KLAMATH ART ASSOCIATION

Plans were discussed at the Klamath Art Association meeting last Monday night for a silver tea to be held at the Yacht club next Saturday afternoon, October 27th from 2-5. The proceeds of the tea will go to the association's Summer Art School fund. Those who attend the tea will see a preview showing of the Art Association's fall art exhibit. This will include examples of painting, weaving, ceramics and other handicrafts. Exhibition chairman is Mrs. Arthur Burnett and co-sponsors are Mrs. U. S. Balentine, Mrs. Sheldon Brumbaugh, Mrs. Geo. Hillis and Mrs. Boyd Sprague. All members who have work to exhibit can contact Mrs. Burnett or leave their pieces at the Art Center before Friday, October 25. The tea is open to the public and all who wish to see the exhibit and help the summer school fund are cordially invited to attend and bring your friends.

BPW DINNER

Klamath Business and Professional Women, meeting for a six thirty dinner at the Willard hotel Monday night October 15, held one of the busiest sessions of the new year. Highlight of the program was the presentation of a one-act play, "The Yaliant" by the Drama group of Klamath music council. Members of the cast were Kristian Gippo, Oris Randolph, Lee Goode, Arlen Sanders and Marilyn Miller. Rev. Oasen H. Onstad spoke on the community chest. Edna Albrecht, president announced that the dates for the state convention to be held here next spring have been changed to May 9-10-11. Three stage plays will again be presented this year by the Civic Drama guild that drew large and appreciative audience last winter. "Heaven Can Wait" will be presented December third; "Darkness at Noon," February fourth and "Voice of the Turtle," one of the most widely discussed on the New York stage, March 10. Tickets were distributed to members by Gertrude Tolle for selling. Anyone desiring to attend may contact any member of the club. The club will sponsor a public card party, November 3 at the Willard for the benefit of the fund for dental care for children. Bridge, pinch and canasta will be in play, there will be a style show by Town Shop and a tea hour. Eleanor Weatherford is general chairman for the afternoon. Beth Griggs is tea chairman; Velma Clark is in charge of tables; Edna Russell, prizes; Rita DeFev, tables; Vada Schneck, tickets. Play will be from 1:30 to 4 p.m. Tables for the dinner were gay with Halloween decor and places were laid for 94 members and guests.

A motion was carried in favor of making cookies for the Red Cross bloodmobile bank each month as a project. The Christmas party plans were discussed to be submitted to the firemen. Florence Masters served the refreshments. The next meeting will be November 5 at 8 p.m.

Mother's Club

The Mother's club of Sacred Heart academy met Tuesday evening, October 9 in the academy auditorium. Mrs. Ray Kann presided. A program was presented by the Bluebirds and Campfire girls, telling of the aims and activities of these organizations. It was reported that 176 children attended the First Friday breakfast which is held the first Friday of each month following eight o'clock mass. A report was given on the ham dinner to be held Thursday, October 25 in the parish hall from 5:30 to 8:00 p.m., with Mrs. John Howard and Mrs. Francis Ellis co-chairmen. Participation of the mothers in the parish bazaar to be held on November 16 and 17 was discussed. Following the meeting refreshments were served by Mrs. Lawrence Amberg, Mrs. Regis Andrieu, Mrs. Delven Heffley, Mrs. Darrell Miller, Mrs. James Maloney, Mrs. Francis Beard, Mrs. Marion Foster, Mrs. Walter Jendraczewski, Mrs. Francis Manning, Mrs. Jack Trelease and Mrs. Ray Wilkinson.

SOROPTIMIST CLUB MEETING

The regular business and luncheon meeting of the Soroptimist club was held Thursday October 11 in the Pelican cafe party room with president Oia Smith presiding. Mrs. Freeman Yount, chairman of the Young People's Concert group, announced a series of concerts to be given for students. These concerts are for young people primarily, but any interested adult is welcome. Local students from the third grade through junior high school are invited to attend the concerts. Tickets, which are necessary for admittance, may be secured free from any city music teacher. The first program was given Friday afternoon October 14 at the church of Latter Day Saints. A report on club activities was given by Secretary Mary Bothwell and the treasurer's report was read by Josephine Robinson. Isabelle Brixner, chairman of the budget committee presented the club's budget, which was passed by the group. Other committee members preparing the new budget were: Rhoda Harnden, Suzanne Hamilton and Josephine Robinson. Maud Goeller, defense bond chairman asked all members buying bonds to report them, so the club will get credit for the sales. Evelyn Cooper, corresponding secretary, read birthday greetings to the group from the Venture club. A letter from the American Legion auxiliary stressed the importance of the Girl's State, one of their projects, and thanked the Soroptimists for making this available to some worthy girl each year. Ruth Adams, chairman of the food bank, announced the coming of the Bloodmobile Tuesday, October 16. Ruth offered to transport donors or to take over any volunteer's job while they went to donate blood.

Delphians

Delta Gamma chapter of Delphians will meet next Tuesday, October 23 at 9:45 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Dean Osborn, 267 Lawrence. Topics for discussion will be by the following members: 1-Literate and non-literate education compared; Mrs. Hab Wilson, 2-How the child learns, Mrs. H. E. Getz; 3-Marriage and parenthood, during childhood, Mrs. O. D. Puckett; 4-The "Bush school," Mrs. Don Zumwalt.

Pioneer Community

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Frain entertained with a dinner at her home October 5 at 6:30 p. m. Guests for the evening were: Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Denison, Mrs. Alice Peyton, Mrs. Patty Fairchild, and daughter, Patti-Ann, Irene Markham, Charlotte Martin, Mae Phinney, Mrs. W. L. Poole and Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Clemmens. Colored slide pictures were shown, which were furnished by Irene Markham and the Denisons.

SOROPTIMIST

Oia Smith, president of the Soroptimist club, presided at the regular luncheon meeting at the Pelican party room Thursday, October 18. A former member, Ruth Bathiany, now of Harbor, Oregon was a visitor. The award of the day was won by Bernice Britt. An announcement was made of the "christening" of a new club at McMinnville. The installation of the McMinnville club was at the Oregon Hotel in Salem by the Soroptimist club there. Lorraine Johnson, chairman of the International and Sister club committee, reminded the Soroptimists that it was nearing the time for the Christmas packages to be sent to Brighton-Hove England, to the adopted sister club. The Soroptimists were saddened by the news of the death of Maude Goeller's father, E. M. Wilson of Medford. Mr. Wilson was a former mayor of the valley city. Lorraine Johnson announced a tea to be given at the Yacht club October 27, by the Klamath Art Association. There will be a showing of lovely art work by local artists. Elva Kenyon was chairman of the day, introducing a club member, Eloise McIntyre, city music teacher, in the first of a series of talks by Soroptimists on the work they do. Eloise addressed the club on the subject "Speech, Singing and Personality." It was a highly enlightening discussion, which dealt with the scientific research done by the Bell Telephone company on the subject of voice production. It was brought out that there is now actual knowledge how the voice works, which makes it possible to correct faulty habits of speech in singing. Special attention was given to remedial work in speech, and to the personality improvement which comes with the ability to use the voice correctly.
