THE END FOR LOUIS—Joe Louis is down and out through the ropes as Referee Ruby Goldstein (right) and a handler bend over him. Marciano scored a sensational knockout in 2:36 of the eighth round after sending Louis to the canvas for the second time. Goldstein signaled end of fight as soon as Louis crumpled against the ropes.

Oregon Seeks First Loop Win Saturday

EUGENE, Ore.—Oregon's inexperienced Ducks, after losing their fifth football game of the season to Washington State, begins drills today for a contest with Idaho here next Saturday.

The Ducks were mauled last Saturday by Washington State, 41-6. They hope to win their first coast conference victory of the year against the Vandals, also without a league win. But after Idaho's recent impressive triumph over San Jose State, Coach Len Casanova isn't too optimistic.

Washington State had an easy time all the way against Oregon Saturday. The Cougars rolled up

Grid Brawl Probe On

BOWLING GREEN, O.—The player-fan slugfest which followed Saturday's Bowling Green-Toledo football game will be investigated by presidents of both schools.

Dr. R. W. McDonald, Bowling Green president, said yesterday he and Pres. Asa Knowles of Toledo have agreed to conduct separate inquiries into the brawl.

The incident, which came after Toledo beat Bowling Green, 13-6, resulted in about 20 black eyes

After a week's slump, Charlie (Automatic) Booth perked up last week to roll high game and series for Team Number 1 in the Classic bowling league—now sponsored by Parkmor Drive. In— and jump back in a tie for the average lead.

Booth's 246 high game nipped Roy Harris, Dick Reeder's who notched a 245. But Booth added 168 and 197 games for a top series of 611.

Reeder's 755 was high team game, Parkmor's 2116 high series.

Bill Kienas, rolling for the league-leading Landry Insurance team, is tied with Booth for season average, both boasting 187's. Mel Robinson, Oregon Woolen, trails with a 181.

It would take an extensive search of the records to find out when Molatore's last led the Ladybug bowling league but it's on top now after blanking Roundup 4-0 Thursday.

Molatore's surprising climb to the top of the ladies' kegling loop took precedence over Martha Casady's season high single game, a smashing 233.

Martha rolls for Schmeck's and her mark was the only one to jump into the Big Three column. However, Schmeck's 904 team game mark was higher than that team's previous record, good enough for the season's third-place spot.

Kip Says California Win 'Psychological'

CORVALLIS, Ore.—An Oregon State team, smarting from its second straight humiliating defeat, starts work here today for its game with Washington at Seattle Saturday.

The Bears, rebounding from their surprise loss to Southern California, scored just about as they pleased in the first half, then coasted in.

They counted in the opening period on halfback Bill Powell's short line plunge after a 41-yard pass play from quarterback Billy Mals to end Bob Beal.

California added three more touchdowns in the second period, as the Beavers seemed to fall apart.

98-YARD RUN

The Bears made it 25-0 in the third period when Powell made the longest touchdown run from scrimmage this season by any coast conference player—a 98-yard guard, booted his fifth conversion of the day to end the scoring for

Durocher Can Dance, Sing

HOLLYWOOD, Ore.—Southern California television audiences last night discovered that Leo (Lippy) Durocher can be as convincing with a soft shoe routine as he isn't with National league umpires.

The New York Giants' manager teamed with Jack Benny and George Burns in a nostalgic vaudeville song and dance skit. It was easily the hit of a special CBS television show.

Durocher also sang a solo in sweet tones.

Gunderson Fourth In Bronc Riding

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif.—Hard-riding cowboy Buster Ivory of Modesto, Calif., won yesterday's saddle bronc riding event and top "go-round" honors at the Grand National rodeo at the Cow Palace.

The other Sunday afternoon results included:

Saddle bronc riding—Cliff Gunderson, Lakeview, Ore., fourth.

PALM SPRINGS, Calif.—The nucleus of America's 1951 Davis Cup tennis team assemblies here today for preliminary training. And a good guess is that when it leaves here for Australia next week the old warhorse of international play, Ted Schroeder, will be along.

Duck Jayvees Beat Humboldt

EUREKA, Calif., Ore.—Scoring two touchdowns in the first half, and then playing a good defensive game the rest of the way, the University of Oregon Jayvees defeated Humboldt State 14-13 here Saturday night.

A 19-yard pass from quarterback Barney Holland to halfback Merritt Barber accounted for the first touchdown. Van Leuten plunged over from the one yard line for the second. Lowery Hoyer converted both times.

Champion May Visit Northwest

SEATTLE, Ore.—Jersey Joe Walcott, world heavyweight boxing champ, is contemplating a Northwest visit.

The Times said today a Seattle automobile man — not otherwise identified — was dickering with the International Boxing Club for a Walcott appearance in Seattle.

The article said the champion, whose ring appearances are handled by the IBC, has never visited the Northwest but is willing to make "four or five" showings in the area against a sparring mate.
