How to make good telephone service even better....

Give your friends time to answer

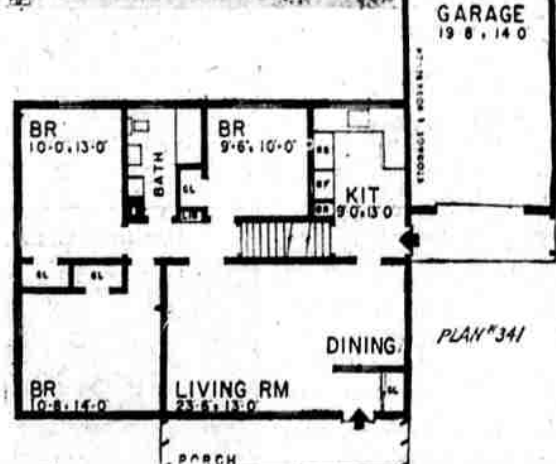

How often have you had someone hang up just as you answered the telephone? It isn't always possible, you know, to get to the telephone the moment it rings—the folks you are calling may be out enjoying their garden, or busy in some distant part of the house. You'll reach them more often... and avoid the disappointment of an incomplete call if you give them a full minute to answer.

faster Long Distance service is yours, if you give the operator the out-of-town telephone number, rather than just the name and address of the party you are calling. You'll not only save your time... but calling by number means better service for everyone, especially now when long distance lines are carrying so many urgent industrial and military calls.

the best way to make sure you always have out-of-town numbers handy when you need them is to keep a personal Long Distance number list. Why not start one today?

HOMES FOR AMERICANS

ECONOMICAL in plan and materials this house with three bedrooms should meet modern restrictions on critical metals. Its simple rectangular plan keeps building costs at a minimum. This is Plan 341 by Walter T. Anicka, 617 Forest St., Ann Arbor, Mich. The house covers 1070 square feet without garage. The architect recommends a roof of asphalt shingles, flush type plywood doors and hardwood veneer panels.

WAR CYCLE
NEW YORK, (U)—The navy transport Gen. J. H. McRae is back from a six-month, 32,000-mile voyage that reflected past, present and possibly future wars. The vessel first carried American troops to Europe to be on the guard against any new war there; then it took European troops to Korea; carried tired United Nations fighters back to Europe, and steamed into New York yesterday with 1188 displaced persons from the last war.
