

No Oust - Gabrielson Move Expected From Eisenhower's GOP Supporters

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Backers of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower apparently have agreed not to make any effort to oust Guy O. Gabrielson as chairman of the Republican national committee.

And evidence accumulated that Pres. Truman may not be ready to pick a successor to William M. Boyle Jr. when the Democratic national committee meets here next week to accept Boyle's resignation as chairman.

Influential Republicans who are getting ready to launch a movement to draft Eisenhower for the 1952 GOP presidential nomination were reported shying away from any move to replace Gabrielson.

Sen. Ives (R-N.Y.), an Eisenhower backer, told reporters he knows of "no concentrated movement" to oust the chairman.

The Eisenhower camp was said to feel that if any such effort were successful in the face of Gabrielson's demonstrated determination to hang on to his job, it would be interpreted as a party admission there was some substance to charges against him.

Gabrielson has denied he did anything wrong in seeking more time for repayment of an RFC loan to Carthage Hydrocol, Inc., a company he represents as president and general counsel. W. Stuart Symington, RFC director, called Gabrielson's activities normal and routine.

Some Eisenhower backers think the GOP chairman is supporting the bid of Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio for the party's presidential nomination.

But they apparently can't agree on any candidate to run against Gabrielson, even if they were of a mind to challenge his committee leadership.

Although Taft has been miffed at Gabrielson for taking the political edge off charges against Boyle, the Ohio senator is reported to have told his supporters he wants to avoid any fight within the committee before next year's nomination.

ing convention.

Boyle has denied that he used any influence in an attempt to get an RFC loan for the American Lithofold Corp., a St. Louis printing firm.

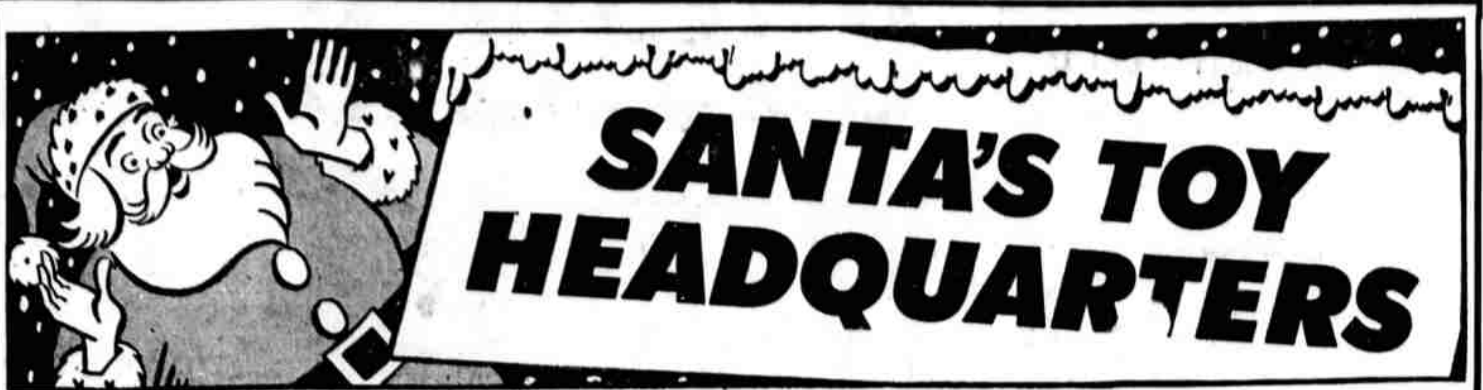

He said he was resigning as Democratic chairman because of ill health. Sen. Welker (R-Idaho) told a Philadelphia audience last night he regards Boyle's "resignation under fire" as "a tacit admission that the president of the United States considers him to be a political liability in the coming elections."

Mr. Truman was said by associates still to be looking for a man to fill Boyle's place.

A Democratic senator, who asked that he be quoted by name, said he had been informed that if the president doesn't find the right man by the time of the October 31 committee meeting, the committee will be asked to let the job go unfilled for a while.

This presumably would leave Mrs. India Edwards, vice chairman, as the top ranking official until a successor to Boyle could be chosen.

During world war two, Japanese occupation of southeast Asia shut off nearly 90 percent of the world's normal supply of natural rubber.
