New Pine Creek

It was estimated that around 300 persons attended the 3-way open installation meeting of the Goose creek, West Side and East Side held here last Saturday evening, at which State Deputy Howes was the installing officer.

Although the grange hall annex was not completely finished inside, the hard-wood floor was laid, the ceiling was up and the lights installed so that it could be used for the youngsters to play in. Snapper was also served in it which relieved the congestion usually present at these functions in the past.

Other installing dignitaries who helped reel-off the installation routine just as smooth as the breath of summer, were, Rex High, Klamath county deputy marshal, Nellie Ogie and Mrs. Jim Houston, floor aides.

Officers of the various granges who were seated at the installation were as follows:

East side: Master Darvin Robnett, Overseer Jack Means, Lecturer Mrs. Harvey Porter, Steward Kenneth Butler, Assistant steward Lee Perry, Chaplain Frankie Williams, Treasurer Fred S. Fisher, Secretary Louise Miller, Gate Keeper Bill Allen, Ceres Ethyl Cundiff, Pomona Mary Millsap, Flora Maxine Robnett, Lady assistant steward Corda Perry, Executive Committee Bill Bishop, Lute Miller and Raymond Fisher.

West side: Master Warren Lecturer Leona Kelso, Steward Mill Kelso, Assistant Steward Bill Vandergaw, Chaplain Silvia Abramson, tary Morey Padgett, Gate Keeper Brown, Pomona Bessie Hotchkiss, Flora Grace Smith, Lady assistant steward Lila Vandergaw, Executive committee, Homer Baldwin, Elmer Williams, and Frank Padgett.

Following the meeting there was dancing until 12 o'clock when a plate lunch was served. After supper dancing was resumed until 2 o'clock. Everyone seemed to have a real good time.

The grange will hold their annual Christmas party today, Saturday, December 17. There will be a program and treats for the children.

The Happy Hour club met at the home of Thelma Butler on Tuesday afternoon, December 6 with 16 members and five children present. After the business meeting the hostesses had the members play an interesting game, cutting a narrow ribbon down the center to see how shady a hand can get when in a hurry. Ethel Thompson completed the stretch in the shortest time with Margaret Carter and Eunice Cogburn tying for second place.

Lovely refreshments of apple dumplings and coffee were served. The next meeting will be the Christmas party for the members and their families on the evening of December 20 at the grange hall.

Mrs. Grace Bernard entertained at a pinocle party at the Art Lenkett home up the canyon last Friday evening. A very enjoyable evening was spent. Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Butler won high prize respectively having stayed at the number one table all evening. Mrs. Elizabeth Alexander won the traveling prize while Carmen Fleming and Mrs. Georgia Vincent won low prizes for the men and women. A dutch lunch was served with whipped cream on cake with marischino cherries for dessert. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Art Lenkett, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Carmen Fleming, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Vincent, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sanford, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin L. Paris and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bernard.

The Kelly Creek PTA held a very nice meeting at the school house last Friday evening with a program of interesting movies for the kids, a piano duet by the Hampton twins, Corens and Norene, a piano solo by Robert Paris and one by Barbara Fisher.

At the business meeting plans were made for Christmas and the feasibility of having a walk constructed between town and the school house was discussed. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting. Ted Newman surprised his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Con Newman last Thursday when he walked in, having arrived in the States a few days ago by plane from Hawaii in 12 1/2 hours. He has lived in Hawaii since receiving his discharge from the army in 1945. He enlisted as an aviation mechanic in 1941. He was in the thick of the fighting in the Pacific theater having fought on the Gilbert Islands and several other hot spots.

Since his discharge he has followed the construction business in Hawaii up until the strike a few months ago when things slowed down and he sold his trucks and shipped his car to the states. He visited in Washington before coming on down here. He left on Sunday for Stockton, where he will visit with relatives.
