Car Strikes, Kills Woman

GRANTS PASS, (AP)—A partially-clad woman was struck and killed by an automobile at the junction of Redwood highway and Jerome Prairie road near here Saturday night.

The body was not identified until late yesterday when her husband notified police she was missing. He later identified the body. The husband, Lloyd Smith, told police he thought his wife was spending the night with a woman friend.

Driver of the car which struck Mrs. Smith was Guy Polzel Jr., Camp Delight. Police said he told them the woman must have been walking down the middle of the highway and that he did not see her because he was blinded by the headlights of an oncoming car.

Coroner Virgil Hull said the woman was wearing only shoes and stockings, underclothing a skirt and a coat.

METALS PINCH

DETROIT, (AP)—The peak of the metals pinch will come early in 1952, although peak defense production won't be reached until 1953, according to Mobilization Director Charles E. Wilson.

To make sour milk quickly when you want to use it in a cake or cookie recipe that calls for it, mix a half cup of evaporated milk with a half cup of water and a tablespoon of strained lemon juice.

Starlet Marilyn Monroe's Cheesecake Is the McCoy

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
HOLLYWOOD (NEA) — Guys and Dolls: Shapely Marilyn Monroe is being into her first dramatic role in "Clash by Night," but she's not giving up the cheesecake that zoomed her into stardom.

Even if "Madame X" is next on the list for blonde Marilyn, she will still pose in bathing suits. "I don't mind cheesecake as long as it's honest," she winked. "There's honest cheesecake and dishonest cheesecake. If you know what I mean."

"I was doing honest cheesecake as a model long before I stepped on a sound stage. I kept yearning for the cover of the Ladies Home Journal, but I never got past the covers of men's magazines."

"They're wiped the leer off Steve Cochran's face at Warner's and he is all but sprouted angel wings in his first heart-of-gold role in "The Lion and the Horse." An experiment to test public reaction to Steve as Mr. Wholesome? "This studio doesn't gamble that way," whooped Steve. "They first put me in a small part in 'Jim Thorpe' to find out if I'd be acceptable to the public in a sympathetic part."

He's not sure about the switch that gives him nine-year-old Sherry Jackson as a leading lady and a horse as love interest. "I can't wait to get back to being a nasty, filthy heavy," muttered Steve.

Now it's Holly wood's turn to sell historical movies with a shapely heroine in a way-down-south neck-line. Wait until book publishers get a load of gorgeous Rhonda Fleming as a period doll who switches from the boudoir to the deck of a pirate ship in Columbia's "The Golden Hawk."

Rhonda matches the gals on the dust jacket covers of such novels:

Elizabeth Taylor may not have to duck through the MGM streets to avoid meeting Betsy Von Furburg, the actress with the peach-and-cream skin who will succeed her as Mrs. Nicky Hilton in January.

Betsy may not be around. She's in the last lap of a three-month option tying her to MGM and couched that she'll rush to New York for a stage play if the studio decides that it's just too embarrassing to have her and Liz on the same lot.

"And if they keep me," said Betsy. "I'll go on with my career only so long as it's all right with Nick. I'll live in Texas with him and come to Hollywood only when the studio needs me."

FUNERAL PICKETS
 GLASGOW, Scotland, (AP)—Striking mechanics picketed a funeral parlor last night to make certain no one tried to speak a coffin out of the place. The strike was called to protest the dismissal of a fellow mortician.
