

MAC THE PARROT gets some attention now that the kids are home from school. Risking the loss of a finger is Glen Lorenz, junior at the University of Oregon, and Jim Howard, senior at Oregon, looks on. Glen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Lorenz; Jim the son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Anderson.

SOCIETY

By Sally
Kent

ALL SET FOR THE HUNT, now they are home for the holidays, with their guns polished, are Doug Dryden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Dryden, "Perk" Stearns, son of Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Stearns, and Bill Harsey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Harsey. "Perk" and Doug are sophomores at Oregon State college, and Bill is a freshman.

CHRISTMAS vacation means sons and daughters arriving in a flurry from schools, both north and south, to spend the holiday season with their families. These well known young men about town came home this week, getting in a good respite from books, and enjoying a well stocked larder of home made Christmas sweets.

ALL THE INGREDIENTS for a good day of skiing are at hand—the snow—and the skis, so Bob Thompson, Rod Murray and Milton Thompson make plans for vacation fun. Bob and Milton are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Elton Thompson, and Rod is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Murray. Milton came home from San Jose State college, where he is a junior, and Bob and Rod, seniors, are from Oregon State college. (Lower right).

—All pictures by Guderian.

Right: GETTING TOGETHER during the holidays with all the comforts of home are Bob Hilton, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Hilton, John Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Young, and Rod Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bell. John is home from OSC and Bob and Rod are attending the University of Oregon. It is the first year of college for the three. Left: JIM MYERS, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Myers, is enjoying his vacation from Southern Oregon college with his family, including the cocker spaniel "Copper."

Left: JUST LOAFING is the best way to spend their few days home, according to Bill Kittredge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Kittredge, Jim Carter, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Carter, and Jack Nicol, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nicol of Adel, all in their freshman year of college. Jim goes to the University of Oregon, Bill and Jack are at Oregon State.

Center: A DAY OF RELAXATION is enjoyed by Jim Owens and Bob Hooker, both home from the University of Oregon where they are freshmen. Jim is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Owens, and Bob is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Hooker.

