Grain, Soybean Futures Gain

CHICAGO, (AP)—Grain and soybean futures prices bounded upward again today after yesterday's temporary setback.

Wheat climbed more than 2 cents a bushel at times and soybeans more than 4 cents.

Export news, including new government allocations of grains to the United Kingdom and soybeans to Belgium, was the main bullish factor.

Wheat closed 1 1/2 to 2 1/2 cents higher than the previous finish. December $2.54-55, corn was 1/2 to 1 1/2, December $1.79-80, oats were ahead 1/2 to 1 1/2, December 90 1/2-1, rye (new style) was 1 1/2 to 5 1/2 cents higher, December $1.94, soybeans were 3/4 to 1 1/2 cents higher, November $2.97-99, and lard was 10 cents a hundred pounds lower to 10 cents higher, October $16.80.

Selective Strength Bolsters Stocks

NEW YORK, (AP)—Highly selective strength scattered throughout the market today gave a buoyant tone to a mixed stock market.

Prices spread out over a range of around two points either way with the accent on the upside.

The volume of trading came to an estimated 1,500,000 shares, as compared with 1,400,000 shares changing hands yesterday.

The market was mixed at the opening and wavered up and down sporadically for most of the session. In the final hour there was a stiffening of prices.

Railroads were comfortably ahead as a group but just about all other major sections of the market remained mixed.

Oil was mostly higher. Air lines were fractionally ahead but inactive. Aircrafts were down a large part of the day.

A number of issues reacted to corporate developments.

Truman Says Mac Wrong

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Pres. Truman said today Gen. Douglas MacArthur's charge that his opposition "wrecked the secret plan" for Formosa was not based on fact and the general knew it.

Truman's comment was in reply to questions at his news conference. MacArthur made his assertion in a speech to the American Legion convention in Miami yesterday.

The general said, too, that the plan also would have given Red China a seat in the United Nations.

When reporters brought up the matter, Truman said bluntly that MacArthur's assertion was not based on fact and the general knew it.

KF Writer Does History Piece

A Klamath Falls writer, Edith Rutenic McLeod is again in print this month with an illustrated article "Mud Gusher" in the October issue of Natural History. The same feature will appear also in this month's issue of the magazine. The feature is illustrated with photographs taken by Malcolm Epley Jr., Herald and News farm editor and Jim Souther, Alturas.

The article is the story of the explosion and mud pots in Surprise Valley that last spring covered 20 acres of pasture land on farms owned by Paul Robinson and Joe Parman.

Mrs. McLeod is a prolific writer of historical and factual copy.

Skull Mystery Clues Sought

Check of the sheriff's office missing items today failed to give any clues to identity of a skull and bones found Tuesday near Crested lodge in the woods near Oregon 58.

State policemen investigating the find, estimate that death occurred about two years ago. No identification papers were found in the area, police reported.

County Coroner Dr. George Adler said this morning he had not yet examined the remains to estimate the time of death.

Found with the bones were two rings, a full set of false teeth, rumble glasses, parts of clothing, and a considerable number of religious pamphlets.

Cult Women Whipped, Die

ST. PAUL, Minn., (AP)—The second victim of a frenzied religious cultist died early today as members of the weird sect sought to explain their whipping rites by quoting bible passages.

Her back a mass of bloody welts from repeated lashings with a three-foot-long whip, Mrs. Ardith Lennander, 35, succumbed. Mrs. Anna Halvorson, 64, who had also been whipped, was found dead yesterday.

Sheriff Thomas Gibbons was holding without charge Mrs. Lennander's husband, Curtis, 33, who, the sheriff said, freely admitted a tape-recorded statement that he whipped the two women during a sect meeting Monday night.

Sect members pointed to the words of Proverbs 30:30 in an effort to explain the whippings. The passage says, "the blueness of a wound cleanseth away evil and so do stripes the inward parts of the belly."

"I know I am absolutely guilty; I was in a frenzy; beat them down," the sheriff quoted Lennander as saying. "Whipping is needed for wrongdoing and almost always a person who gets it admits it. It drives out the devil."

ATTEMPT
Dr. A. M. Lundholm, deputy coroner, said an autopsy showed all of Mrs. Halvorson's right ribs were broken as well as one on the left side, and her breastbone. He said her body was covered with welts and blood clots.

