

Sallies... by SALLY

This is Christmas week-end and families are gathering to share the wonders of Christmas morning around the tree. Trains and planes were bringing folks into Klamath Falls, but there were many leaving to spend the holidays elsewhere.

Miss Florence Weaver of Los Angeles is here for Christmas to be with her brother's family, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin L. Weaver of Auburn street.

And from San Francisco came Miss Florence Odell on Saturday to be the holiday guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Odell of Ewauna street.

Mrs. Fred W. Bertram, who resides at the Plaza hotel in San Francisco, arrived by train Saturday. She will spend the holidays with her son's family, the Lawrence Bertrams. While here, Mrs. Bertram is at the Willard hotel.

Mrs. Margaret Powell Lamb arrived Friday morning from Portland to share in Christmas festivities with her son, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Lamb and young Chris, and to enjoy a visit with her many friends in Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Twyla Ferguson was northbound Saturday morning to be the houseguest of Mrs. Cornelia Marvin Pierce in Salem.

And also in Salem during the holidays will be Lt. and Mrs. Stuart Nelson and daughters, Genevieve and Lauren, who went through Klamath Falls on the Daylight bound from Alameda. They will spend the Christmas vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nelson of Salem and with Barbara's parents, Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Johnson, now of Portland.

Marcella Reynolds left by motor Friday after the close of Fremont school festivities to join her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Reynolds, for the holidays at Boise, Idaho.

Going north are Mr. and Mrs. Edmund M. Chilcote of 3615 Shasta way, who are enjoying the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Hale Thompson (Ruth Chilcote) and family in Eugene. Mr. and Mrs. Chilcote were married in St. Helena late in September and have been at home here since that time. She is the former Mrs. Luella Hough of this city.

Saying hello to friends en route to Long Beach, Calif., were Malcolm and John Epley of the University of Oregon who will spend the holidays with their parents, Mac and Jane Epley and little Alix. The two will visit here on their way north next week.

Barbara and Sparky Adams arrived this week-end for the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Beane of Pacific Terrace. They reside in Santa Rosa, Calif.

Nancy Bennett, daughter of the Warren Bennets of 1142 Crescent, will spend Christmas at home, literally. Nancy, in her last quarter at Stanford, had surgery at a Palo Alto hospital recently, and has just returned with her mother here. She will be in bed most of the holiday season but friends may call. Jody Bennett arrived from Vassar early this week to join her family for Christmas.

Nancy Elliott, a senior student nurse at Providence hospital in Portland arrived Friday to spend a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Elliott.

Beverly Melhase arrived Friday noon by United Air Lines from Los Angeles, where she is employed in an interior decorating store, to spend several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Melhase. Dick Melhase is also home from Oregon State college for Christmas vacation with his parents.

Mrs. Fred Schallack is spending two weeks in Redwood City with relatives. She plans to return a few days after Christmas.

Mrs. Wm. Owens held a traditional Christmas bridge party for her club on Lakeshore drive last Friday evening.

Guests who exchanged gifts were Mrs. Moon Mullis, Mrs. Stanley Pade, Mrs. Bert Schmidt, Mrs. Calvin Lee, Mrs. T. C. Griggs, Mrs. Andy Brink, Mrs. Herb Haneline, Mrs. A. V. McVey, Mrs. Chet Langlois, Mrs. Clancy Canine, and the houseguest of Mrs. Owens, Mrs. Mabel Foster of Redmond, Oregon.

Two wonderful Christmas presents—daughters!

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Newman of Seattle are parents of their first child, Laura Ann, born at Newmark hospital at 3:15 p.m. last Saturday. The glowing grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Loren Palmerton, are helping with her first Christmas in Seattle. Mama is the former Margie Palmerton.

And also in Seattle is Dana Drew, the new arrival at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Sutherland (Mary Louise Loney). The little girl will be greeted by proud grandparents, the Andrew Loney, when they go north for the remainder of the holidays on Sunday.

Arriving Saturday morning for the holiday season was Jean Underwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Underwood. Jean was accompanied by Ann Thompson who will be the Underwoods' guest at Christmas. Both girls are in the engineering department of The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company. Jean remains until after New Year's Day.

