LINDLEY HEIGHTS
October meeting of Lindley Heights extension unit was held at the home of Mrs. Virgil Davis, and the easier ironing demonstration was led by Mrs. Mary Glenn.

Roll call was answered by each member naming the most beautiful flower in her garden this summer. Mrs. Jack Dale was introduced as a new member of the unit.

Mildred Smith led a devotion. Next meeting will be at Mrs. Pearl Tanner's house.

MALIN
The Malin extension unit met October 9 at the high school, with Mary Glenn, county agent, handling the demonstration on easier ironing.

Emma Morlock, president, presided over the business meeting. Present were Irena Jelinek, Betty Halousek, Elsie Mock, Mildred Rajanus, Mary Burns, Gladys Rajanus, Lila Fink, Norma Petrasak, Gladys Halousek, Teresa McComb, Bonita Mauney, Emma Morlock, Mrs. Helm, Berna McCulley, Eileen O'Connor, Caroline Lovness, Lucile Gray, Violette Kunz and Eileen Herringshaw.

The club had a baked food sale October 10, and the next meeting is scheduled for November 6.

ALTAMONT
Mary Glenn demonstrated easier ironing tips at the October 2 meeting of the Altamont home extension unit held in Joan's kitchen. She stressed the importance of proper placing on the line, convenience of a pleasant, well-lighted spot to iron and proper sprinkling and holding. Special emphasis was placed on simplified ironing of a man's shirt. Mrs. John Heyden presided over the business meeting.

The unit will concentrate this year on a community service project.

Two members volunteered to visit the Red Cross bloodmobile during the October visit.

Forty members and guests were present for the luncheon served by Mrs. C. C. Crawford, Mrs. William Poole, Mrs. J. F. Offel, Mrs. C. L. Purkey and Mrs. E. L. Miller.

BLV
The Bly home extension club met at the home of Mrs. Harold Powell, October 11, with 16 members present. The project mending tips was presented by Mrs. F. H. Armstrong and Mrs. Harold Powell.

It was voted that two members each month will donate blood to the Red Cross bloodmobile in Klamath Falls. The two volunteers for October were Mrs. James Boyd and Mrs. Elmer McGinnis.

KENO
Keno home extension unit met October 10 at the home of Mrs. Verle Young. The lesson on mending tips was presented by Mrs. Harold Summers and Mrs. Merle Anderson, project leaders.

It was decided that the unit would continue to sell magazines to help the girls at Azalea house and that two members would volunteer a pint of blood each month for the fighting men in Korea.

Mrs. Dick Morgan agreed to make candy for all Keno unit members to sell for "Hallowe'en" to help defray expenses of the unit.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Lane Smith Jr. The lesson will be on textile painting.

LEXINGTON, KY.
Carl Webb of Eugene, Ore., representing the Oregon newspaper publishers association, is a member of the board of directors of Newspaper Association Managers. He was elected at the closing session of a four-day meeting here Tuesday. Carl A. Zielke of the Wisconsin Press Assoc. was elected president.

SQUARE DANCE

Heavenly golf and country club are calling all square dancing partners together for the first square dance of the season, tomorrow 9 p.m. to 12 midnight. Beginners are especially urged to attend, and friends are invited.

Otto Ellis will be caller and good fast-stepping music is promised.

Food will be available, and the admission price is seventy-five cents a person.

HAM ROLLS

Marconi

If you're just going to sit at home with friends and listen to the radio or look at television, then here is a snack that will bring a wonderful reception.

Combine one 1-ounce package cream cheese, 6-chopped stuffed olives, 1 teaspoon lower-ratio, 2 tablespoons cream, salt and pepper, spread on slices of boiled ham, roll, fasten with toothpicks, serve with light sparkling OLYMPIA Beer.

P.S. It is more economical to buy Olympia by the case in either the 12 or 24-bottle sizes.