Gibbons said Lennander used a 3-foot whip to beat his wife and Mrs. Halvorson at the Monday night meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Doyle in suburban Lauderdale. About a dozen members of the cult were present. Mrs. Doyle, daughter of the dead woman, is held as a material witness.

Gibbons said he asked Mrs. Doyle, "How could you stand by and see your mother beaten to death, didn't you do anything about it?" He said she replied: "No, why should I?"

Gibbons said that after Mrs. Halvorson ceased to move, Doyle stopped Lennander from beating her further. Doyle then obtained a length of hose from the basement and whipped Lennander, whose body is also covered with welts.

Chest Lists Top Donors

Mills and schools continued to be the high givers in Wednesday's contribution report from community chest headquarters. Cochairmen George McIntyre and Nelson Reed announced today.

From Weyerhaeuser Timber Co. came the large firm gift of $1000, and this coupled with executive and employee gifts of $574.65, brought the total from Weyerhaeuser to $2074.65. Last year's contribution from this Klamath mill was $2823.99, and men in the woods and mill are expected to reach the 1950 generous donation.

Klamath Lumber and Box has completed mail contacts and yesterday the books showed a fine contribution from that firm, including full, officials and employees, totaled $90.00, exceeding last year's figure of $91.88.

Uncompleted returns are from Palmerton Lumber Co. interests, with a good leg of $500.00 on the books. Big Basin Lumber Co., Car-Ad-Co, whose firm gift totaled $250.00; Crow Lumber Co., Home Lumber and Supply, Kalpine Plywood, Klamath Millwork and Supply, Metler brothers, McCollum Lumber Co., Pickett and Scherer, and Silver Lumber Co.

Baxter-Hall's firm gift is in for $50 as is the Modoc Lumber Co. gift from the firm of $300.00. Spangler Lumber Co. check of $100 is new in the books and firm and executive gifts from Swain Lake Moulding total $250, with employees yet to be heard from Ellingson Lumber Co., with a firm gift of $150, has yet to send in employee contribution and it is these gifts from labor that the chairman expect to put over the 1951 campaign.

Working now in the mill of Klamath Basin Pine, one of the largest contributions from the industrial division is expected in by Monday, day of the report luncheon at the Winema. Jim Skeel, who is also a member of the Oregon chest board, is handling the Klamath Basin Pine contact.

The industrial division, headed by W. W. Southwell and John Sandmeyer of the YMCA, has a goal of $18,530, only $70.00 under that of the big public service division headed by Boy Scouts Jim Pinniger.

A total of $57,69 has been sent in to chest headquarters from the city schools with Fairview teacher's contribution of $79.02. Teachers have responded 100 percent from Joseph Conner, $65.25; Fairview, $79.02; Roosevelt, $113.02; cooks, $41.25; janitors, $179.15; administration, $80.90; Spud, Arnold Grallapp has this project on his hands.

New Mexico was first explored in 1540 and colonized by the Spanish in 1598.

Spud Festival on Tomorrow

Beef was donated by the Tulelake Grain Co., Lewis S. Kandra, W. C. Dalton, Tulana farms, Don Smith and Theron Jones. Lambs were donated by Glen Haskins, Luther Haskins, Dan Cashman, Cox Bros., Maurice and Jim O'Keefe, C. M. Harrison and Howard Haskell, Medford, who barbecued for the festival last year. Women of the Moose have volunteered to serve.

FOOTBALL
The traditional gridiron battle will be a tilt between the Merrill Huskies and the Tulelake Honkers, 2 p.m. on the high school field.

There will be entertainment at the exhibit during the afternoon and a carnival will provide interest for the visitors and her court will be presented again at the annual harvest ball in the community hall Saturday night, starting at 9 p.m. Music will be furnished by Baldy's band.

Queen chapters are Mrs. Clyde Hammond, Mrs. Paschall Judges, Mrs. Mervyn Shuck. Judges for the parade will be Henry Semon, E. A. Geary, Senator Phil Hitchcock.

The public address system will be by courtesy of Fluher's.

Duck Stamps Now on Sale

Duck stamps—the required federal ducat for hunters of migratory game birds—are on sale in Klamath Falls, but Postmaster Chet Langslet reports sales so far are extraordinarily slow.

