

Beautiful Wedding Event Of Sunday

Baskets of white chrysanthemums, woodwardia and candelabra decked the First Presbyterian church for one of the most beautiful weddings of the season last Sunday, when Merion, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Albrecht, became the bride of Thomas Howard. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Howard of San Francisco.

The bride walked down the aisle between pews marked with white chrysanthemums and holly, in a white lace gown, fashioned with a fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline edged with seed pearls, and long sleeves. Her fingertip-length veil was of the same lace as the dress, and fell from a Christian Dior cloche hat. Merion carried a white satin muff adorned with white roses and satin streamers, and a French rosepoint heirloom handkerchief.

Before the ceremony, ready by the Rev. David Barnett, Miss Harriett Mueller sang "O Perfect Love," accompanied by Mrs. George McIntyre, who also played incidental organ music.

Mr. Albrecht gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. Robert McLain Wallace of Arcadia, Calif., the former Wanda Shaw, was matron of honor. Her gown was of emerald green velvet with a wide bertha. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Frederic Sibley Moore of Beverly Hills, Delta Gamma sorority sister of the bride at Stanford university, Miss Myrtle Swift of Colusa, Calif., and Miss Dorothea Ellingson. Their frocks were similar to those of the matron of honor but in American Beauty red velvet. All of the attendants carried satin muffs, decorated with holly leaves.

Earl R. Howard Jr. of Portland was best man for his brother. Ushers were Robert Cushing Kennedy of Westwood, Calif., Dr. Robert Schrabach of Berkeley, David Jesberg, of Los Angeles, Ward Madeira Jr. of San Francisco, and Paul Eeeler of Berkeley. All were Delta Tau Delta fraternity brothers of the groom at Stanford.

Mrs. Albrecht, mother of the bride, was attired in a copper taffeta floor-length gown, worn with a winter pink hat and gloves. Mrs. Howard chose a winter pink satin gown and brown accessories. Both wore corsages of pink-brown orchids.

A reception for 400 followed the wedding at Reames Golf and Country club. The newlyweds cut their four-tiered wedding cake supported by pedestals trimmed in dark green and silver, afterwards served by Mrs. Wesley Lorenz, Mrs. Thomas E. Watters, and Miss Helen Moore.

Mrs. R. P. Ellingson and Mrs. Ross McIntyre of Portland poured coffee. Passing the guest book was Miss Donna Groben, cousin of the bride. Mrs. F. E. Drake of Portland assisted about the room.

The reception room was decorated with white chrysanthemums, and garlands of cedar on the balcony. The couple left from the reception for wedding trip to Mexico. For traveling Mrs. Howard chose a toast brown ribbon - knit dress with brown accessories. On her lapel she wore a sapphire and diamond pin in gold, a gift of the groom. A blue-black coat completed her ensemble.

After visiting in Atapulco and Mexico City Mr. and Mrs. Howard will be in Klamath Falls for Christmas before returning to San Francisco after the first of the year. They will live at 1249 Jones street in San Francisco.

Out of town guests included Mrs. Tenesa Doud, Mrs. Vincent Hurley, Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, Mrs. Bernadette McKittrick, Mrs. Edward Wulff, Mrs. Edmond Thomas Howard, Miss Barbara Howard, Mrs. Joseph W. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. William W. Chamberlain Jr., Mr. Otto V. Holm, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Siemon and Mr. and Mrs. Hollin P. Rodolph, all of San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. John Poppy, Mrs. Ross McIntyre, Mrs. Earl R. Howard Jr., all of Portland, Mr. Cary Bates of Riddle, Oregon, Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Stone of Spokane, Wash., John Hamacher of Medford, James V. Haugh of San Diego.

Marilee Crawford Represents DAR

Marilee Crawford of Klamath Union high school will represent Klamath county in the annual Good Citizenship contest held each year by the state society DAR. The state winner will receive a $100 bond. Mrs. H. B. Van Hoesen is chapter chairman of this committee and made her report at the meeting of Eulalona chapter held Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Robert E. Wattenburg. Assisting hostesses were Mrs. H. A. Nitschelm and Mrs. Charles Waters.

