By MRS. JOE HALOUSEK
Here from Eureka to enjoy local hunting were Ed Burgess, father of Mrs. Enoch Petrasek, and Mrs. Petrasek's brothers Ted and Earl Burgess, and their families. With them also, were Lloyd Burgess, Earn Marsh and Ronald Shipling.

Mrs. Charles Johnson has flown to Honolulu to be with her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. John Hint, who recently had the misfortune of losing twin baby sons.

Visitors from Salem last week of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Halousek were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Linn.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Smith were in Portland for several days last week on business.

Mrs. Joe Halousek and sons visited Sunday at Bonanza at the Henry Schmor home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Loosley of Astoria spent several days last week at John's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Loosley.

Prize for the best float at the potato festival last Saturday went to the Mariners club of Malin. The theme of the float was "Festival Fantasy" and riding on it were King and Queen Potato with their court of various animals depicted by small youngsters in costume.

Other floats entered from Malin were Girl Scouts, Cub Scouts, Rainbow Girls, Christian Endeavor, Emma's store and Byron Johnson Machinery Co.

The Malin chamber of commerce exhibit at the festival took second place in community exhibits.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Ottomian and son Rodney recently enjoyed a week vacation at Tacoma.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Piazzi are visiting with friends and relatives in Malin from their home in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stasny attended home coming weekend at Oregon state college, October 20-21.

A large crowd was present Tuesday evening at the Malin high for the regular monthly meeting of the Parent-Patrons club.

Musical entertainment was given by Mrs. Moe's 4th graders and the children in costume from the 2nd to the 6th grades represented characters from different books.

Speaker for the evening was Mrs. Victor O'Neill of Klamath Falls.

At a meeting Thursday committee members made plans for the annual school carnival. The carnival will probably be held around the middle of November.

Regular weekly meetings are being held by den 1, 2, 3, 4 of the Malin Cub Scouts pack 33.

Each den meets at the home of the den mother. The den mothers are Mrs. Jack Hodges, Mrs. Carl McVey, Mrs. Joe Halousek and Mrs. Charles Long.

The 11th birthday of Richard Kruger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Kruger was celebrated Sunday when a group of friends were invited to his home.

Halloween decorations were used as the party theme and pumpkin pie, instead of birthday cake, was served.

The following guests were present for the party and a show at the Broadway theater: Ronnie Pierce, Larry Shuman, Jackie Freeman, Melvin Kenyon, Jimmie Toffel and Richards sister Mary Kay.

Recent visitors at the Loyal Loveness home were Mrs. Loveness's parents Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Tout of Willows.

Election of officers was held at the first meeting of the Girl Scouts of troop 45, which was held at Malin grade school.

Chosen for president was Maxine Paris; vice president, Dena Fields; Secretary, Joan Freitag; treasurer, Penny Faulkner; and news reporter, Joyce Taylor.

Members of troop 45 include: Joyce Taylor, Maxine Paris, Dena Fields, Penny Faulkner, Mary Ann Evans, Joan Freitag and Karen Wolf.

SOUTHERN OREGON COLLEGE HOMECOMING plans are being made by two juniors in education. Miss Mary Ellen Yost (left), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Yost, Tulelake, is homecoming chairman while Miss Carol E. Sheehan, Portland, is homecoming queen. The annual alumni gathering will be held on the Ashland campus November 2 and 3.

For the past several years the Klamath Art Assoc. has held its annual exhibit during the first week in November in observance of National Art Week.

This year the exhibit week opened with a preview showing and tea at the Yacht club, and the exhibit will be shown at the Art Center for one week starting October 29. Mrs. Swaney has offered to open the Art Center Monday evening, October 29, seven to nine, so that people who are busy in the daytime can attend.

This year we have a better exhibit than ever due to several important events. The first being that many local people who paint and do handicrafts and many who have just started, have received valuable instruction at our summer art workshop. The second being the fact that we have many talented new members who have not exhibited before.

There will be work shown by members who paint, design or teach professionally such as Georgianna Sprague, Virginia Brown, Nina Pence, Helen Balentine, Joyce Gibson, who has a weaving studio, Kathleen Kris, who has a ceramic studio, and our two new high school art teachers, Dick Reinholdt and Jerry Howard.

Then there are some who use art expression only as a hobby such as Mimmie Grizzle, Marion Roberts, Lola Burnett, Polly Dixon, Katherine Voth, and myself.

And of course, the dilettantes such as Lillian Hillis, Dr. Boyd Sprague, Dorothy Sutcliffe, Ruth Vaupel and Ruth Jones who have studied art for only a month or a few months in our summer sessions. Their work never ceases to amaze their friends and those of us who have studied for many years with its spontaneity and fresh approach.

Baker Wedding

The First Lutheran church in Baker was the scene of an informal wedding, when Rev. T. M. Gihard read the service uniting Donna Willingham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Willingham, Baker, and James Hoover, son of Mrs. Lona Howdyshell, Staunton, Virginia, in marriage.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Her only attendant was Iris Willingham, sister. Best man was Emmitt Shafer, Baker.

A reception was held in the church parlors, after which the young couple left for a honeymoon in Seattle.

They are now at home, 1601 Seventh street, La Grande.

The bride was a former teacher at Altamont junior high and the bridegroom was a student at Oregon Technical Institute.

PTA Notes

CONGR

It was Dad's night, October 17 at Conger school and fathers turned out in goodly numbers as guests.

The flag salute was led by Jerry Woods. Mrs. Jane Craig led the singing of America with Margaret Addison at the piano. Selections from the intermediate band, the intermediate stringed quartet and girls' choral group were given.

Mrs. Gerald Emmerson gave a short talk. Refreshments were served by the seventh grade mothers.
