

AFTER THE WEDDING of Shirley Carr Dalton to Rupert Louis (Bud) Gates, Sunday afternoon, September 30.

Society
By MILLY RAMSBY

THE DALTON-GATES WEDDING

RINGBEARER, Douglas Stiles and flower girl, Libby Byrne, with Douglas' brother Steven.

Photos by Guderinn

A RADIANT BRIDE was Shirley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dalton, after her marriage to Rupert Louis Gates, son of Mrs. Della Gates, Beverly Hills.

FRANK AND RUTH Adams with Bud and Shirley at the Adams home after the rehearsal.

CHATTING in the kitchen of the J. Frank Adams home, are Bud's uncles with his mother and close friends. Left to right, Rupert Shaw, Mrs. Della Gates, Mrs. Robert Mullen, Mr. Louis Shaw and Mrs. Sherman Sanders.

SHIRLEY and bridesmaid Sue Page.

"ON DUTY" at the coffee table: Mrs. Don Calwell, Mrs. J. P. Wilson, Mrs. W. C. Dalton and Mrs. Clara Shaw.

W. C. DALTON and granddaughters, Shirley and Libby.

MRS. PAUL DALTON and one of the ushers, Jan Liedberg, at the after rehearsal party.

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER, (not sisters), at the reception.

"ONE UMBRELLA WILL DO" ... leaving the church.

MRS. CLARA SHAW with Shirley's grandfather and aunt, Mr. H. H. Jenkins and Mrs. J. P. Wilson.

AT HOME before going to the church, bride-to-be and father, Paul J. Dalton, exchange some light banter.

REV. GALEN ONSTAD of St. Paul's Episcopal church with Carol Cobb at the guest book.

REFLECTING the happiness pervading the reception at Reames are J. Frank Adams and Jan Lindberg.