The chapter voted a contribution to the community chest fund. Improvement of conditions for the American Indians is a major project of the national society of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and the Oregon DAR is especially interested in the Indians of this state. Two boxes of clothing have been sent to the Cello Indians along the Columbia river by members of the local society.

Miss Alice Waldron, chapter chairman of approved schools, displayed 11 children's books which she is lending to Kate Duncan Smith school, Grant Ala. This is one of the schools supported by the national society DAR.

Mrs. Bert C. Thomas, program chairman, introduced Harry Morgan, brother of Mrs. Roland E. Wright. Mr. Morgan projected on the screen a choice collection of pictures in color, taken by him in recent years. The scenes were from a recent California, mostly in Yosemite national park, some from gardens in Berkeley.

During the refreshment period Mrs. Nitschelm presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Waters served punch cake. The table was lovely in ruby glass and Christmas greens on a lace covered table.

The reception room was decorated with white chrysanthemums, and garlands of cedar on the balcony. The couple left from the reception for wedding trip to Mexico. For traveling Mrs. Howard chose a toast brown ribbon - knit dress with brown accessories. On her lapel she wore a sapphire and diamond pin in gold, a gift of the groom. A blue-black coat completed her ensemble.

After visiting in Atapulco and Mexico City Mr. and Mrs. Howard will be in Klamath Falls for Christmas before returning to San Francisco after the first of the year. They will live at 1249 Jones street in San Francisco.

MR. AND MRS. HENRY BOWEN celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on December 4 with two parties given in their honor. At left are the Bowsens after their marriage in 1899. On the right the couple cut their anniversary cake at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Addison on Lakeshore drive last Saturday. Many guests helped them celebrate at the Addison home, and at the family dinner party at the Frank Marks home on Sunday.

Henry Bowsens Are Honored at Parties

Celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bowen of Lakeshore drive were honored last week-end by family and friends.

Fifty guests gathered at the A. D. Addison home on Lakeshore drive last Saturday in honor of the couple. Arranging the affair were Mrs. Addison, Mrs. Orin Sismore, and Mrs. Chet Langlet. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kossnick also assisted.

Christmas greens and pine cones decorated the rooms, where the Bowsens cut their decorated wedding cake. Mrs. Robert Riggs poured coffee.

Mrs. Frank Marks entertained for her mother and father at the Marks home on Auburn street on Sunday, the day of the anniversary.

Members of the family gathered for dinner, and afterward were served a wedding cake and groom with a miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Marks decorated the table with a centerpiece of golden chrysanthemums.

Present were Mrs. Merland Stroud and son Stevie of Seattle, and Mrs. William Chilton of Bremerton, both daughters of the couple; Mr. and Mrs. Glen Bowen and daughter Lynden, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marks. Grandchildren - Geraldine and Bill Stroud, Bill Chilton, Lynden King, and Mrs. Bill Wilson were unable to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hurn of Eugene were week-end visitors in Klamath Falls, calling on friends and relatives, while en route to Los Angeles, Calif., where they expect to make their home. Ralph Hurn is the son of Mrs. George R. Hurn, 439 Pine street, and is a native of this city.

Pretty Ceremony Read In Candlelight

The beautifully decorated Peace Memorial Presbyterian church of Klamath Falls was the scene of an impressive candlelight wedding, Sunday, December 4, at 2:30 in the afternoon when Miss Diane Landrum and Mr. Donald Ferguson were married in a double ring ceremony. Miss Landrum is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Landrum of this city and Mr. Ferguson is the son of Mrs. James Isaksen of Seattle, Washington.

The nuptial service was read by the Rev. Dwayne L. Proest.

Before the ceremony Carl Hagel sang "Because" and "O Perfect Love" accompanied by Mr. Arthur Denison who played the wedding march as the bride entered the church on the arm of her father.

The bride wore a gown of white slipper satin, fashioned with long sleeves and a high double Peter Pan collar. The full skirt ended in a short train. Her finger tip veil was of white illusion net falling from a tiara of seed pearls and orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white rosebuds and stephanotis.