Running at the same $2 price as past years, the stamps are available at the postoffice, Lee Hendricks drug, Schneider's variety store, and several sporting good houses.

California's hunting season opens October 26, as does Washington's; Oregon duck and goose season kicks off November 2.

Nevada's season is scheduled to open tomorrow.

Promotion Post Goes to Drew

Frank Drew moved up to the post of vice president and officer in charge of promotions this morning at the weekly meeting of the Klamath merchants association. He takes over the post formerly held by James E. Smith who has left Klamath Falls.

Other officers moved up include Carl Sparks, budget chairman, and Gene Bailey, newly elected as finance chairman.

Plans for the fall season and following events were discussed by the group.

U.S. Troops Capture Hills

U. S. 8TH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Korea, (AP)—Chinese suddenly abandoned a series of key hills in Western Korea to attacking Americans today. But they stiffened against Allies crunched forward toward their Kumang stronghold in the center.

Troops of the U. S. first cavalry division overran four hills northwest of Yonchon almost unopposed.

The Americans had been fighting for the ridge line for two weeks in one of the bloodiest small actions of the entire United Nations autumn offensive. Chinese deserted the Western hills during the night after beating off a series of flame-throwing attacks Wednesday.

In the center of the Korean front Allied troops ran into stiff fighting before capturing two key hills south and southwest of Kumang.

A total of $57,69 has been sent in to chest headquarters from the city schools with Fairview teacher's contribution of $79.02. Teachers have responded 100 percent from Joseph Conner, $65.25; Fairview, $79.02; Roosevelt, $113.02; cooks, $41.25; janitors, $179.15; administration, $80.90; Spud, Arnold Grallapp has this project on his hands.

New Mexico was first explored in 1540 and colonized by the Spanish in 1598.

Postal Receipts Show Increase

Postal receipts coming through the local postal department have increased 5.89 percent in the first nine months of 1951. Postmaster Chet Langslet announced today.

Receipts for the quarter ending in September alone increased 5.11 percent over the corresponding period a year ago, totaling $60,502.12.

Operating expenses, Langslet reported, have been $741.57 lower during the past nine months as compared with the same period a year ago, despite extension of some routes an increase in longevity.

Produced and bottled by THE WELCH GRAPE JUICE COMPANY, at the Winery, Bracton, N. Y.

Noted radio and television dramatic actor, Roger DeKoven, pictured today, plays the role of Professor Jason McKinley Allen in "Against the Storm" heard Monday through Friday at 11:30 a.m. on KFLW. This program is the only daytime drama ever to receive the coveted Peabody Award.

Our young nation was expanding and needed new territory—territory on which foreign powers also had their eyes. The question confronting the president was: If peaceful negotiations failed, was our young country strong enough to support a war? Edward Arnold portrays the chief executive faced with this momentous problem in tonight's "Mr. President" dramatization, 7:00 p.m. on KFLW.

Senator Estes Kefauver will be the special guest of Ted Mack when his "Original Amateur Hour" originates from the Auditorium of Memphis, Tenn. tonight from 8:00 to 8:45. The program will be a 100% benefit for the Christmas Fund of that city, and is another of the "Amateur Hour's" out-of-town engagements held for local charities. The big talent quest is one of radio's most popular programs. The broadcast is also famous for its annual junket to Washington, D.C., during which some of the most noted names in the political world display their amateur talents.

Italy will be the country represented on "Concert of Europe" at 9:30 tonight. One of Italy's finest young composers, Napolione Annovazzi, will be the conductor. Mr. Paul Porter, acting as special representative of the President of the U.S. will be intermission speaker.

"Betty Crocker" will have as her special guest tomorrow, Valerie Bettis, famous dancer, actress and choreographer. Miss Bettis has been responsible for demonstrating to a heretofore bored-ballet public that ballet can be exciting and highly entertaining. Hear this dynamic personality on "Betty Crocker's Magazine of the Air" tomorrow morning at 11:00.

Don't forget to listen to "Jimmy Nolan's Songs" too, at 8:45 tonight. Sponsored by Harry Hafter, Thursday nights — all good listening on KFLW.
