Matt says...

SALE! SALE! SALE!

This Sale should speak for itself

I hope, coming at the peak of the Xmas buying season, it will make a lot of our customers happy by saving them money.

There are a number of reasons why we should have this sale.

A large percentage of our merchandise, aside from the toys etc., make excellent gifts.

All sales will be final, no exchange no refunds --

We will continue our Lay Away policy and are happy to ship to our out of town customers.
