Communion—On All Saints day Thursday a corporate communion for women will be held at 10 a. m. at St. Paul's Episcopal church. At the service there will be the semi-annual UTO ingathering. Immediately following there will be morning coffee, to which all women are invited. A sack lunch at noon will be followed by the regular meeting of St. Anne's guild.

Spook Night—Children in Tulelake from kindergarten to junior high school age will celebrate Halloween in a new way if they are guests of the Tulelake Community Presbyterian church. They will gather at the church at 6 p. m. and under supervision of an older person will divide into smaller groups. Instead of asking for trick or treat they will ask for clothing for the children of Korea and pennies for milk for hungry children. The "fun" starts later with a party and refreshments at the church.

Church Meet—The Klamath council of church women will meet 2 p. m. Friday at the First Christian church in observance of world community day. Everyone attending is asked to take a blanket or Afghan for people in cold countries. Theme of the meeting will be "Life by Faith."

Going South—Alice Vitus, again appointed Klamath county campaign director for 1952 March of Dimes by the national foundation for infantile paralysis will attend a pre-campaign regional meeting in Sacramento Monday. The meeting will be held at the Sheraton Hotel.

Another Meet—The Conger-Fairview home extension unit will be held Saturday. It is a unit of the Klamath Falls home extension unit. Mrs. Gene Woods, 2202 Oregon, textile painting will be demonstrated by Mrs. Woods and Mrs. Lyman Hayes. Members are asked to take a piece of glass and a razor blade and other supplies for the lesson.

Return—Mr. and Mrs. Tom Orr and daughter, Marjorie, have returned from a visit with their older daughter, a sophomore at OSC. They attended the annual folk dance clinic and jamboree at OSC.

Meets Friday—An important meeting of the Fort Klamath CI club is scheduled for 2 p. m. Friday at the clubhouse. Each member is asked to bring her "reaper" proceeds to be turned in.

Halloween Party—The Lions club will sponsor a party at Conger school starting at 6 p. m. Wednesday. Each mother is asked to bring a shoebox-lunch for two, with only her name inside. A full evening's entertainment is planned, with games, merry-go-round, fortune telling and a whole carnival. The barbershop quartet will sing.

Toastmasters—Ted Rose will handle the Modoc Toastmasters tomorrow night at the Willard, with Earl Jones supplying the table topics. General critic will be Charlie Hahn. Speakers: Walt Dalot, Bob Mitchell, Dick Kowalski, Julius Giuntoni, Fred Bubbs.

From Boise—Mrs. C. E. Robinson, 1433 Derby, has returned from Boise where she was called by the unexpected death of her sister, Miss Della Cathcart, October 19. Miss Cathcart was well known here, having lived with the Robinsons four years. Robinson and son Willis attended the funeral also but were able to return earlier.

Death—Mr. and Mrs. Bill Clark, 2353 Vine, were called to San Jose.

X.M.H.S. Highlights

Library—A regular meeting of Merrill library club is scheduled for next Thursday 1 p. m. at the home of Mrs. M. A. Bowman. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. W. O. Bailey, Mrs. Otto Ellis and Mrs. Sherman Waldrip.

Rebekahs—In Prosperity lodge is to meet at the IOOF hall Thursday, 8 p. m. All attending are asked to bring a "white elephant" with value of not less than 25 cents. Visiting members are invited.

Hygiene—The Dickinson social hygiene course is to be presented the first three Mondays in November at Merrill recreation hall, 2 p. m. Mrs. Dale West is leader and the course is sponsored by the Merrill Parents-Patrons. Registrations should be made as soon as possible with Mrs. West. Arrangements have been made to have children cared for.

In South—GARY Cozad left Saturday by UAL for an extended visit with his daughter, Mrs. Phil Pope, in San Mateo, Calif.

Square Dance—A square dance of the Elks lodge tonight at 8 o'clock. Ott Ellis will call the dance. All Elks and their ladies are welcome.

Duff May Star for Wife In Independent Production

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
HOLLYWOOD. (NEA) — Behind the scenes: Howard Duff's marriage to Ida Lupino has the fan magazines yelling for an article titled, "I'm in Love With My Producer," by Howard Duff.

"Could be," winked Howard when I asked him if he would star in a movie for Ida's independent movie-making company now that he's received a release from his UI contract. Duff's explanation for his sudden exit from UI:

"It's something I've wanted to do for a long time. I'd like to get different parts—parts I didn't get at UI."

Marriage plans of actress Janis Paige, now starring in "Remains to Be Seen" on Broadway, and orchestra leader Dick Stabile have been called off. Stabile, who is at Cro's with his band, who is reconciled with his wife, the former Trudy Ewan, and says:

"Janis was being blamed for the break-up of my marriage. Actually she had nothing to do with it. I was the heavy in the case all the way through."

