

Mary Robertson Is Honored at Shower

TULELAKE—Mary Robertson, who will become the bride of Ransom Buck Turner, Burley, Idaho, December 27, at a church wedding here, was honored with a bridal shower, Monday, December 19.

The annex of the Tulelake Community Presbyterian church was beautifully decorated for the affair with a lighted Christmas tree, holly, and red candles and arrangements of red and white carnations. Red and white are Stanford's colors. Mary studied at Stanford, and now is taking nurses training at Stanford Lane. Ransom is in premed school at Stanford.

Since Mary was unable to reach Tulelake in time for the shower her gifts were opened by Helene Fischer and Bernice Hartley.

The refreshment table was centered with a cake, and arrangement of carnations and lilies all carrying out the Stanford colors. Pouring were Mrs. George Fischer, cousin of the bride with whom Mary has made her home and Mrs. C. C. Coulson.

Hostesses for the affair were Mrs. Coulson, Mrs. N. C. Wilkinson, Mrs. Charles K. Wiese, Mrs. M. R. Laird, Mrs. L. W. Hartley, Mrs. Chester J. Stoneypher, Mrs. Ival Wolfe and Mrs. Norman Esser.

Alison Osborne sang "Sweetest Than Springtime" and "I'm in Love With a Wonderful Guy" with Helene Fischer at the piano. Alma Coulson gave a reading.

Swiss cheese, cut into thin, small pieces is delicious in a green salad. Pep up the French dressing for the salad with a little prepared mustard and a little onion juice.

Do not cook mushrooms over too high heat or too long or they will toughen.
