They'll Do It Every Time — By Jimmy Hatlo

CHICKS VISIT "OLD HOME"—It's old home week for these chickens who were kept warm as chicks last spring by this home-made electric brooder. The builder, Johnny Williams of Fayette, Ala., lifts the lid of the brooder to show how it was made from an electric hotplate and an old lard can. The brooder is one of many such ingenious devices perfected by the 16-year-old farm boy.

Liquidation Foes Win Indian Votes

KLAMATH AGENCY — Anti-liquidationists placed a 7-1 majority on the eight-place tribal business committee in balloting yesterday on the Klamath Indian reservation.

For the past year the business committee has been disrupted because of an even split between Indians who seek liquidation of the reservation and those who oppose.

But for the next year the anti-liquidationists will have a majority.

Winners

Elected yesterday were James Johnson, 168 votes; Dibbon Cook 167, Joe Ball 166, Dice Crane 137, Selden Kirk 136, Hiram Robbins 133, Boyd Jackson 125, Wade Crawford 124. Crawford favors dissolution of the reservation.

To the less-important enrollment committee the Indians elected Dibbon Cook, James Johnson and Boyd Jackson. A total of only 216 ballots were cast.