Director George Sidney sent Red Skelton one of those gnarled, aged, expensive sections of driftwood so Red, always the prankster, could not resist sending Sidney a thank-you wire which read:

"Fireplace log beautiful. Had to saw it up to get it on the andirons. Thought of you while toasting marshmallows over the coals."

Pat Neal and Gary Cooper are still closer than a mosquito's eyes. Maybe it's the tension of Cooper's property settlement talks with his Rocky that prompts Pat to pretend she hardly knows the lanky star.

The RTV Brothers, who have vetoed all RTV ideas proposed to them, have now decided on a filmed show from Hollywood—patterned after the techniques introduced by Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz in their "Love Lucy" package. They play it live to an audience but it's on film when it hits the TV screen.

The property settlement papers have been signed by Francesca de Scaia and Bruce Cabot. Gorgeous Francesca will collect $350 a month for 18 months.

Coming soon—Claire Trevor's debut on TV.

"I want to do it, if only to show Hollywood I can do something other than gun-molls with hearts of gold," she told me. "But so far there's been nothing submitted to me that wasn't real second rate."

Comic Lew Parker is warbling new lyrics to "Old Smokey." First two lines:

"On top of smoked salmon,
Cream cheese is real fine."

Pat Medina, who took over the role when Barbara Payton took over the newspaper headlines, plays the dual part of twin sisters in "The Lady in the Iron Mask." A new scene now will have her impersonating a boy. "At this I'm a little confused."

Lillian Roth, singing her talented heart out, sent the arrow on the applause meter up to the million mark at her Mocambo opening. An entertainment hit screen stardom in the late 30's in Paramount musicals.

A sneak preview of "Love Is Better than Ever," Larry Parks' co-starring MGM picture with Liz Taylor, was held in a town just outside of Hollywood recently and Larry reports that public reaction to his appearance on the screen was "good."

"At least that's what I've heard from some fans who were there," Larry told me. "I've had no official word about it."

Betty Garrett, who has elected to stay away from the Hollywood sound stages until her husband resumes his career, smiled happily while Larry continued:

"I've received a lot of wonderful letters from people. Out of 485 letters, there were only nine bad ones. The encouraging letters were nice to get, believe me."

UI is paging Diana Lynn for two more pictures. The word from New York is that Judy Garland won't take that TV plunge until

City Cagers Enthusiastic

First groundwork was laid last night for the city basketball league in a meeting at the city hall.

Prompted by early enthusiasm, a second meeting was called for Nov. 6. At this time, sponsors, managers and prospective players are asked to be on hand to lay the framework for the 1951-52 season. Games with Harlem Clowns, Globetrotters and other professional touring teams are being eyed.

Monday, October 29, 1928—A Halloween party was enjoyed at the Congregational parsonage on Friday evening. About 40 young people were present to enjoy the festivities. Those in charge were: Milton Vance, Fay Kesterson, Francis and Chandler Berry, Jackline French, Mrs. A. J. Hopkins and Rev. and Mrs. N. F. Cole.

Tuesday, October 30, 1928—Mr. and Mrs. Marion Hanks accompanied by their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. D. Clemens are home from an enjoyable vacation of two weeks spent in Portland and Eastern Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Dunn are home from a business and pleasure trip spent in Portland and other northern points. Lloyd Low, republican candidate for sheriff left early this morning for Lamm's camp. Mrs. Low accompanied him. Jack Hershberger of the Pelican Grille announces a special Halloween menu will be served tonight.

Wednesday, October 31, 1928—At an assembly held Tuesday afternoon at the Klamath Union high school, the glee club of the school was presented with its creed. Percy Murray spoke before the assembly. Waldeen Upp, president of the club last year presented the creed. Don Harlan, president this year spoke. Dwight French presided.

Thursday, November 1, 1928—Drawing to a close the fifth day of the relay race for new members in the chamber of commerce brought a total of 31, according to figures revealed by Carl C. Reynolds. New members added since late Thursday afternoon were: George I. Stebbins, Dr. L. T. Brock, R. W. McKee, Dr. Ray W. Oldenburg, Justin and Montgomery and Howard Metcalf.

Friday, November 2, 1928—The fine home of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Malatore on Eldorado St. is being landscaped by the Perennial Landscape Service. Mr. Harry Malatore and Everett O. Nord recently went to Portland and picked out several fine specimen evergreens that are to be used. Mr. and Mrs. Wade Chawford transacted business in the city today from Fort Klamath.

Saturday, November 3, 1928—Halloween decorations intermingled with the rich shades of autumn lent beauty to the bridge afternoon of Friday when Mrs. Claud Davis, Mrs. William L. Quinn and Mrs. Fred Houston presided at the country club. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Glen Jester, Mrs. Oscar Shive, Mrs. W. H. McPherran, Mrs. George Myers, Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt and Mrs. J. P. Duke. The hostesses were assisted by the Mesdames W. Houston, R. E. DeWeese, J. Houston, Lester Offield, Jack Slater, Fred Dunbar, Glen Jester, J. M. Bedford, William Baldwin and J. Royal Shaw.
