Grain and Soybeans Strong

CHICAGO, (AP)—Grain and soybean futures were strong most of the time today on active buying and short covering.

Strength in the Winnipeg market, news of cold weather to further delay wheat harvesting in Canada, reports of wheat loss in Argentina and export talk helped stimulate buying.

Many new seasonal highs were posted, including May and July wheat, May and July oats, and May and July soybeans.

Wheat closed ⅞ to 1¼ cent higher than the previous finish.

Shaky Stocks Wind Up on Gain Side

NEW YORK, (AP)—Prices wavered between losses and gains on the stock market today but the advances finally had the edge.

Indecision was the keynote of most of the session and it was difficult at all times to catch a specific trend.

Activity was moderate most of the day and the volume was around 1,700,000 shares.

The market was very selective as the advances took a slight edge on the declines with traders picking and choosing in every major group.

Many traders attributed the hesitancy and caution to a spirit of watchful waiting for the third quarter earnings reports, many of which are due to roll in during the week.

Most trades now think the third quarter earnings will be somewhere between the pessimistic reports of six months ago and the high level of 1950.

Amerada Petroleum remained one of the stronger issues throughout the session with a gain of more than three points at one time. Santa Fe and Zenith Radio each had gains of better then a point at times.

New York Central and Union Pacific were among the rail gainers while Baltimore and Ohio and Chesapeake and Ohio lost ground slightly.

Ike to See Navy Work

(Editor's note: Stan Swinton, Associated Press bureau chief in Rome, spent much of world war two covering Allied forces on the battle fronts of Italy. Since those days, his byline has come from the battle fronts of Indochina, Indonesia, Malaya, and Korea. Now back in Italy, he is keeping a close watch on the building of Atlantic pact defenses in the Mediterranean area. In this dispatch from Naples he gives a preview of U.S. naval maneuvers which Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower will observe for the next four days. Swington will be covering the operations at sea.)

By STAN SWINTON

NAPLES, Italy, (AP—Gen. Dwight D Eisenhower turns sailor today for a first-hand look at the mighty naval force protecting Europe's Southern flank.

For three days the Atlantic pact's military commander will be at sea while a potent assembly of U.S. sixth fleet power demonstrates the navy's newest battle technique. It will be the first time Eisenhower ever has participated personally in extensive naval maneuvers, a spokesman said.

TO SEA

A special plane carrying Eisenhower is due at Naples from Paris this afternoon. Adm. Robert N. (Mike) Carney, commander in chief, Allied forces Southern Europe, will meet Eisenhower and take him aboard the USS Des Moines, flagship of the sixth fleet.

Early Tuesday the Des Moines and other sleek American warships now crowding beautiful Naples harbor will steam out to rendezvous at sea with other vessels. The size of the maneuvering fleet is a military secret. A spokesman said it could be estimated conservatively at "more than 30 ships."

Three aircraft carriers, among them the 45,000-ton Franklin D. Roosevelt, and three cruisers-the Macon, Albany, and Des Moines—are to participate.

The maneuvers will give a preview of how sea might, used along the sprawling Mediterranean coast line, could back up the growing armies of anti-Communist Mediterranean nations.

At sea, Gen. Eisenhower will see everything in the navy's battle book. There will be duels between carrier aircraft, air defense exercises, shore bombardment of a desolate Sardinian coast, night air attacks on fleet units, and bombing, strafing and rocket-firing demonstrations.

FIRST LOOK

It will be Eisenhower's first look at some techniques perfected in the Korean war.

For a firsthand view of carrier operations at sea the SHAPE commander will transfer by helicopter from the Des Moines to the Franklin D. Roosevelt.

On Thursday, Eisenhower will fly from the carrier to Nice. There his own plane will take him back to Paris.

Only one non-American ship, the Dutch cruiser Tromp, will participate in the exercises. Land-based French planes also will take part.

Fall Brings Back Sight

DETROIT (AP—Mrs. Mary C. Neuman blind for 18 years today was enjoying the strange sights of her own home.

The 62-year-old woman wasn't concerned over severe bruises on her forehead and right arm. She was too happy to be seeing such things as television for the first time.

Mrs. Neuman fell down a flight of 12-steps Saturday while feeling her way around the home of her daughter Mrs. Raymond Miller.

When relatives reached her side they found her excitely exclaiming: "I can see! I can see."

A family physician described restoration of Mrs. Neuman's sight as "miraculous." He said he was unable to give a medical reason for it adding: "The things just sometimes happen."

He said Mrs. Neuman had been blind and now could see but expressed doubt that pathological impairment caused her to lose her sight.

Mrs. Neuman's daughter said her mother who came here six months ago from Allentown Pa. was born with poor eyesight and went totally blind 18 years ago while suffering a kidney ailment.

Milk Control Fight Shapes

PORTLAND, (AP — The Portland Federation of Women's Clubs will open offices in Portland next month for its campaign to repeal Oregon's milk control law.

The federation, made up of 72 women's clubs, voted Saturday to enforce the milk control repeal plans advocated by its affiliated milk committee.

Mrs. Vivien McMurty, committee chairman, said the repeal bill already has been drafted. It calls for the elimination of the milk control act except for those portions which provide a price floor to producers. The present quota system also will be repealed to permit additional producers, who meet sanitary standards, to enter the Portland market.

Boy Perishes in Home Fire

DYERSBURG, Tenn., (AP — A two-year old boy perished in his flaming home here when he followed his mother into the smoke-filled living room. She was trying to save a few personal effects.

