Odds on Yanks Sliced to 6-5

NEW YORK, (AP)—Leo Durocher's winning gamble with Lave Koso gave the incredible New York Giants edge today in their World Series date with destiny—and the New York Yankees.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

By The Associated Press
Havana — Kid Gavilan, 147, Havana, knocked out Bobby Rosado, 147, Puerto Rico, 7 minutes.

Instead of a weary crew of staggering pitchers Leo has his three best ready to go in order, and the Yankees already have used up the feared Mr. Reynolds. Retreating in confusion from the 8 to 5 odds favoring the Yanks, the market now says 6 to 5 and take your pick.

CONTROL PITCHER
With the Giant array of right-handed batters power, lefty Eddie Lopat (21-9) is no couch to square the series for Casey Stengel today. A control pitcher those stuff usually produces many fly balls, Lopat will have to thread the needle to escape trouble from hitting Bobby Thomson and Moele Irvin.

Dark Has Ball, Thomson Looks

NEW YORK, (AP)—Alvin Dark, New York Giants shortstop, has the ball which he parked in the left field stands yesterday for the first World Series homer.

A fan, who identified himself as Cliff Barton of Providence, R.I., presented the ball to the Giant captain after the game.

RAIDERS RED HOT

HAMILTON, N. Y., (AP)—Colgate university football team picked up their nickname of Red Raiders during the 1932 season. They ran through their tough schedule undefeated, untied and unscored upon wearing new uniforms of maroon pants, maroon and white shirts and white headgear.

TOP PREP ELEVENS HAVE 'BREATHERS'

By The Associated Press

Coaches of the state's leading high school football teams are running for cover this weekend. Their opponents look so easy that the coaches fear the worst.

The notable games will come in the northern part of the state. Much of the interest will center in Portland where Roosevelt, No. 2 in the latest Associated Press poll, takes on a Jefferson team that provided an upset last week.

Elsewhere the district races are expected to be narrowed further, although Grants Pass, the state's No. 1 team, and a few others forego district action. Grants Pass will be host to Milwaukie from northern Oregon; Medford will travel to Roseburg; and Corvallis will play at Cottage Grove in non-district games.

Top I-A district action features these games: Tigard at Hillsboro and West Linn at Oregon City in Dist. 4; Springfield at Marshfield in Dist. 5; Baker at Milton-Freewater in Dist. 7; Bend at Salem in Dist. 8. In Class A-2 there will be these crucial district games:

JIM NOREEN, ex-Pelican, is the elusive safety man on the College of Pacific first defensive team. The Tigers meet the University of Oregon tomorrow night in COP's Stockton Memorial Stadium.

TUMMY ACHIE
EUGENE, Ore., (AP)—Tackle Mike Sikora was the only question mark yesterday as Oregon drilled for tomorrow's non-conference football game against College of Pacific. Sikora missed practice because of a stomach ailment. Coach Len Casanova said he believed Sikora would recover in time for the night game at Stockton.
