

SOCIETY

by Milly Ramsby

ANNOUNCEMENT OF the engagement of Janet Leslie O'Connor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. O'Connor, Corvallis, to William A. Kittredge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Kittredge, is of wide interest to Southern Oregon. The wedding date has been set for December eighth at the Church of the Good Samaritan in Corvallis. Janet attended Oregon State college last year and Bill is enrolled there as a junior.
Hise Studio, Corvallis.

JUST AFTER THE CEREMONY and prior to leaving for their wedding trip are Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Miller, now at home at 4655 Boardman Avenue, Rev. Lloyd Holloway of the First Methodist church read the service uniting Carl E. Miller and Helen Louise Johnson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Selmer Johnson, 3322 Summers Lane, in marriage at the home of the bride's brother, Charles F. Johnson, 4500 Clinton Avenue. (Story on next page.)
Guderian

Red Cross photos by Kettler

CONTINUING THE CAMERA follow through on the American Red Cross Bloodmobile program, here are more volunteers shown preparing for the arrival of the Bloodmobile October 16. It is emphasized that those on this page are only representative of the many who give their time and blood (and lots of it) to this essential program. Frances Watkins (left), chairman of registration for the blood program, and Mary Maxwell, chairman of volunteer services committee, are looking at one of the many Red Cross pamphlets.

READY TO REGISTER BLOOD DONORS are American Red Cross volunteers, Amy Brown, Aagot Reeder and Carol Shaw. They represent many other women who find time to work long hours at Red Cross Headquarters. Members of the registration committee, all have been identified with other phases of the blood program, furnishing transportation for donors, miscellaneous typing and so forth. A trip down to headquarters at the army on October 16, to register, will be the most convincing way to find out just how busy all the volunteers and donors are.