George Underwood will spend the holidays on the East coast. He is now stationed at Chincoteague, Virginia, naval auxiliary air station.

Nicest thing about Christmas, the cards and notes from people far away, old friends that think of you at holiday time. From the Bob Leonards at Beaverton, pretty little cards that Pat must have made, a miniature swag of Christmas greens on the cover and inside, coupled with the greeting, an even tinier swag, both caught with bright red yarn.

Christmas trees, greens and candles decked the parish hall at St. Paul's Episcopal church a week ago Friday evening when the Girls Friendly society group from Fremont Junior high school entertained with a dancing party and supper.

Miss Hazel Morrison and Mr. and Mrs. Neal Stewart were sponsors. It was party dress for the girls and ties for the young men and enjoying the affair were Sue Ramsby, Ann Henderson, Carolyn Boyd, Ruth Roenicke, Sara Stewart, Beverly Lassett, Edna Clawson, Janice Larson, Annette Jacobs, Lillian Mahan, Gail Reinhart, Delores McFarland, Roberta Wade, Carol Jean Elliott, Sylvia Gerber.

George Ongman and family of Anchorage, Alaska, are spending the holidays with Mr. Ongman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Ongman, 2245 Radcliffe.

Pat Baker, who won a national scholarship to the John Herron School of Art at Indianapolis, is home for the holidays and taking a breather from his concentrated work at the institute. Pat is the son of Emmett Baker of this city and will be home until after the holidays.

Bill Hagelstein, who is now with Wells Fargo bank in San Francisco, is expected home for the holidays to be with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William G. Hagelstein of Dorris.

The annual Christmas party of the neighborhood gang was an event of last Saturday at the Steve Rose home on Portland street. The children were entertained with games and a gift exchange, while the parents enjoyed a Tom and Jerry party. Nearly fifty friends were present.

Home for the holidays will be three Marylhurst college students, Frances Hallinan, Peggy McAndrews and Mary Vandenberg. The girls have participated in many pre-holiday activities on campus, including an evening of caroling followed by a old-fashioned Christmas party, a presentation of Dickens' Christmas Carol, and a formal dinner.

Miss Hallinan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Hallinan, was recently invested with the medal of the college Sodality and will be formally received after the holidays. Miss McAndrews and Miss Vandenberg are already members.

Mary Vandenberg was honored last week with the presidency of the newly-formed Etiquette club. As a member of the Choraleists, she appeared on the Christmas program of the Portland Art Museum on December 11.

Miss McAndrews is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Andrews. Mary and David Vandenberg returned this week-end with their father, Judge David R. Vandenberg who was north on court affairs. David is a student at Portland university. When Judge Vandenberg drove to Salem this week he was accompanied by his mother, Mrs. John Henry Vandenberg of Portland who had been here on a pre-holiday visit.

New additions to the Klamath Falls population last week included a girl, born on Tuesday to Mr. and Mrs. Ben Goddard. She weighed 7 pounds, 7 1/2 ounces. Ben is the deputy district attorney.

And it's a boy for the Bob Waggoners. He arrived Friday and weighed in at 7 pounds, 7 ounces. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Waggoner of this city.

Christmas Eve will find the family of Mrs. Leslie Rogers gathered around her tree, including Mr. and Mrs. James Rogers, and children, Donald and Carol, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Warren and children Nancy and Janna, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ravizza, with Susan, Michael and Sally. Sunday they will all have Christmas dinner at the Scott Warren ranch at Algoma.

Mrs. Marshall Cornett is spending the holidays in Yakima with her aunt, Mrs. W. T. Van Decar. She will return after Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Thomas will have both daughters home for Christmas. Daughter Eleanor arrived from San Francisco, where she is employed with an advertising firm, and daughter Mary, Mrs. Emmitt Smith, came from Portland to be with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hopkins left for Portland to spend Christmas with their two children, with their car loaded with presents. They will stay with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Tomlinson, and Tom and Sharon Hopkins will also be present for the festivities.

