

GUN STORE CHAMPION for approximately three hours this week was Joe Vieira, Bonanza (top) who bagged a deer near Bly Mountain with a 34-inch spread. Three hours after the Herald and News photographer had taken Vieira's picture with the horns that were leading the Gun Store contest for spread, Jack Morris (below) brought in a deer with a 35 1/2-inch spread. The Grants Pass man bagged his deer near Swan lake.

EDWARDS STAYS

NASHVILLE, Tenn., (AP)—Rumors that Bill Edwards would resign as football coach at Vanderbilt university were quashed when he was given a new contract last night. Terms of the new pact were not revealed, but it was understood he will direct the Commodores for the next two to four years.

TWIN BILL AT ARMORY TONIGHT

O'Reilly, Knox In Rematch

A recent match that had an unsatisfactory ending—according to one of the principals, Jack O'Reilly and the wrestling fans—gets its second showing tonight at the armory in one half of a double main event.

O'Reilly, said the referee, climbed back into the ring against Olen Knox just a split second late. He was disqualified and Knox given the match.

The Australian has been screaming for a rematch ever since.

NO BACK SEAT

But the other bout given top billing doesn't have to take a back seat to the Knox-O'Reilly brawl.

Gordon Hessel, Radium Springs, N.M., gets a crack at the current scourge of Northwest mat circles, the Galloping Ghost.

The Ghost is Knox's counter-part insofar as unorthodox tactics—and Hessel gets a chance to vent his anger on the masked man tonight for the questionable decision

THIS IS A NICE trick if you can get away with it—and (Baldy) Knox usually does. Knox is shown working over Gordon Hessel last week at the armory. The wild West Virginian will aim the same tactics at Jack O'Reilly tonight in the armory mat main event. O'Reilly, beaten by Knox a couple of weeks ago, screamed for the rematch. The bout headlines a card that will also show Hessel against the Galloping Ghost and Carl Engstrom against Jack Carter.

INJURED

Promoter Mack Lillard learned last morning that Carl Engstrom had been injured in a bout this week and would be unable to appear tonight. Buck Davidson will fill in for Engstrom against Jack Carter in the opener.

given Knox over Hessel last week. Both are down for one hour, or the best two of three falls.

OPENER

The 30-minute opener shows Jack Carter against Swedish Carl Engstrom, Chicago, who will make his first appearance in the armory ring.

O'Reilly wouldn't sign for a return unless Promoter Mack Lillard paired him with Knox. The result will very likely be too much for the faint in heart.

Reserved tickets are on sale at Castleberry's drug. The armory ticket-office opens at 7:30 tonight, one hour before the Carter-Engstrom bout.

OFFENSIVE WORK

LOS ANGELES, (AP)—Practice on offense continues to dominate Southern California's all-out drill for the California game Saturday, and emphasis is being placed on the work of right halfback Al Carmichael. Thus far Carmichael has not been successful on the reverse plays to the weak side of the line.

Twenty seven members of Brandeis university's varsity football roster hail from Massachusetts.

DA Says Cage Fix to Spread

NEW YORK, (AP)—The college basketball scandal is expected to spread to more schools and players according to Assistant Dist. Atty. Vincent O'Connor. O'Connor made this assertion yesterday following the arrest of Joseph Benintende, 42, alleged king pin of a basketball "fix" ring. O'Connor indicated that Benintende was "singling" on colleges involved but not mentioned so far in the scandal.

Virgil Stallcup appeared in more games than any other member of the Cincinnati Reds during the 1960 season. He played in 136 contests.

Bob Hudson is the youngest member of the New York Giants pro football team. Rookie Bob from Clemson is 21 years old.

USC Tally Argument Still on After Pics

LOS ANGELES, (AP)—Game for the tally.

USC Coach Jens Hill said that from the angle of the picture, it looked like Gifford could have been on either side of the line of scrimmage. When he came down, it looked as though he was over.

"However," Hill said, pointedly, "The pictures show clearly two officials watching carefully. I wouldn't want to commit myself one way or another on it. The officials were there and saw it."