The bride's only attendant was her sister, Miss Lela Landrum, who was gowned in an orchid pink tulle dress similar to that of the bride's. She carried a bouquet of pink and white button chrysanthemums and wore a head band of matching flowers.

Best man for the occasion was Ben Ferguson, brother of the groom. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Landrum chose a lace trimmed pearl grey afternoon frock with wine accessories and a corsage of matching colored flowers. The groom's mother was attired in an aqua blue crepe afternoon dress and wore a grey hat with aqua blue plumes. A corsage of talisman rosebuds was pinned at her shoulder.

Ushering in the guests were Buck Ferguson and Jack Ferguson, brothers of the groom and F. S. Landrum, brother of the bride.

At a reception immediately following the wedding the bride and groom cut the first piece of their four tiered wedding cake which was served by Mrs. F. S. Landrum. At the coffee urns were Mrs. Jack Ferguson and Mrs. Ben Ferguson. Serving punch was Mrs. Buck Ferguson, and passing the guest book was Joyce Landrum. Mrs. C. C. Greenstreet and Miss Donna Tenoski assisted about the room.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson left after the reception for a two week wedding trip in Southern California and will be at home at 944 Eldorado upon their return. For going away Mrs. Ferguson wore a forest green three-piece suit with a winter white hat and brown accessories. Her corsage of white rosebuds was taken from the center of her bridal bouquet.

The young couple are both graduates of Klamath Union high school. Mr. Ferguson served several years in the navy and is now affiliated with Swan Lake Moulding company.

Out of town guests for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. James Isaksen and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ferguson of Seattle, Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Ferguson of Whidby Island, Wash., Mrs. W. F. Landrum of Eugene, Oregon, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. St. Clair of Medford and Mr. and Mrs. William Gouidin of Klamath Marsh.

Merrill Library Club Has Christmas Party

MERRILL - Merrill Library club members enjoyed a potluck dinner and Christmas party at the Clifford Shuck home December 1. Dinner was served at 1:30 p. m. from a table beautifully decorated in the Christmas theme. Colorful Christmas balls formed a centerpiece on a heavy white silk cloth.

Following dinner Santa Claus appeared and presented gifts to all the members from their secret pals. During the business session the book committee, of which Mrs. Otto Ellis is chairman, reported that four new books had been ordered for the library. The square dance and box social held in November was reported a financial success.

Mrs. Cliff Shuck was again elected president of the club and assisting her are Mrs. Tom Laird, Mrs. John Kirby, Mrs. L. R. McNeil, Mrs. William Poe, and Mrs. Melvin Bowman. A bone china cup and saucer were presented to Mrs. Shuck in appreciation of her work in the organization.

A Christmas program and gift exchange is planned for the annual Christmas party for the Lions club meeting on Monday evening at St. Paul's parish hall. Hostesses will be Mrs. Ray McNabb, Mrs. Elin Kiger, Mrs. Alfred Huntington, Mrs. Ernest Taylor and Mrs. Al Longe.

Christmas Dinner On Agenda For Daughters of Nile

Zuleima Daughters of the Nile club are making plans for their Christmas dinner, which will be an event of next Friday at the Willard hotel, starting at 7:30 p. m.

Mrs. Don Kenyon is general chairman of the affair. Mrs. B. B. Blomquist will present "A Christmas Fantasy" given by Mary Brown, a dance number by Grace Colwell, and Mr. Andrew Loney will present musical numbers.

Members are reminded to bring toys to be sent to the Shrine hospital in Portland.

All Daughters of the Nile and their husbands are invited.

Queen May Moss of Ashland is expected to be present for the dinner.

Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Slavens, 411 Newtown street, Medford, will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary tomorrow with open house at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Slavens were married at Cottage Grove. Both are from pioneer families. Before her marriage Mrs. Slavens was Susan Davis, daughter of Mrs. Samuel Harkness, an early resident of Grants Pass. Mr. Slavens' family settled in Willamette valley near Albany and later resided in Klamath Falls for a number of years. The Slavens have lived in Medford for the past 20 years.
