HAVE YOU EVER SEEN a real Pixie? . . . There's no doubt about the above . . . who, of course, will be abroad Halloween eve . . . Bill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orth L. Sismore, Lakeshore Drive.

IT IS EVIDENT that Halloween in 1911 abounded with goblins and jack o' lanterns as it does today. So . . . out of an old album stepped a celebrant of that earlier era.

A GLAMOROUS, YOUNG
sassy and two Halloween spirits who might be at your door for "trick or treat" are Leslie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Curran and two daughters of Mr. and Mrs.
Frank P. Deor.

NO HALLOWEEN would be complete without the props for "trick or treat". Equipped with paper bags for apples, cookies, candy, etc., are Ricky and Charlean Currie, sons of Dr. and Mrs. Richard L. Currie, 1940 Lawrence.

THE TRICK OR TREAT
table finds one young costumed gentleman plying
a Halloween clown
with another doughnut (when she has one already in her hand). Doug ready, son of Mr. and Stiles; son of Mrs. Vicki Ray, great-granddaughter of Mrs. Clara Shaw, Monroe, who is for adult role in her own Halloween party, and Pennylyn, daughter of Mr. and
Mrs. C. M. Howie, 2311
South Sixth street.

A SUDDEN MEETING with a friendly ghost surprised and delighted two young "trick or treaters", Judy, (who turned her head) daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Angstead, 1208 Pacific Terrace, and Betty Jean (8 J.), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Kerna, 449 Laguna.

WITCHES, DEVILS, skeletons, a sarcophagus and ghosts run rife on "trick or treat" night and some of them shown here are involved with what might well be a magic apple. From left to right are Janet (Jannie), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Kerns, Vicki, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Howie, Gary Bishop, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Bishop, 2027 Eorle, Allen (Butch), son of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Clerk, 2750 Hope, and David (Buck), son of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Biehn, 4274 Clinton ave.

TO PROVE THAT GHOSTS take time out from "haunting" on Halloween, this one is checking to see that his 'invisible' tie is properly adjusted. (Who-o-o-o? but Frank P. Drew.)
