

BENDER-HANNA NUPTIAL RITES IN PORTLAND

In Portland, on Saturday October 13 at 8 p.m. Westminster Presbyterian church was the scene of the wedding of Shirley Jeanne Bender and Mark Irvin Hanna Jr. Dr. Leonard Odiorne assisted Dr. Laurence E. Nye in the rites, before 50 relatives and friends.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Charles F. Neely. Mark is the son of Mark Irvin Hanna of Scappoose and of Mrs. Ted Blanchard, 1813 Austin. His mother was Karl Montgomery and his grandmother is Mrs. Minnie Montgomery, a long time resident of Klamath Falls. He is the nephew of L. P. (Pat) Montgomery, his mother's brother, who is well known here.

W. P. Wilmes gave the bride in marriage. She wore white satin and was escorted by a court train. A Juliet cap of white lace and seed pearls held her veil in place. She carried a bouquet of white roses and gladioli.

Two honor attendants, Mrs. Robert A. Coon and Mrs. W. L. Coon, were bridesmaids. The bridesmaids wore white dresses and carried bouquets of white roses and gladioli.

After the ceremony, the bride and groom were escorted to the reception at the home of Mrs. W. L. Coon. The reception was held from 8 to 10 p.m. and was attended by many guests.

The bride's mother wore gold tulle with matching stole and hat and her corsage was a bronze orchid. The bridegroom's mother was in light blue with accessories to match and she wore a rose toned orchid.

After a reception at Columbia Edgewater country club the newlyweds left for their honeymoon at the beach. They will be at home at 427 SE Francis street in Portland.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Hanna are graduates of Lewis and Clark college, and Mark is associated with Blake Moffitt and Towne.

From Klamath Falls to Portland to attend the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Blanchard and Barbara and Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Montgomery. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Campbell, former local residents, now of Salem also were guests.

Local Couple Exchange Vows

The wedding of Alice Alene Rogers, daughter of Mr. Riley Rogers, 3347 Derby, to Paul F. Tipton, son of Mr. Herman Tipton, of the South suburbs, was solemnized at 8:30 p.m. September 14. Rev. Dwayne Proett officiated at the single ring ceremony in the Peace Memorial church.

The bride wore a gown of white slipper satin with net overskirt and full length train. Her veil was of embroidered lace topped with a Juliet cap of seed pearls, and she carried a colonial bouquet of white gladioli and pink roses with white satin streamers.

The only jewelry worn by the bride was a pair of earrings, a gift of the bridegroom.

Joyce Landrum, who attended the bride, wore a gown of pink marquisette and carried an arm spray of pink roses.

Best man was David Jones, uncle of the bride.

A reception in the church parlors was given by the Kathryn Beattie Missionary society.

The bride's cake centered a lace draped table, colorful with fall flowers, and after the traditional cutting, Mrs. Jane Rogers, aunt of the bride, served the cake, with Mrs. Mollie Jones, and Mrs. Jane Rogers, both aunts of the bride at the punch bowl.

Vera Rogers, cousin, passed the guest book.

For her wedding trip, the new Mrs. Tipton chose a suit of Byzantine blue with complementing accessories.

After a honeymoon in California, the couple are at home in Stewart addition, Paul Tipton is with the United States bureau of reclamation.

Out of town guests were: Mrs. L. V. Plato and Vernon and Gale, Lakeview; Mrs. Elva Morgan, Grandfather, Turkey, Texas.

JOHNSON GOLDEN WEDDING

LAKEVIEW—The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson was celebrated by the couple Sunday, October 14, with a dinner at the Winema hotel in Klamath Falls. Only immediate members of the family were present for the celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson were married on October 16, 1901, in Lakeview, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Woodcock, parents of Mrs. Johnson.

Mrs. Johnson was born in the year 1879 in Myrtle Creek, Oregon, moving to Klamath Falls with her parents when she was one year old. She graduated from the Klamath Falls Public High School and in the year 1899 she moved to Lakeview where she has resided since.

Mr. Johnson was born in Corvallis, moving to Lakeview with his parents at the age of four years. During the early years of his life he resided in the Chewauwau valley where he was engaged in farming. Then from the year 1901 when the Johnsons were married until 1930, Mr. Johnson was employed at the bank of Lakeview. He was then appointed postmaster and after eight years at that job accepted a position as secretary of the Elks club. He retired about three years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson are the parents of five daughters: Mrs. Chester L. Edgerton and Mrs. Wilbur Christensen, of Adin, California; Mrs. Henry Asseln, Klamath Falls; Mrs. W. D. Rath, Sulphur, Neb.; and Mrs. W. D. Peterson, Lakeview. All of the children were present for the dinner except Mrs. Rath who was unable to attend.

Sunday evening the Johnsons drove to Adin where they planned to remain a week visiting at the homes of their two daughters.
