

City Briefs

In Washington—Musical Apprentice Robert Larson, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Larson, 136 Lewis, has reported for duty and is enrolled with the Navy's music school, Washington, D.C. He was recently home on boot leave from San Diego. He is a graduate of KUBS, class of 1950.

Camp Fire—There will be an all city party—with a hobo theme—for all camp fire girls and blue birds at the camp fire house, Conner avenue, Saturday from 2:30 to 4 p.m. All girls registered in a group are asked to bring a friend to this, the annual membership party. Any girl from seven to 17 years of age who wishes to join blue birds of camp fire girls is cordially invited. Come in a hobo costume. In case of rain, the party will be held indoors. A notice of the change of plans are apparent.

Missionary Society—The Kathryn Beattie Missionary society will meet tomorrow at 10 a.m. in the Peace Memorial Presbyterian church. At 1 p.m. Mrs. Carl Haged will give a report on the summer school in Portland. All friends and members are urged to come.

No Bowling—There will be no bowling this Friday for Moose No. 1 at the O.T. alley—too much hunting and football. Added bowlers will be needed, though, when bowling resumes October 19. For information phone T. P. McCormack, 4703, after 5 p.m.

Friendship Camp—The Friendship camp No. 9098 Royal Neighbors of America, will hold its regular meeting at the KC hall Friday at 8 p.m. All officers are asked to attend for drill practice.

Visitors—Mr. and Mrs. George E. McGilligan and son George Jr., have returned to Kenosha, Wis., after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Sutherland, 1925 Main. Mrs. McGilligan is Sutherland's sister. Young George goes into the navy next week.

Sale—Mazanita social club will have a rummage sale Saturday at the Masonic temple. Members are to bring rummage Friday afternoon.

Drama—A dramatic performance at the Latter Day Saints church is planned for November by Mrs. L. V. Hosford, who has been appointed dramatic director to produce plays with the young people of the church. She demonstrated makeup at a meeting Tuesday night of the church musical group.

Rummage—Chapter U, PEO sisterhood, will have a rummage sale Friday and Saturday at 422 Main, former location of the labor temple.

Sick—Jack Wilson, 421 Alameda, is reported seriously ill at his home.

Toastmasters—Bob Mitchell was toastmaster for last night's session of the Toastmasters club, and the subject was "Why Should We Support the Community Chest?" Five-minute talks were given by Ted Rhee, Bill Wetherill, Royce Shaffer, Charlie Hahn, Bruce Davis and Bob Knoll. The latter won first honors, followed by Wentworth and Davis. Julius Giuntoni was general critic. Table topics were given by Benny Loftsgaard.

Not Going—Dr. Ray Oldenburg is not attending the Oregon medical association convention at Portland this week-end, as reported by the association. He is here in town.

Recuperating—Ed Davis, former Merrill town marshal, is recuperating at home now after a stay at Providence hospital in Portland.

To Hospital—Joe Sanders, Weyerhaeuser employee, was taken to Klamath Valley hospital yesterday afternoon for treatment of an injury received at the company powerhouse.

Meeting—Royal Neighbor juveniles meet tomorrow, 6:30 p.m., in the K.C. hall.

New Officer—Gene Malecki, newly appointed state representative of the national foundation for infantile paralysis, visited the Klamath county chapter Wednesday. A special meeting was held at the Klamath county health department. Malecki spoke of state and national plans and the three recent cases of polio in Klamath county were discussed.

Card Party—Business and professional women are sponsoring a card party, 1:30 p.m., November 3, at the Willard hotel. Bridge, Pinochle and canasta will be in play and other games can be arranged. The committee also plans a tea and other entertainment during the afternoon. For information call Vada Schneck, 3211 or 6339. Eleanor Weatherford is chairman.

Art Programs—The Klamath Art association announces a series of art appreciation programs to be given in connection with the association's monthly meetings. The first one of the series will be conducted by the new art supervisor of Klamath schools, Richard Reinholdt, with an illustrated lecture on the subject "How to Look at a Painting." The meeting will be held October 15, 8 p.m., at the home of Dr. Boyd Sprague, 830 Pacific Terrace.

Farm Bureau—The county associated women of the farm bureau have planned a meeting for the Merrill recreation hall Monday, October 15 at 1:30 p.m.

Rummage Sale—Carnation club, degree of honor, will hold a rummage sale Friday and Saturday at the Suburban lumber company 11th and Walnut. There will be a good supply of women's clothing and other useful articles.

Home Again—Mr. and Mrs. Jim Stearns, Tulake, have returned from a combined business and pleasure trip to Sacramento and the bay area.

Injured—John Kite, Tulake teacher, is recovering in Klamath Valley hospital from painful injuries received Monday when a potato elevator he was attempting to move fell on him. X-ray showed no broken bones but he was badly bruised.

Meets Friday—The monthly meeting of Friendly Circle society, First Covenant church, will meet Friday, 8 p.m., at the church. This will be an all-neighbor meeting.
