

JOINING THE RANKS OF THE BRIDES-ELECT is Donna McVey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. McVey of Lakeshore drive, who announced her engagement to Jim Hanker at the Alpha Chi Omega chapter house on the Oregon State college campus. Mr. Hanker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Hanker of Ventura, Calif.

SOCIETY

By SALLY KENT

Sallies... by SALLY

Mr. and Mrs. George Dimbat entertained several houseguests last week-end. Mrs. Walter Zwingli and son Bob and Mrs. George Lewis and son Toby all enjoyed the 20-30 basketball tournament and shopping. Mrs. Zwingli is George Dimbat's sister. Bob and Tony played on the Tigard team. The guests left on Sunday on the Shasta Daylight.

A group of bridge-playing ladies had their Christmas party at the home of Mrs. John Martin, 1111 Pacific Terrace Thursday evening. Mrs. Martin served dinner to the guests before their annual exchange of gifts. The rooms were decorated with Christmas greens and ornaments.

Enjoying the evening were Mrs. Lloyd Goble, Mrs. Cecil Adams, Mrs. Louis Serruys, Mrs. Claud Davis, Mrs. Paul Sharp, Mrs. Bob Thompson, Mrs. George Myers, Mrs. Frank Weaver, Mrs. Joe Peak, Mrs. John Houston and Mrs. Jake Steiger.

Such a nice Christmas present. Twins for the Bill Nash family. A girl, Joan Michelle, and a boy, John Michael, were born to Bill and Maxine at Klamath Valley hospital Monday, December 12. Everybody is doing nicely.

Bridge clubs were having their Christmas parties and gift exchanges and Mrs. George Clark was hostess to her group on Tuesday evening. Cards were followed by supper and the gift exchange.

Joan Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Moore, and Mary Lou Case, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Case, are home from Mills for a whole month's vacation.

Marilyn O'Neill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. O'Neill, is spending a part of her holiday from Mills in New York with friends.

Home this morning from Katherine Branson school at Ross, is Frances Stearns, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Stearns.

Friends are greeting Mrs. George J. Walton and daughter Katherine who have returned here to live after several years away. They are domiciled on Riverside.

Mr. Gust P. Vourchis has a new signature in his collection of famous autographs. He received a letter last week from Alben Barkley which read, "Mrs. Barkley and I wish to thank you for your cordial message of congratulations sent to us on our wedding day. We deeply appreciate your thoughtfulness and good wishes." It was signed by the vice president himself.

Elected last week to preside over the DeMolay annual "Snowball" at Reames on December 27, were Queen Louis Nilsson; and Beverly Karnes, Bertha Arnold, Sandra Moore, and Faye Nelson are princesses. The pretty court will be guests of honor at the formal dance.

Last year was the first time that each patient at the Eastern Oregon hospital in Pendleton received a Christmas gift, and the staff of the hospital has expressed the hope that the people of Oregon will be as generous this year.

Packages for the patients may be addressed to Eastern Oregon State hospital, Box A, Pendleton. Gifts suggested are, in general, candy, gum, hair brushes, books, puzzles, writing paper, games, loafer socks or bedroom slippers, Crochet thread, or any handwork supplies, lingerie and cosmetics would be appreciated by the women in the hospital. The staff asks, however, that donors do not send scissors, needles, mirrors, tweezers, nail files, or razors of any description.

Home for the holidays are Rae Canaday and Wilber Elliott, both freshmen, majoring in voice, and John Crosby, graduate student, all studying at the University of Washington in Seattle.

They are all in the University choir. Rae and John were chosen to fill soprano and baritone vacancies in the University mixed quartet, a group selected from the best soloists in the school has to offer, and as members of the quartet have been singing at many college and Seattle civic functions. Wilber does tenor solo work in the University Methodist church in Seattle.

A new daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Stabler, now of Portland, on November 30. Mrs. Stabler is the former Lois Hare, who taught at Shasta school here. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Harg of this city. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Stabler of Roseburg, formerly of this city.

Rosemary Bigbie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Hughey, was one of eight students tapped last week to Mask and Dagger, dramatics honorary at Oregon State college. The new pledges will be framed at breakfast Sunday. Rosemary is a sophomore in the school of lower division.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Kelley are going to have fun for the next two months. They left yesterday on their way to Chicago, via Reno, Albuquerque, Northern Texas, and up to Des Moines, where they will pick up daughter Kathryn, who is interning in the Iowa Methodist hospital.

They will spend Christmas with Mr. Kelley's family in Chicago, and then travel and visit for two months. Kathryn plans to return to Des Moines after two weeks.

The stage play "Life With Father" was presented in three acts by the students of Southern Oregon college on the campus December 8, 9 and 10. Several Klamath Falls students participated in the production.

