Baseball seems to be the only subject today. Even the deer season is put in the background by the world series. Anything that can do that is really top drawer. Everywhere you go you find knots of men standing around a radio listening to the news of the game. The Red threat, potential war, debts, politics and everything else take a back seat. The only thing it proves is that this is still America, thank God!

Two sidelights from other papers on the general subject. The Oregonian yesterday morning carried a page one story about Jake Bennett the anti-gambling city councilman losing a bet on the Giants-Dodgers game. Sign of the times? And the other from Herb Caen's column in the San Francisco Examiner telling of people already complaining that their TV reception is a "trifle fuzzy." Caen makes the apt remark that people are starting to be critical of our most modern development in the entertainment world.

If we think that the series is a business disrupter now, in 1951, what will it be ten years from now when every community across the nation has television as we now have radio? Then I suppose we'll shut up shop just as we do for certain hunting seasons. Or install TV sets in every store so the help can join the customers in watching the events of the world. And what could be bigger than a world series?

Final observation of the day about baseball: Which made the bigger impression, the explosion of the second Russian A bomb or the explosion in the ninth inning staged by the Giants to clinch their place in the series?

Up in Washington the town of Kalamazoo is in the news. The frogs up there are staging a migration down the road from one spot to another. What's so new about that? Ask any old timer in Klamath Falls to tell you about the vast migrations of frogs we used to see here every year from the upper to the lower lakes. They would put the Kalamazoo exodus to shame.

A query from the boss: Suppose a fire alarm went off right now—Suppose the boys at the fire house would hear it? How about it, Roy, you listening to the series too?

WASHINGTON, (AP)—In this newspaper business you're supposed to figure what is the most interesting news to the most people. But maybe it's the people who can figure it best.

In our office here in Washington we have a brigade of noisy electric machines which 24 hours a day pump out news from all over and pump out news from here to everywhere.

When I walked into the office the other afternoon I knew something big was happening because the little group of editors on the main desk were beating out stuff on a typewriter and rushing it over to one of the machines.

BULLETIN
There a teletype operator was sending it out to the world. I skipped over to see and it was big news, indeed. It said "bulletin." And right behind the bulletin tag came the news which said:

The White House had just announced explosion of a second Russian atom bomb in two years. Then followed in dignified fashion the White House statement made by Joseph Short, President Truman's press secretary.

I looked up to digest the meaning of it. Only a few feet away another group of editors, and operators, too, was huddled around another machine, leaning forward, tense, watching.

"This stuff about the bomb has them all on their feet," I said to myself, thinking they were watching a duplicate machine carrying news of the bomb. A member of our machines make duplicate copies of stories being sent or received.

One of the little group of editors at the main desk shouted to the operator sending the atomic bulletin "here's more on the explosion." The group around the other machine, not assigned to help handle the atomic story, looked up.

Scream
Some of them moved over to read the atomic bulletin. They read the bulletin stuff quickly, critically and thoughtfully. Then they went back to join the group watching the other machine.

Suddenly a scream came. Then they all shouted and broke up, pounding one another on the back. One of them did a fast jig. They were all laughing.

That was a strange reaction to the Russian bomb. After all, it was the Russians who had exploded the bomb, I said "what, 7?" One of the operators said "The Giants just won the pennant with a homer in the ninth."

So that was it. They had been watching the play-by-play description of the Giants-Dodgers game coming in on one of the wires from New York.

Maybe in the end that atomic explosion in Russia will prove to have been the most important news that moved all that day. But to the most people it was a ball game, not a bomb.

Telling the Editor

DO WE WANT IT?
KLAMATH FALLS—Recent articles in the newspaper give evidence that our local high school coach is striving to maintain high standards of what we call sportsmanship.

Yet I wonder if our community is really concerned about fair play in connection with sports activities. Recently, within the space of a minute, I heard a sports announcer say "This is a grudge match at the armory," and "This is a revenge game for the Pelicans."

Grudge? Revenge? Are these qualities we want to promote in our young people?

ALANO DASS, MENTALIST WHO OPENED HIS ONE-WEEK ENGAGEMENT AT THE PELICAN THEATRE LAST NIGHT, IS ANSWERING ALL TYPES OF QUESTIONS SUBMITTED BY MEMBERS OF THE AUDIENCE AND PRESENTING MENTAL TESTS WITH STRANGERS.

IN ADDITION TO THE QUESTIONS THAT DASS WILL ANSWER AT THE THEATRE, HE WILL ALSO ANSWER QUESTIONS DAILY IN THE COLUMNS OF THIS NEWSPAPER. BELOW ARE SOME OF THE FIRST QUESTIONS SUBMITTED AT THE THEATRE AND THE ANSWERS AS GIVEN BY DASS.

M. C.—Will I have my little son with me soon?

A.—I realize this problem has caused you quite a lot of worry, but I feel you will have your son, Ronnie, with you soon. It is my opinion that J. will decide to let you keep him and will not cause you any trouble.

K. W.—Will we get to take our trip this fall?

A.—Yes, you will go to Texas as planned. You will go next month and will stay about four weeks. You will enjoy a pleasant visit with relatives and old friends.

Mrs. H. B.—Will my son get the money that he is expecting and how soon?

A.—It is my intuitive impression that the company will make a satisfactory settlement, and your son will get part of the money about the middle of next month.

A. G.—When will we see our grandson again?

A.—It appears to me that your grandson will arrive in San Francisco either late next month or in early December and will be home for the holidays. Your daughter will receive a letter from him within the next seven days containing good news. He has completely recovered from the wound that he received in July.

D. S.—Will my husband get the position he has in mind and, if so, how soon?

A.—Your husband will get the position that has been promised to him and he will leave for Eugene about the 20th of this month. You will be successful in renting your house and will join him about a week later.

Mr. P. B.—Why don't I hear from R.?

A.—You are right in what you think about her. She is seeing C. quite often, and, in my opinion, they will be married within the next three months.

I. C.—Mr. Dass, do you think we will buy a house soon or will we rent one?

A.—I have my impression that you will buy a house within the next three weeks, and it will be the one you have been wanting and is owned by Mr. L.

V. H.—Will J. and B. reunite soon?

A.—I think they will be able to work out their problem and will be back together before he leaves Klamath Falls. They are in love and I feel they can adjust their affairs and have a happy marriage.

M. T.—What is your opinion regarding D.? Is he the right one for me or should I give him up?

A.—I feel sure you aren't going to like my answer but I have to say no to your question. As I see it, he still cares for H. and does not intend to give her up. Why not devote more of your time to H.?

E. R.—How long will it be before I can expect a raise in salary?

A.—It is my opinion that no raise can be expected this year; however, both a raise and transfer are indicated during the first three months of the coming year.
