

Dare Brings Death Plunge

MEMPHIS, Tenn., (AP)—A young paratrooper plummeted 115 feet to death here when he jumped off a Mississippi river bridge because of a "dare" from his two companions. Inspector U. T. Bartholomew identified him as Pfc. Norman Seidenzahl of Baltimore, Md., stationed at Fort Campbell, Ky., with the 11th airborne division. The body was not recovered.

His two paratrooper buddies told police Seidenzahl vaulted the bridge rail after they had jokingly challenged him to make the jump. They said he wrenched away when they tried to hold him. Seidenzahl, Pfc. George Anderson, 21, Wilmington, Del., and Pfc. John Soroka, 23, Masury, O., arrived here yesterday on a three-day pass after a stopoff in Nashville, Tenn.

The trio thumbed a ride to the bridge and stood at the railing, about one third of the way across, making jocular wagers about jumping off. Then Seidenzahl started his jump.

Anderson, tears streaming down his face said, "We both grabbed him but he tore loose and hit the water on his side. We never saw him again."

MOROCCO PROBE
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., (AP)—Egypt formally proposed Friday that the United Nations general assembly look into France's treatment of French Morocco. The Egyptian move apparently was intended to open the way for debate on Arab league demands for Moroccan independence. The assembly meets in Paris next month.
