H. Pearce and Mrs. Maude Bryson of this city, and Mrs. Glendean Evans of Petaluma, Calif.

The court has adopted as one of its projects a displaced priest to whom usable articles are being sent as often as possible. Another project is the Perpetual Rosary for the Conversion of Russia and Fallen-Away members of the church. The daughters are asked to meet in a body at the church Sunday, December 4 at 7:45 a.m. to receive Holy Communion, followed by breakfast at Wong's cafe. It was announced that the cookbooks being compiled by the court will soon be on sale, and proceeds will be used to furnish chairs for the new parish hall. The next regular meeting will be December 13 at 8 p.m. in the KC hall.

Winter Dance On Sojourners Agenda

Sojourners met Wednesday afternoon November 23 at the Willard hotel for a no-hostess luncheon followed by cards.

Prizes for bridge went to Veta Purvine and Mary Cleary. In pinocle Annette Kamara won. Hostesses were Hattie Boyd and Jean Hobart.

Immediately after the business meeting there was election of officers and the following ladies were elected for the next 6 months: Mrs. John Arzetainger, president; Mrs. Charles Dakin, vice president; Mrs. Raybor Johnson, secretary; and Mrs. N. C. Longworth, treasurer.

The new officers will be installed Wednesday, December 14, with luncheon at 12:30. Reservations should be made by December 11 by calling 9977.

There will be a musical program and the annual Christmas party for members. Corra Fyock is chairman.

On December 8 Sojourners will hold their Winter dance at Cal-Ore. Chairman is LaVonne Hooper and co-chairman is Leona Kiesler. Marilyn Sparks and Vera Teale will assist. Reservations should be made no later than December 5.

Birthday Club

Members of the newly organized Birthday club met at the home of Mrs. Ray Ribak honoring Mrs. Clarence Oppgaard, whose birthday was on November 29.

This being the first of a series of twelve monthly parties, it was arranged as a surprise party.

Refreshments were served after the presentation of gifts. Those attending were Helen Paulson, Helen Stephens, Leona Reich, Blanche Petroff, Betty O'Leary, Annie Hodge, and Edna Moore.

Gifts were sent by Marie Grandall, Mable Shaddock, and Grace Peterson who could not be present.
