St. Augustine Altar Society

MERRILL. — Plans were discussed for the annual bazaar sponsored by St. Augustine's Altar Society, when a regular meeting was held October 3, at the parish house. For the first time in several years a public dinner will be served at the bazaar Saturday November 17. Tickets will be on sale around the first of November.

A variety of articles will be for sale and games will be played. Ladies from Bonanza will also have a booth at the bazaar.

Mrs. Harold Hendrickson, Mrs. Howard Dewey, Mrs. Charles Van, Mrs. Morris O'Keefe, and Mrs. Frank Collins were the refreshment committee. Members present were Mrs. Pete Calise, Mrs. August Andrieu, Mrs. Toby O'Keefe, Mrs. Ben Murphy, Mrs. Ben Johnson, Mrs. Tom O'Keefe, Mrs. John Madden, Mrs. John Burke, Mrs. W. E. Hammond, Mrs. Hugh Falvey, Mrs. Mike Noonan, Mrs. Jerry Ahern, Mrs. Don Harris, Mrs. Costa Delila, Mrs. Frank Wagner, Mrs. Dan Barry, Mrs. Dalton Parker, and two visitors from Bonanza, Mrs. Clay Walker and Mrs. Frank W. Brown.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Dan Cashman on October 31, to make final plans for the bazaar.

Parmesan cheese, mixed with fine dry bread crumbs, makes a good coating for fish fillets that are to be fried. Dip the fish fillets into slightly beaten egg before rolling in the cheese-crumbs mixture.

William DeVaul Golden Wedding

LANGELL VALLEY — Sunday afternoon September 23rd a reception was held in St. Barnabas church hall, Langell Valley, to honor Mr. and Mrs. William DeVaul on their golden wedding date. Over seventy-five guests and relatives assembled including three children, five grandchildren, and seven great-grandchildren.

The couple was born in California, he in 1873, his wife in 1880. They were married in the little church in Ballard, California, September 22, 1901.

They traveled to Oregon by wagon and team, a twenty day trip to Lakeview. Later Mr. DeVaul spent three years with the 77 ranch in Warner valley. In 1905 they came to Klamath Falls where they still spend their summers at their Langell valley home. The honored guests could distinctly recall an ordinance (still on the books) forbidding Klamath residents to kick off the heads of snakes which often appeared in the wide cracks in the board walks.

After Rev. Gordon C. Ashbee gave an address of welcome, Mr. DeVaul sang a solo, "We've been Married Fifty Years," then the couple led the guests assembled in pairs around the hall, with all singing "The Old Gray Bonnet."

Mr. DeVaul cut the "Golden Wedding Cake," which was served with other refreshments.

If a homemaker is of average height, the floor of the sink in her kitchen should not be less than three feet and two inches from the floor.
