BofRT Auxiliary Install New Officers

On Thursday evening, December 8, the auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen met in the KC hall for initiation of candidates and installation of officers. Initiated were Dorothy Randall, Marjorie Narramore, Edna Lee Hansen, Mary Taylor, Mabel Stockton, Erna Rogers and Ronnie Biggerstaff. The initiates, together with Lee Caillette who was initiated at the last meeting, were presented with bouquets and Geraldine Beene, past president of the Mt. Shasta lodge at Dunsmuir was introduced.

Edna Jones was the installing officer, and on her staff were Eva Gilmore, installing secretary; Aileen Kous, installing conductress; Maude Phillips, installing chaplain, and Marie Matlock, installing pianist. The newly-installed officers are Patricia Henry, past president; Dorothy Jones, president; Phyllis Rutledge, vice president; Dorothy Randall, secretary; Mary Knight, treasurer; Erna Miller, chaplain; Lorene Bieher, conductress; Olive Burke, warden; Loreta Pex, inner guard; Edrie Caldwell, outer guard; Neva McCoy, pianist; Edna ones, delegate, and Olive Burke, alternate.

Corsages were presented to all the incoming officers and also to the installing officers, and Patricia Henry was conducted to the altar to be presented with her past president's pin. Myrtle Guthrie and Dorothy Jones will be co-chairmen of the Christmas Welfare committee and the white elephant, presented by Patricia Henry, went to Loreta Pex. Refreshments were served by Katie Eck, chairman, assisted by Myrtle Guthrie and Lee Caillette, and the decorations for the hall were arranged by Edna Jones and Eva Gilmore, who also serve on the flower committee.

Members of the refreshment committee for the next meeting will be Lorene Rasmussen, Geraldine Beene, Marie Matlock and Patricia Henry.

Officers Installed

MERRILL — The Catholic Order of Foresters installed new officers on Thursday evening December 8, when they met in the recreation hall. Chief ranger is Walter Hanon, Toby O'Keefe is vice chief ranger, William Falvey is treasurer, Tom Lacey is financial secretary, August Andrieu is recording secretary, Leon Andrieu is past chief ranger, and Father James

MR. AND MRS. JOE VAN METER celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary recently with members of their family, at the Van Meter home, 848 Owens street. Their three children are Mrs. Charlotte Rhoads, Mrs. Clara Gay and Malcolm Van Meter. Nancy Sue and Diana Lynn Gay, grandchildren of the couple, were also present.

O'Connor is the spiritual advisor. Appointed officers are inside sentinel Robert Petrik, outside sentinel Mickey O'Keefe, and George Andrieu and Louis Matney were appointed conductors.

The Foresters will assist the Altar society in preparing Christmas stockings for the Confraternity classes. A joint meeting with Knights of Columbus of Klamath Falls will be held in Merrill sometime in January or February; the exact date and place to be announced later. Refreshments were served following the meeting by Walter Hanon, Toby O'Keefe, and William Falvey.

Camp Fire Girls Have Mothers Tea

Sunday afternoon, December 4, the Hi-to-gi group of Camp Fire Girls gave a tea for their mothers in the parlors of the First Methodist church.

The rooms were attractively decorated with evergreens and cones. A bright fire burning in the fireplace added a note of friendly warmth to the occasion.

Evergreen bows and bright colored Christmas tree ornaments cleverly arranged, formed the centerpiece for the tea table. A shining tea service and crystal punch bowl were at either end of the table, while crystal held tea cakes, cut in shapes of angles, stars and reindeer.

Pouring throughout the afternoon were the girls who are working toward their Fire Maker rank in Camp Fire Girls.

Each guest was presented with a winter corsage, designed and made by the girls in the group.

Those attending were Mrs. H. A. Pederson and daughter Ann, Mrs. John Markert, Joyce and Marilyn, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Reinhart and Gail, Mrs. Austin McMahon and Sally, Mrs. Frank Nunley, Anna and Kathryn, Mrs. Martin Ramsey and Sue, Mrs. Celsus Logsdon, Coralee and Glenda, Mrs. John Davis and Shirley, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Payant and Neta, Mrs. Lawrence French, Miss Virginia Denton, Carol Ann Roman, Marilyn Alternatt, Donna Beckwith, Mrs. M. Collingwood and Shirley Fay, Rachael Segoviano and Mrs. E. C. Reed, leader of the group.

Altar Society

MERRILL — St. Augustine's Altar society met on December 7 at the home of Mrs. Jerry Ahern. Mrs. Jim O'Keefe was assisting hostess. The various committees working on the bazaar made their reports, and from all indications the affair was a financial success. The members discussed fixing Christmas stockings for the Confraternity classes to be distributed December 18.

A nominating committee, Mrs. Ben Johnson, Mrs. Jerry Ahern, and Mrs. James Hammond, was appointed to select officers for next year. Their reports will be heard at the next meeting, January 4. The hostesses served refreshments following the meeting.
