

SOCIETY

by Milly Ramsby

IN A SETTING OF WHITE autumn flowers at Westminster Presbyterian church Saturday, October 13, in Portland, Shirley Jeanne Bender, daughter of Mrs. Charles F. Neely, became the bride of Mark Irvan Hanna Jr., son of Mr. Mark I. Hanna of Scappoose and Mrs. Ted Blanchard, 1613 Austin. Mrs. Blanchard is well known here and remembered to many as Karl Montgomery, daughter of Mrs. Minnie Montgomery, pioneer resident. Photo by Logen-Markham, Portland.

LEAVING FOR THEIR HONEYMOON, the couple is shown after the reception held at Columbia Edgewater country club, immediately after the eight o'clock wedding which was attended by 500 guests and relatives. The new Mr. and Mrs. Mark Irvan Hanna Jr. will make their home in Portland.

Photo by Logen-Markham, Portland.

MRS. CLIFFORD SHUCK (left) and Mrs. Robert Thompson are shown attired in costumes which will be equally appropriate to wear to the Klamath Gems dinner to be held at the Willard hotel Saturday, October 27. There will be a cocktail hour preceding the dinner, and the menu promises to be an elaborate one, decidedly unusual in its variety and palate appeal.

Photo by Kettler.

MRS. HARRY E. SCHOENBERG, another Klamath Gem fan who will attend the dinner at the Willard with her husband, is also depicting a costume correct for the affair. While the dinner itself is informal, many who will be going on to other functions that evening will be in more formal dress. The dinner will be one of the social events of the year as well as a boost to our baseball club.

Photo by Kettler.