

PEO Sisterhood Has Holiday Tea

A beautifully appointed tea last Saturday afternoon, chapter AU of the PEO Sisterhood entertained at the home of Mrs. J. M. Hilton on ...

Guests, who included members of the other PEO chapters, and several friends, called from three ... until five o'clock.

Seating at the door were Mrs. Hilton and Mrs. Fred Southwell, president of the group. Mrs. Francis ... and Mrs. E. A. Thomas were general co-chairmen in charge of arrangements for the affair.

The tea table was adorned with Christmas decorations consisting of a large centerpiece poinsettias and red candles in silver candelabras. Holly, poinsettias, and red candles were used throughout the room. Mrs. Howard Lister arranged for the decoration.

Presiding at the tea table during the afternoon were Mrs. Victor O'Neill, Mrs. N. B. Drew, Mrs. Robert O'Sullivan and Mrs. Lloyd Porter.

Christmas carols were sung during the afternoon by Miss Harriet Mueller, accompanied by Miss Ruth Lohmuth at the piano.

Frank Lloyd Wright Student Is Speaker

Speaker at Quota club Monday night meeting at the Pelican, was Robert Erick, architect, who has studied under Frank Lloyd Wright. He showed colored slides of the winter camp in Arizona where apprentice architects study under Mr. Wright. Erick cited several types of architecture throughout the country which were pioneered by Wright.

Program chairman for the evening was Hazel Morrison. Gay holiday stockings decorated the tables, and Christmas gifts were exchanged. Jean Rawlins, Meredith Small, and Blanche Petroff were in charge of decorations.

Members are asked to report at the Red Cross office this Friday evening at 7:30 to help get the Christmas bureau under way, as Quota club is taking charge of it this year.

Alice Vitus reported on preliminary plans for the March of Dimes collection which Quota will head again this year.

There will be no Quota meeting until the regular noon business meeting on January 8.

THE ENGAGEMENT of Ann McKell and Clinton Petrick was announced by Miss McKell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. D. McKell. The couple will be married in Washington, D. C., on January 8. Mr. Petrick is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Petrick, also of this city. —Evergreen.

Week's Woman Is Busy Citizen

Publicity is the main job of our "Woman of the Week," Mrs. Charles Houston. She never gets any publicity herself for her good works, so we will expound on her deeds.

In the three years Mrs. Houston has lived in Klamath Falls, she has been a very busy woman. For the county Tuberculosis Seal sale now in progress she handles the job of publicity which entails a great deal of work.

At present she is publicity chairman for Library club, and does newspaper publicity for the Girl Scouts. As a member of Sojourners club she has served as publicity chairman and president and has been historian for the past year.

Mrs. Houston was in charge of publicity for CARE in the Klamath Falls area for quite some time also. The Houstons came to Klamath Falls from Iowa three years ago and have a home on Crescent street. Mr. Houston is the safety engineer at Weyerhaeuser.

Couple Marry In Reno Methodist Church Rites
