

LETTER OF WELCOME—Tyrone Power is shown with a letter of welcome and an invitation to visit Klamath Falls from Mayor Robert Thompson. Earl Baughman, local theatre district manager, presented it to the star on behalf of Mayor Thompson, while in San Francisco Thursday, at which time final preparations were made for the world premiere of "The Prince of Foxes." Klamath Falls is included in the 400-city premiere which takes place December 24.

Presbyterian Drive Headed By Hitchcock

State Senator P. S. Hitchcock, Klamath Falls, will head a three-year financial campaign of the Presbyterian church of Oregon to improve and expand work at church sponsored schools and institutions.

An initial three-month drive will raise funds for three beneficiaries including Lewis and Clark college in Portland, San Francisco Theological seminary and Westminster foundations at state schools in Eugene and Corvallis.

Schedule
Senator Hitchcock said materials for the drive will be distributed by January 25 and each church will select a week for the drive to begin between then and April 6, 1950. Committees will be appointed by churches to direct local drives. Each church will be asked to incorporate the campaign in their budget for three years.

Lewis and Clark college will receive 80 per cent of the collections, Westminster foundations, 10 per cent, and the San Francisco seminary, 10 per cent, Hitchcock said.

Growing enrollment at the colleges in Oregon at the church supported seminary prompted the campaign organized at a two-day session last week. Delegates from women's societies and student associations conferred with lay leaders and clergymen.

The Rev. David Barnett, Presbyterian pastor, is a graduate of San Francisco seminary as are other Presbyterian ministers in Lakeview, Bend and Redmond. The seminary serves 11 western states.

The Presbyterian church school, Lewis and Clark college, is one of the oldest schools in Oregon and was founded by the grandfather of Ed Geary, Lakeshore drive.

Westminster Foundation furnishes church sponsored functions and facilities at state schools at the University of Oregon and Oregon State college.