Mr. and Mrs. Don C. Fisher left yesterday for Los Angeles on a combined business and pleasure trip. Don is superintendent of Lava Beds National Monument. They will return January first.

Donna McVey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. McVey, will leave Monday for Ventura, where she will visit friends. She plans to see the Rose Bowl game—lucky girl.

Mary Lou Timmons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Timmons, who left Klamath Falls to live in Portland several years ago, was married December 11 in Portland. The groom is Mark H. Beach Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Beach of Oswego.

Palms, Flowers Wedding Setting

The wedding of Elizabeth Ober and Errol T. O'Gieblyn was an event of Sunday afternoon, December 11, in the Klamath Lutheran church. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. L. G. Ober of Whittier, Calif. The church was beautifully decorated with baskets of chrysanthemums and snapdragons, banded against palms, and candelabra on the altar.

Miss Ober, given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Mr. A. D. Alford, wore an afternoon length gown fashioned with an ice blue satin bodice and blue tulle skirt over satin.

Before the double ring ceremony, read by the Rev. Irvin Sweet, Mrs. Marie Nelson sang "Calm as the Night," accompanied by Mrs. Arthur Denison.

Attending the bride was Mrs. Pat Sullivan. She wore a rose satin cap-sleeved dress with grey accessories. Pat Sullivan was best man.

After the wedding, guests attended a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Eastburn, 1813 Birch street.

The newlyweds cut the first piece of the three tiered wedding cake which was served by Mrs. Elton Smith and Mrs. Olive Spry. Mrs. Eastburn assisted.

Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. O'Gieblyn motored to Crescent City and Portland. For traveling the bride chose a beige wool jersey dress with winter pink accessories. They are now at home at 733 1/2 Alameda.

Coming from Portland for the brother of the groom.

Both Mr. and Mrs. O'Gieblyn are employed at the United States National bank.

Bride Elect Given Holiday Shower

TULELAKE — Sharon Stacy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Stacy who will be a bride of January 8 was honored Saturday afternoon, December 17 at a bridal shower in the annex of the Tulelake Community Presbyterian church. Mrs. Vern Clifford, Klamath Falls, was the hostess.

A lighted Christmas tree and Christmas greens gave a holiday background for the party.

The refreshment table was centered with an arrangement of holly, greens and red tapers and a silver and white cake bearing the names, "Sharon and David." Pouring were Mrs. F. O. Rodgers and Mrs. Glen Holst, Klamath Falls.

Sharon will marry David Lagan Jr., Tulelake, son of Mr. and Mrs. Davis Lagan of this community.

Invited for the shower were Mrs. Isabella Brown, Mrs. Lyndell Odom, Mrs. F. O. Rodgers, Mrs. Glen Holst, Mrs. David Lagan Sr., Mrs. W. S. Edwards, Mrs. Rose Bailey, Mrs. Joe Slezak, Mrs. William Schindler, Mrs. Albert Nelson, Mrs. Della Saunders, Mrs. Dottie Titch, Mrs. Harvey Reed, Ann and Mary Ruth Reed, Mrs. J. W. Carlisle, Mrs. Granger White, Mrs. Tommy Crawford, Mrs. George Taylor, Mrs. Bob Helms, Mrs. William Bailey, Mrs. George Stacy.

To make cranberry juice for a cocktail, boil two cups of the berries with two cups of water until the berries are soft. Put them through a sieve, sweeten them with a half cup of sugar and add a dash of salt. Chill and add the juice to a cup of cold gingerale just before serving.

Dance Plans Under Way for New Years

A ham dinner at midnight will be featured at the annual formal dance at Reames Golf and Country club on New Years Eve, for members of Reames and their guests.

The rooms will be decorated with winter scenes, and hats and noisemakers will be furnished.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Torgerson are chairmen of the committee for the ball, and Mr. and Mrs. Gus Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. John West will assist with arrangements. The Morrison and MacDonald orchestra will play for dancing, which is from 10 until 2. The social hour begins at nine o'clock.

If you are serving rolls for a holiday dinner be sure to heat them first. You can use a bun warmer, a double boiler, or you can put them in a brown paper bag — with the top tightly closed by twisting—in a modera oven.
