Two well known Mel stars tread the boards this Saturday in Richard Wagner's famous opera, "Tristan and Isolde."

Playing the feature roles are massive Laurita Melchior and Helen Traubel.

During the intermissions, Boris Goldovsky and guests will be heard on the "Opera News."

The "Opera Quiz" will again be conducted by Deems Taylor.

Ted Malone has switched his program to a new time on ABC and is now heard at 10:15 p. m. nightly after the Richfield News.

Dr. I. Q., the mental banker, is still having trouble with his contestants on the weekly quiz show.

No National Water Lack, Chapman Says

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16 (AP)—Despite the severe shortage in some parts of the country, the United States will "never run out of water in the foreseeable future."

So said Secretary of the Interior Chapman yesterday. He issued a statement after receiving a flood of queries, most of them prompted by New York City's water troubles.

Rather than a general water scarcity, Chapman said, the problem is that "serious shortages confront certain areas where we don't have water where we want it when we want it."

There are two sides to every question—her side and the wrong side. Reminds me of the days I spent in the navy.

Here's one especially for school kids. A teacher who was annoyed by her many pupils watching the clock, posted a notice reading, "Time will pass. Will you?"

Then there was the extremely beautiful college student who got high marks in all her studies because her professors believed in passing fancies.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Dearborn entertained with a turkey dinner at her home on December 12 in honor of her son Henry on his seventh birthday. Several little first grade boys came and were his guests enjoying the dinner and evening of fun. Henry received many gifts from his friends Dickie Staller, Freddie Fernlund, Tommy Marchant, Mark Dearborn, Mary Leavitt and Henry, Freddie, Bill and Catherine Dearborn.

Sympathy is extended to the relatives of Ethel Pickett McCarter who passed away last week at Medford after a lengthy illness. Mrs. Pickett lived in Langell valley and Malin for many years, moving to Medford in 1942. Mr. and Mrs. George Fernlund of Langell valley and Mrs. Fred Fernlund of Bonanza attended the funeral on Friday.
