Rev. Magr. Nicholas H. Wegner

For the next chapter in the folk and fables of Frank Costello, big time gangster and gunner, be sure to tune in Robert Montgomery on the Lee hat program tomorrow night.

Robert commenced an expose of Franks escapades and escapes from the law during the past two-and-a-half decades on last week's program.

So far, I have received no word of Robert's unfortunate and untimely demise, so I imagine that Costello is afraid to put the blast on him.

R. M. appears on LW Thursday night at 8:45.

On Sunday he will be heard on LW with the Boys Town choir in its second annual coast-to-coast radio program.

For additional information, consult this space in a couple of days.

The penetrating and incisive comments of Henry J. Taylor will appear over ABC's nation wide hook-up at a new air time starting December 12.

At that time, the weekly quarter hour of news and commentary by Henry J. will move into the 8:30 to 8:45 slot.

General Motors has been presenting Henry's ABC broadcasts every Monday night since December 20, 1948. In addition to these broadcasts which brought him Alfred I. du Pont commentator award, Taylor is much in demand as a speaker for business, civic, and educational groups throughout the country.

A popular feature of his weekly air time is the regular period given over entirely to answering questions submitted by listeners.

Whist and Pinochle Stella Dryden was hostess to the Thimble club of Neighbors of Woodcraft at her home, 610 North 11th, on Wednesday evening November 30. She was assisted by Dicky Freeman.

After the short business meeting whist and pinochle were played, and at whist Alta Clark held high score, Neva Hayes low; at pinochle Elodie Mochetaz was high, Patsy Clark low.

After cards refreshments were served by the hostesses. The next meeting on the evening of December 14 will be with Martha Gilchrist and it will be the annual Christmas party with exchange of gifts.

Dancing Party TULELAKE - Tulelake chapter of De Molay entertained at a Thanksgiving eve dancing party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Stonecypher. Chaperones were Mrs. Gilbert Osborne and Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Boyd. The affair was informal.

Present were Mary Ruth Reed, Janice Taylor, Helene Fischer, Carolyn Moore, Sue Branson, Margaret Tschirky, Betty Detrich, Louise Greenbank, Alice Stonecypher, Marvin Thomas, Russell Smith, Galen Lesh, Dick Coyner, Darrell Verier, Bill Stinson, Dick Terry, Bill Stonecypher and Bob Laird.

Luncheon Meeting MALIN - The Malin Helping Hand society met Wednesday, November 16, at the Ben Johnson home.

After luncheon was served, blocks were placed for a quilt the society is making. A committee headed by Mrs. A. Street was appointed by the president, Mrs. Schreiner, to take care of the usual Christmas basket distribution.

Plans were made for a Christmas party to be held December 21 in the Malin church basement. There will be a potluck dinner for members, their families, and guests.

Elva Smalley was appointed chairman of the committee for entertainment, and Mrs. C. S. Johnson chairman of decorations. A Christmas tree will furnish part of the evening entertainment.

Guests of the afternoon were Mrs. Browning, Mrs. Henderson and Mrs. Jim Conroy.

Members present were Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. Drager, Mrs. Haley, Mrs. G. Johnson, Mrs. Loozley, Mrs. McCully, Mrs. Morelock, Mrs. Street, Mrs. Schriener, Mrs. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. E. Johnson, Mrs. Kruger, Mrs. Lyons, Mrs. Lindsay, Mrs. L. McVay, Mrs. McCullum, Mrs. Smalley, and Mrs. Shogreen.

On her second broadcast following her return from a 12-day Scandinavian press tour, ABC's women's commentator, Nancy Craig, will interview the American Medical Association's newly elected "Family Doctor of the Year" on Thursday at 9:15 a. m. over LW.

The annual selection of "Family Doctor of the Year" will be made at the interim meeting of the AMA where 6000 family doctors from all parts of the nation meet to discuss mutual needs and problems.

Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, U. S. delegate to the UN General Assembly, and Benjamin Mays, president of the Morehouse college, Atlanta, Ga., will be guests on a panel discussing the problems of racial prejudice on Thursday night's ABC broadcast of "Someone You Know."

Air time is 10:30 p. m. over LW. A short letter to Mrs. W. L. Cox, Chiloquin, Ore. Thank you so much for the Vancouver papers, your letter, and invitation for a cup of tea.

Sorry, but I will have to decline the letter. My "Shank's mare" would have difficulty making the journey up your way.

Another short letter to a reader in Portland, Mrs. Everett at the University hospital. Glad to hear the girls are taking good care of you up there. Am sorry to hear that the "bug" has got you down, but hope to be seeing you back here in K. Falls soon.

If those girls don't take good care of you let me know, and I will write Sally a letter. So keep your chin up and I will keep writing these columns every day with your pleasure in mind.
