Firemen Seek Aid; Want Dolls Dressed
An urgent plea was voiced today by firemen for people to help dress the dolls firemen have on hand for their Christmas toy program.

"We have quite a few dolls, and no clothes for them," Ray Howard, fireman, said. "If some of these ladies groups or even individuals would help us, we would certainly appreciate it."

The dolls need to be dressed today, Friday and Saturday in order to facilitate deliveries of the toys.

Deliveries
Firemen have already crowded some toys to relieve the crowded situation at the fire department and other deliveries are scheduled early next week.

Toys are still being turned in and repairs hastened to make the playthings ready for Santa Claus. Anyone who will help firemen dress dolls may contact them at 425.
