Children's Yule Party Friday Night

The children's annual Christmas party and program sponsored by the Loyal order of Moose and Junior chamber of commerce, at 7 p. m. Friday in the armory, was announced today.

Music will be by the high school band under the direction of La Marr Jensen, dancing by the Isa Dorah Moldovan studio, a movie of Santa Claus in animal land, the Fremont seventh grade under the direction of Mrs. Jane Craig and a brass sextet from the high school under the direction of Jack Knowles.

Santa Claus, sponsored by J. W. Kerns Implement company, along with "Merry Christmas" will be there and they will have with them Rudolph, the red nosed reindeer.

These two Christmas characters have made several appearances in Klamath Falls at parties and functions for children.

After the children's party the teen-agers will hold their party and dance in the armory, starting about 9 p. m.

Chamber Holds Christmas Meeting

Chamber of commerce members gathered yesterday for the annual Christmas meeting at the Main street headquarters and to hear reports on end-of-the-year activities.

Margaret Santie of the Midland Empire Traffic association reported on the recent freight rate hearing in San Francisco and told members that some truck freight reductions had been secured, with others still pending.

Refinancing
Final plans were outlined for the proposed refinancing plan to be kicked off in the near future. Chairman George Davis gave a sketch of what was to be done and what had been accomplished to date.

The loan of some city school equipment to OTI was told by Arnold Gralapp, OTI chairman. Record attendance at the school on the hill had caused the shortage.

THE ART CENTER, 1227 Main—Late gift shopping every night this week until 9:00.
