"LADY GODIVA" RIDES AGAIN—Mrs. Thelma Coburn, 29, of Sacramento, clad in flesh colored tights and false blonde hair, rides as "Lady Godiva" past the stands during the Sacramento County Horsemen's Assoc. horse show. She made the ride on her white horse "Angel" in what she said was a protest against high taxes.

Store's Burglar Alarm Stolen

CHICAGO, (AP)—Three men failed to break into the K and D liquor store yesterday but they stole the burglar alarm which tipped their hand.

A neighbor, Edmund Sankalis, heard the noisy burglar alarm and called police. He reported three men tampering with it, apparently trying to shut it off.

Police discovered the would-be burglars didn't get into the store. They did, however, remove the 18 by 24 inch home-made alarm from above the store's entrance.

Weyerhaeuser Wins Honor

Weyerhaeuser timber company has been cited by the national employ the physically handicapped committee as outstanding in the Klamath area in employing physically handicapped persons.

A letter from H. E. Palmer, Salem, member of the national sub-committee on awards, has instructed Mrs. Edna Albrecht, chairman of the local committee, to present the citation to Weyerhaeuser officials.

The citation reads, in part: "In recognition of commendable effort expended in providing equal opportunity in physically handicapped workers..." and is signed by national chairman Vice Admiral Ross T. McIntire, Washington, D.C.

Follies Set For Friday

BONANZA—The junior class of Bonanza high has scheduled its annual Junior Follies for Friday, 8 p.m. in the school auditorium.

The follies will consist of skits presented by each class of the junior and senior high school, and a cup will be awarded for the best.

Music will be by the high school band, directed by Charles Dobry.

"Theme for the skits will be 'Don't Fence Me In' and they will be enacted along Western or Hillbilly lines. Judges will be Mrs. Mildred Lohoda of Sprague River, Mrs. Betty Pepple, Bonanza, and Rev. Gordon Ashbee, Langell valley.

Merrill Pfc. Said Wounded

Pfc. Robert L. Anthony, whose address is listed as Box 257, Merrill, has been wounded in Korea, according to defense department report.

He is the son of Mrs. Mary L. Anthony, who divides her time between Merrill and Beach, N.D.

Anthony is in the army. The extent of his wound or the date was not disclosed. He is reported to have two brothers, Harold and Leland, in this area.

Mrs. Sinatra Gets Divorce

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—Nancy Sinatra won a divorce from her crooning husband yesterday without mention of his traveling companion, Ava Gardner.

In fact, the dark-haired wife and mother testified that Sinatra explained his prolonged absences from home with the old alibi: "I was out with the boys."

Superior Judge Orlando H. Rhode granted the divorce on grounds of cruelty just a year and a month after she had won a previous decree of separate maintenance.

She testified that Frank had asked her many times for a divorce, presumably during the crooner's international headline chase of the sultry Miss Gardner. The 31-year-old wife said she balked "because I wanted to be sure he knew what he was about."

Sinatra already has filed for a Nevada divorce. He and Miss Gardner romanced during his six weeks' required residence in Nevada, and are now in New York City where Sinatra appears on television.

PAYLESS DRUG 808 MAIN

County Totals Tax Receipts

A little over $292,000 was taken in—and counted—at the Klamath county tax collector's office in the first 21 days of 1951-52 tax payments.

The total bill to be collected is $3,978,629.89.

The amount tallied so far has been made up mostly of small individual payments. The bulk at the collector's office contains the checks of larger taxpayers probably totaling many more thousands of dollars which may not be counted for several days yet.

Mrs. Elsie Siemens, deputy collector, said most of the small payments coming in so far have been in full, as payers take advantage of a 3 percent discount for full payment by November 15.

That is the date first-quarter payments are due and full tax bills must be paid to be eligible for the entire discount.

Scottish Rite Reunion Set

The Scottish Rite bodies of Klamath Falls are to have their regular fall reunion at the Masonic Temple beginning Friday, 7 p.m.

The 4th and 5th degrees will be conferred and communicated that night and the reunion will be continued Saturday afternoon and night. The 15th degree will be conferred Monday, 9 p.m., and the remaining degrees including the 32nd will be conferred the following Friday and Saturday.

Clyde Van Gorder, deputy to the sovereign grand inspector general, is to arrive in Klamath Falls November 10 to assist in the reunion and attend a banquet to be given that day by the ladies of Amaranth.

Artist Leaves Klamath Falls

Dale Johnson, Herald and News artist, left today for San Francisco where he will do free lance art and advertising work.

Mrs. Gail Danforth is taking his place in the newspaper's engraving copy department and Mrs. Iris Pearson has joined the classified advertising department. Mrs. Pearson worked in the newspaper business office previously.

Young GOP Meet Set Tomorrow

Klamath county Young Republicans will have their first meeting of the fall tomorrow night at the courthouse circuit court room.

The group is to organize for the coming election campaigns, elect officers and select delegates to the state Young Republican convention to be held in Portland November 30-December 2. Old members of the organization and prospective new members are asked to attend Thursday's meeting.

Marjorie Flaugh Carnival Queen

MERRILL—Marjorie Flaugh, representing the Freshman class, was crowned queen of the annual high school carnival Friday evening. Dick Reeves, student body president, officiated.

A hilarious parody on the radio program "The Whistler" was presented by the eighth grade. Jim Barry was the announcer.

Accorded selections were played by Jackie Barry.

Several hours of fun followed the program. Each booth did a land office business especially the GAA food stand.

Gralapp Frat Meet Speaker

Arnold Gralapp, superintendent of Klamath Falls schools, will be one of two speakers leading a meeting of Phi Delta Kappa, professional educators fraternity, Saturday night at Southern Oregon college.

Alvin V. Miller, assistant professor of secretarial science and president of the local chapter, will preside at the 8:30 p.m. dinner session in Susanne Homes hall.

"The Threat to Public Education" will be discussed by Gralapp and E. H. Hedrick, superintendent of Medford schools. Members representing nearly every school in southern Oregon and northern California are expected to attend, Prof. Miller reports.

Following the discussion, the group will attend the homecoming football game between Southern Oregon and Linfield college.