Mark Hattan, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hattan, played the lead role of Clarence Day Sr. George Bell, son of Mrs. Johnnie Bell, was Clarence Day Jr. Business manager for the production was Chuck Perry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Perry Sr.

At the University of Oregon Robert Burke, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Burke, was one of 17 students elected to full membership in the Condon club, geology and geography honorary and service organization on the campus.

Dale Price, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Price, was one of 20 students elected to associate membership in the club.

Shopping in San Francisco this week is Dorothea Ellingson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Ellingson. She went south with Harriet Hart of Medford, a Cal roommate, on December 8.

Major George Kinney will arrive tomorrow from Alabama in time for the pre-wedding festivities planned for this week. Major Kinney and Helen Moore will be married on December 29.

Mr. and Mrs. George Brosterhouse and son Eric will arrive Tuesday from Eugene, where George is a senior at the University of Oregon. They will spend the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brosterhouse.

Mrs. Chloe Pride was hostess to the Three-R club with a Christmas party Tuesday afternoon and the rooms were decked in holiday trimmings for the pinocle party followed by luncheon.

High score went to Mrs. Frances Killian, second by Mrs. Charlotte Canoy, special award to Mrs. Dacie Hoover.

Twenty-six members and two guests, Mrs. Mary Martin and Mrs. Mary Ewing, were present. There was a gift exchange, Pollyanna revealed and new ones selected. Mrs. Mildred Penoyer will be hostess at the next meeting at the home of Mrs. Arla Simpson on January 10.

TEA TOWELS GALORE were received by Helen Moore, whose wedding will be an event of December 29, at the shower given for her by Mrs. T. B. Watters last Saturday afternoon at the Watters home. Miss Moore, center, is assisted in the gift opening by her mother, Mrs. Charles L. Moore, right, and Mrs. Donald Ellingson, left.

—Guderian.

Showers Honor Bride to Be

Mrs. Thomas B. Watters chose "wedding bells" as the theme for her luncheon shower honoring Miss Helen Moore, bride elect of George Kinney, last Saturday at the Watters home on Pacific Terrace.

The motif was carried out in the place cards to which small silver bells were attached; the favors were bells filled with candy, and cookies which were served were bell-shaped. A cascade of silver bells and lilies of the valley was hung over the gift table.

After gifts, which were tea towels, were opened, guests played bridge, with Mrs. Herbert Hauger winning high prize.

Invited guests included Mrs. Charles S. Moore; Mrs. Charles L. Moore, Mrs. Alvin Macartney, Mrs. Francis Olds, Mrs. Robert O'Sullivan, Mrs. R. H. Dunbar, Mrs. Harry Foster, Mrs. T. E. Watters, Mrs. Leslie Rogers, Mrs. George A. Wirtz, Mrs.

Gertrude Bacheider, Mrs. Allen Sloan, Mrs. Herbert Hauger, Mrs. Donald Ellingson, Mrs. William Borchert, Mrs. Roy Whitlatch, and the honored guest, Miss Helen Moore.

Linen Shower

Mrs. Donald Ellingson entertained in honor of Helen Moore on Thursday evening with a linen shower at the Ellingson home, 17 Pine street. After the hostess served dessert and Helen opened her gifts, the guests decorated potholders for her, and later played bridge. Mrs. Roy Whitlatch won high prize in bridge and Mrs. Thomas B. Watters low.

Invited guests were Mrs. Charles L. Moore, Mrs. Alvin Macartney, Miss Dorothea Ellingson, Mrs. Roy Whitlatch, Mrs. T. E. Watters, Mrs. Robert Ellingson, Mrs. Leslie Rogers, Mrs. Allen Sloan, Mrs. T. B. Watters, Mrs. Wesley Lorenz, Mrs. Karl Urquhart, Mrs. Fred Ehlers, Mrs. Leonard Kinney, Mrs. Nell Kinney, Mrs. Robert Kent, and Miss Moore.

GREETING GUESTS at the AAUW Christmas party and smorgasbord Thursday, December 8, were Mrs. Robert Chilcote, left, and Mrs. Eric Majors, right. They served hot mulled cider before the dinner and gift exchange.

—Guderian.

SEVERAL TRI-HY GIRLS were busy Monday night, making dresses for dolls to be delivered to children at Christmas time. The girls engaged in their handiwork are Jean Owens, Donna Phillips, Mrs. W. P. Herron, the group advisor, Bonnie O'Harra, Mary Hill, Patsy Young and Mary Ellen McCoglin.

—Guderian.

FOLK DANCING is becoming more and more popular in the Klamath basin with many classes being organized for learning. Dr. F. W. Peak does a turn with Mrs. Ellen Smith at the folk dancing class Monday night at the high school.

—Guderian.