Carr Patrons Consider Forming PTA

The patrons of Carr school met at the schoolhouse Wednesday, November 30, for the purpose of discussing the organization of a Parent-Teacher association.

Mrs. Paul Herron presided over the meeting and gave an interesting talk on the purpose and need of such an organization. Mrs. Meshke of Tulelake spoke on the history of the Tulelake PTA and some of the amusing incidents which took place during the early years of their development.

Children of Carr school helped with the social hour. Quinna Mitchell gave a reading. Carol Heddington sang, "Mighty Lak a Rose" and Bruce Mitchell and Dennis Yoder sang, "Home on the Range." Mrs. Herron appointed the following chairmen of committees: Mr. Mitchell, organization and by-laws; Mrs. Heddington, hospitality; Mrs. Don Macker, publicity; Mrs. Oman, program.

Visitors were Mrs. Meshke, Mrs. Roper, Mrs. Ryckman, Mrs. Kelleher, and Mrs. Jameson, all of Tulelake. Refreshments were served and January 6 set for the next meeting.

MILLS

Fathers Night was held at Mills school Wednesday, December 7. The meeting was called by the president and Cub Pack 4 presented the colors and the flag salute followed by singing of America.

Roy Premo, cubmaster, explained the duties of a cub pack and activities at the meetings. He then presented Bob-at pins to the boys.

A short business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. McCormack. The girls ensemble under direction of Ruth Lobaugh sang a group of songs. George Brewer sang two numbers and played one number on the viola. Miss Lobaugh accompanied.

Mrs. Leo Heath, on behalf of last year's president, Mrs. Westin, presented the summer round-up award to the president, Mrs. Anderson's third grade and Mr. Loftsgaard's sixth grade won the room count. Rev. David Barnett of the First Presbyterian church, spoke on, "Spiritual Growth of Children." In his talk he said to bring children to the realization that they are children of God. Parents should set an example in the home for their children, the home being the primary group.

The minister closed with the statement, "Let us this year at Christmas make it a family reunion with our children. Take time out to be one of them."

Verne Speils announced the Christmas program the afternoon of December 22 in the school auditorium. Also that vacation period starts the 23rd of December through January 2.

Refreshments were served by the tea chairman, Mrs. Gallagher, and the following second grade mothers, Mrs. Gasperini, Mrs. Wickersham, Mrs. Borgialli, and Mrs. Baillie.

PELICAN

The Pelican PTA will sponsor an old time dance Saturday, December 10, at 8 p. m. Admission is 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for teen-agers.

Siam Smith, recreation director, will attend and call square dances as well as instruct. There will be an intermission at 10 p. m. at which time refreshments will be on sale in the cafeteria. There will also be a sale. Movies will also be shown to the children with a 15-cent admission fee.

BONANZA

The Bonanza PTA met at the high school on November 28, with President Estlar Brown conducting the session. The annual PTA dance date was set for February 25. The next regular meeting date will be January 23, but there will be no meeting in December. The school program for parents and friends will be held the evening of December 21 in the gymnasium.

The school band under the direction of Stella Branchard played four numbers which were greatly enjoyed.

KUHS Patrons To Hear Yule Music

Traditional Christmas music will be presented at a program of Parents and Patrons club of Klamath Union high school Wednesday, December 14, in the KUHS auditorium.

Andrew Loney Jr., director of music in the public schools, has planned an exceptionally fine program and all mothers of KUHS students, and interested persons, are invited to attend.

A business meeting is called after the musical program according to Mrs. E. A. Geary, Parents-Patrons president and the topic is of special interest to all parents.

Tea will be served later in the cafeteria.

Malin Patrons' Program Planned

An interesting evening has been planned by the program committee for Malin Parents-Patrons club meeting December 20, 8 p. m. at the high school. The Rev. Godfrey Matthews of Klamath Falls will be the guest speaker and he has entitled his evening's entertainment as "A Christmas Potpourri."

Rev. Matthews is well known for his literary and dramatic ability and a worthwhile evening is assured the public.

Mabel Cunningham and Vesta Shogren will entertain the group with a vocal duet and there will be group carol singing at the close of the meeting.

The public is invited to attend. Parents are reminded that room count will again be taken with a treat going to the winning class.