The body of Eddie Gene Redden was found behind the charred sofa by Fire Chief Otis Pruitt, who braved the flames after police dragged the hysterical mother to safety.

Mrs. William Redden had carried Eddie and his 1-year-old brother, Jimmy, outside the house Saturday when the fire started. She didn't know Eddie was close behind her when she went back.

$10,000 Suit Starts Today

A civil trial resulting from a train-car crash May 11, 1950, at the Joe Wright road-Southern Pacific mainline crossing, got underway in circuit court this morning.

George Sherdon Spencer, plaintiff in the case, is seeking $10,000 damages for alleged permanent head and neck injuries resulting from the accident. He is represented by U. S. Balentine.

Named as defendant in the case along with the SP is Ennis M. Grable,, engineer of the freight train involved in he wreck.

Oglesby H. Young, attorney from Portland, is representing the railroad company.

Selection of a jury was completed shortly before noon and the jury instructed to return at 1:30 this afternoon to view the accident scene.

Priest Claims Papal Visions

VATICAN CITY (AP—A high Vatican prelate says the Virgin Mary appeared three times to Pope Pius XI during the 1950 holy year.

Federico Cardinal Tedeschini archpriest of St. Peter's basilica reported this in an address published yesterday in the Vatican newspaper L'Osservatore Romano. The cardinal spoke Saturday at the shrine of Fatima in Portugal at ceremonies closing the extended Holy Year outside Rome.

The pontiff said Cardinal Tedeschini saw the virgin October 30 October 31 and November 1, 1950. It was November 1 that the pope formally proclaimed the dogma of the Virgin Mary's bodily assumption into heaven.

The cardinal said the visions appeared each day at the same time—4 p.m.—when he "turned his gaze from the Vatican gardens to the sun."

After telling of the virgin's reported appearance to three children in 1917 at Fatima and to the pope the cardinal said of the latter:

"Was this a reward? Was this a sign of divine sovereign pleasure for the definition of the dogma of the assumption? Was this a celestial testimony authenticating the marvels of Fatima with the center with the head of truth and the Catholic magistracy? The three things together?"

BOMB SHELTERS

PORTLAND, (AP—Signs designating "public shelter" areas are being posted on many Portland buildings this week. The Professional Engineers of Oregon surveyed 110 buildings recently and found many of them capable of providing shelter in the event of disaster or bombing attack.

saw before. Too often, we are DISMAYED by gifts. But nobody, either now or at any other time, was EVER dismayed by giving to a good and worthy cause.

Truly, as Jesus said, and as Paul reminded the elders of Ephesus, IT IS MORE BLESSED TO GIVE THAN TO RECEIVE.

Particularly if you have the warm and glowing feeling that your gift was needed and will do real good. I'm as cynical as anybody in these cynical days, but I can assure you that all the beneficiaries of this year's chest are worthy and will do REAL GOOD with your gift.

Police Seek Sports Star

BALTIMORE, (AP — Maryland state police sent out a 14-state tracer today for Don Barksdale, West Coast basketball star who was scheduled to report to the Baltimore Bullets of the National Basketball Assoc. last week.

The 6-foot-6 Negro athlete, lured from AAU ranks with a combined basketball-radio-television contract that makes him the highest paid athlete in local sports history, left San Francisco last week end by auto. He expected to arrive here no later than last Thursday.

Eddie Leonard and Robert Elmer, president and business manager respectively of the Bullets, asked state police to attempt to locate Barksdale.

Barksdale, who starred for two years at UCLA, was signed by the Bullets about two weeks ago for what the local club called "a fabulous amount."

Two Loggers Held in Jail

Two Dorris loggers, arrested by Oregon state police early Sunday morning on U.S. 97, were still in the Klamath county jail this morning.

Charged with being drunk on the highway were William M. Wilson and Lee W. Allen.

Also in the county lockup, charged with drunk driving and not having an operator's license, is George Gillman, 43, Tulelake. State officers arrested him Sunday on Oregon 39.

S. P. WRECK

OREGON CITY, (AP—A spectacular pileup of seven cars of a Southern Pacific freight train tied up rail and automobile traffic through this city Sunday night. Seven empty cement cars of a northbound freight train skipped the track when a break beam under on of them snapped about 6:30 p.m.

Sore-Handed Thief Sought

Somebody who has a sore hand right now burglerized the county library building over the weekend, and got just $5.

The breakin occurred, library officials said, sometime after 6 p.m. Saturday and 8 a.m. today. The office was ransacked and the money taken from a change box.

Entry was made by tossing a baseball-size rock through a window pane on the main floor, then unlatching and raising the window.

But earlier the thief apparently had tried to get in through a basement window. A pane was broken out and prowler apparently cut his hand trying to raise the window.

Several drops of blood fell on the sill.

Fred Fleet, chairman of the library board, said he thought burglarizing a library was a "crazy thing to do" because the institution never has any money over its few cents change coming in from overtime book fines.

"There's not a peanut stand in the county that doesn't have more money than we do," Fleet said.

Viaduct Gets Repair Work

Traffic on S. 6th was rerouted along E. Main this morning when the S. 6th viaduct was closed for repairs to the road surface.

Highway officials said a non-skid surface put on the viaduct about a month ago had not held and the surface had to be smoothed.

The viaduct was expected to be reopened for traffic late this afternoon.

Oregon Safety Record Bad

PORTLAND, (AP)—Only six states had a worse 1950 accidental death rate than Oregon.

That was the report here Saturday of the state board of health. Home accidents in Oregon claimed 33 lives while traffic mishaps claimed 456. The total death rate was 80.6 per 100,000 population.
