

Midland Empire News

Westside

The home economics club met at the grange hall last Thursday with Mrs. Mildred Richardson as hostess. There were seven ladies present. They included Mrs. Lou Roberts, Mrs. Mildred Garrett, Mrs. Madge Anderson, Mrs. Eva Mulkey, Mrs. Geneva Bernard, Mrs. Coral Hill and the hostess Mrs. Richardson. They made plans for the annual club dinner which will be held at the hall on December 14.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Hill made a trip to Surprise Valley last Sunday where they visited Andy's parents Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Johnson were called to Eugene on Sunday when they received a telegram of the death of their granddaughter who passed away early Sunday morning after being ill only a few hours with spinal meningitis. Sympathy is extended to the entire family.

George Lewis brought Mrs. Mary Becraft home on Saturday after she had spent several days visiting in Medford.

Mr. Owsley returned the last of the week from a recent trip to Portland.

Mrs. Fred Nelson returned the latter part of the week from a "several days visit" with her mother Mrs. Kirkland of Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. Diamond Newman are driving a new Ford sedan.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Sipp and family left Friday for Molalla, Ore. where they were called by the death of his grandmother.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Christianson accompanied by her mother made a trip to Klamath Falls on Saturday.

Frank and Jack Albertson left last Friday for Cave Junction where they plan to visit relatives for several days at the home of Mrs. Bertha Sides.

A birthday party was held at the Crowl home on Wednesday evening in honor of Myrie Crowl and Alma Stover. A number of young people were there as well as several grown ups; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Stover, Mr. and Mrs. Kerr and family of the Idaho district and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Crowl.

Miss Joanne Bailey was an overnight guest of the Crowl girls Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Tracy visited relatives at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Woods on Sunday.

All officers to be newly installed attended the installation ceremony at New Pine Creek Saturday evening as well as several other members of the Westside grange.

A Christmas program is to be given by the Westside Sunday school at the Union school house on Saturday night December 24.

A special meeting of the mothers club was held at the Union school on Monday afternoon.

The Westside grange is sponsoring a Christmas dance which will be held on the night of December 2.

R. A. Sipp had the misfortune last Sunday to injure his eye quite badly. While he was chopping wood a chip flew up striking him in the eye. He had to receive treatment from a doctor and is improving now.

Mrs. Treffinger and grandson returned home over the week-end. She received medical attention at Portland last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Carol Toney are being congratulated on the birth of a new daughter born Monday at the Lakeview hospital. This is the second great grandchild of Grandpa Crowl. The Toney's live in Surprise Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle O'Neil and children visited relatives on the Eastside on Sunday evening.

Prayer meeting was held at the

DO TELL!—When archer H. B. Umbaugh of Angola, Ind., shot his arrows into the air, they fell to earth on the other side of Angola's towering monument. In so doing, they solved the town's Christmas decoration problem by carrying over pieces of twine attached to strings of lights. Umbaugh will spend the next few weeks figuring how to get the lights down again without having to climb the statue.

Dry creek school on Thursday evening. Rev. Leo Harrison of Tulare, Calif., conducted the meeting. There were eight ladies in attendance. They were: Marietta Neil Friday in the truck. He visited with his sister Mrs. Gordon Friday and family several days.

The Union district mothers' club met at the school house basement last Wednesday for their monthly meeting. There were eight ladies in attendance. They were: Marietta Newman, Winnie Geisdorf, Sybil Peay, Mildred Richardson, Mildred Garrett, Verna Fack, Shirley Sipp and Eileen O'Neil. Discussion was held concerning the annual Christmas dinner for the school children and their parents. The mothers decided to set the date for Monday, December 19. The decorating committee consists of Shirley Sipp, Mildred Garrett, Marietta Newman and Eileen O'Neil, who will meet at 3:30 Sunday afternoon.

The annual grange Christmas dinner for all members and their families will be held at 6:30 on the night of December 21. There will be a program following the turkey dinner. Each member of the family is requested to bring one small article wrapped and tied with a long piece of string. This is to be put in a white elephant so that everyone who attends will receive something. The supper will be potluck with the grange furnishing the turkeys.

Mr. Richard Buck has recently been on the sick list but is much improved.

Danny Stover was ill and taken to the hospital on Thursday but was able to return to school on Monday.

A group of ladies were guests of Mrs. Harold Shults Thursday when they tied out several quilts and enjoyed a fried chicken dinner. Those present were Mrs. Madge Anderson, Mrs. Coral Hill, Mrs. Lola Chandler, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Shults and Clayton.

Mrs. Earl LaBranch and Mrs.

Merle O'Neil visited Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Dee Chandler. Mrs. Audrey Orisel has recently been ill with a cold.

One fourth of the standing saw timber in the U. S. is Douglas fir.

WANT-AD WONDERS

BROTHER, SISTER SEPARATED 32 YEARS, REUNITED BY AD!

ANYONE knowing Merle or Edna Quilmes or any friend or relative of either, please contact Mrs. George Haack, 2311 Cleveland, Kansas City, Mo.

Recently learning her parents' names, Mrs. George Haack, Kansas City, Mo., set out to find her brother, whom she hadn't seen in 32 years, since they were placed in different church homes. Her ad in the Des Moines Register brought a phone call from her brother, Sgt. Kenneth Asmussen, stationed at Creston, Iowa. A reunion celebration quickly followed.

Want Ads are the Only Answer To Countless Problems

Send $4.00, please!

25 for each true Classified Advertising result story printed. Write Howard Parish, Daily News Tower, Miami, Fla.

Pendleton

100% Pure Wool

ROBES

See Them at

Dick Reeder's

STORE FOR MEN

Corner 5th & Main

Here in Klamath
Want Ads Work Wonders
in the HERALD & NEWS Phone 8111

To make her feel pampered, our truly elegant perfumes — dusting powders—colognes and soaps.

1.00 and up

Gals to grannies— they love to get costume jewelry.

1.00 and up

Pure linen hand embroidered handkerchiefs

the most thoughtful gift of all.

50c and up

Overnight carryalls— they look so expensive and make the nicest gift at just

3.00 and 4.98

Merry Christmas blouses

3.98 and up

just a hint of the hundreds of bright gift ideas at

Bet she's Christmas-wishing for a new cashmere 12.95

Angora 8.95

Lanamere 4.98

No woman ever has enough scarves. Ours are water-repellent at just

1.50

La Pointe's
IT'S A WONDERFUL STORE

In this neat, wee bundle she'll find a stow-away robe—ideal gift for coats and travelers.

6.95

Something extra elegant to keep her jewelry in.

1.98 and up

Starred for Christmas giving

gift slips from 2.50

She'll always appreciate La Pointe's glamour hose

1.00 per pair 3 pr. 2.90

51 gauge 15 denier