Poultry Prices Still Up

Live turkey prices to Oregon farmers have been dropping each month from July to November according to the poultry market review from the OSC extension service and USDA reports.

Egg prices reached the high point so far this year during September and October. Since then the average price has dropped sharply. The November average price was 13 cents a dozen under 1948.

Chicken prices to November held mostly unchanged for the previous three months. However, the average price was the lowest since February 1946, and 10 to 11 cents a pound under a year ago.

Turkey prices average 27 per cent above the 10 year average and chicken prices 15 per cent up. Egg prices are 60 per cent above the decade average.

Since November 15, egg and chicken prices have continued to drop sharply. Turkey prices have held unchanged to slightly higher for producers with some irregularity showing up during the past week.

Farm Exports Up In Italy

ROME (AP) — Intensification of trade between Western European Marshall plan countries is credited with increasing Italian agricultural exports during the first eight months of 1949.

Officials said experts of farm products during that period showed a substantial gain over the same months in 1948. Major increases were registered in shipments of cheese, fresh and dried fruits, vegetables and hemp. Decreases were noted in exports of wine, potatoes and olive oil.

By DAVE UNDERHILL

This column isn't trying to emulate the "Meet The People" section of the paper.

But pictured above is Helen Doege going about her daily work as a clerk at Currin's, who as you might well suspect sponsor the Currin's program, "Polly Speaks."

"Polly Speaks," heard daily over JI at 10:55 a. m., is a beauty advice program, so to speak, with Helen doing the advising.

UNDERHILL

Our local "beauty advisor" says she really looks forward to her daily stint before the mike but is so exhausted after it is over she wonders how she ever managed to get through it.

For those of you keep record books on unusual happenings mark down the date of December 19 as an unusual day.

On that date the city council meeting lasted only one hour and thirty minutes and I was through work at 11:30 p. m.

That is a record of some sort, believe me.

Perry Carle and all the boys on the LW staff got a mention on the Beverly Hills orchestra program on Tuesday last. Layton Noble and his boys dedicated a song specially to the staff on our local ABC station.

An axiom that seems to stand true is that you can't please all the people all the time This truth in particular seems to plague columnists.

Take the case of one "B. Mike," alias Bill Moyes, who runs a daily radio column in the Oregonian.

The other day Moyes got two letters which he printed in his column, both of which were giving him "What-for" because of columns he had written.

One writer gave out with a blast, claiming that information Moyes had published about the state rehabilitation set-up was incorrect.

The other epistle writer was haranguing because Moyes was writing too much radio news and not enough gossip.

So what is a fellow supposed to do?

The only obvious answer is to write what is at hand, and then take the rebuffs.

This, incidentally, is one of these nights when there is not much radio news at hand. So we will talk about something else.

What is more appropriate than a short spiel about Christmas shopping.

Although I am kind of late, I finally wandered into a couple of stores and did some purchasing today.

Walked into a local clothing establishment and bought some snazzy shirts for my two brothers and Dad. Told the clerk to wrap them well since I was taking a long journey to Vancouver, B. C. for Christmas.

So what should it be, but that the clerk was born there some years ago, but hasn't been back for about fifteen years.

As I have mentioned here several times, this sure is a small world.

Met another couple of ex-Vancouverites several weeks ago. It turned out that we had mutual friends from some twenty years back who live just a couple of houses up the street from my folks.

Guess we'll have to form an ex-Vancouver club and talk about old times.

Among the animals which have been domesticated since before recorded history are the dog, ox, sheep, goat, horse, humped cattle, ox, elephant, cat, goose honeybee and ass.

She Strings Children Along Through Crowd

CHICAGO, (AP)—Mrs. Ruth Bollnow had 40 tiny boys and girls from the Riverside Nursery school—and a problem—on her hands. She wanted to take the kids on a tour of the huge Union Railroad station but she didn't want to lose any of them.

So she got a long rope. The tots grasped it and, strung out like snake dancers, they stayed in place as Mrs. Bollnow led them through the terminal.

Figs for Bossy In California

MERCED, Calif., (AP)—For 25 years dairy farmers in Merced county have been feeding unmarketable figs to their cows. The cows like the sweet taste, says farm advisor W. H. Alison.

Figs have almost as much food value as barley, he says, but adds that they have to be mixed with other feed. More than 25 per cent fig content has a laxative effect.

THE ART CENTER, 1227 Main—Late gift shopping every night this week until 9:00.
