TV Show Enables Lucille To Toss Out Alarm Clock

HOLLYWOOD. (NEA) — Movie queens may be jumping out of bed before sunrise for the next 50 years but Lucille Ball won't be joining the Lamas and Avas in the pre-dawn scooting to the celluloid factories.

Lucille's the new TV queen of comedy in "I Love Lucy" and she's going to be saying "Aw, Shad dap" to alarm clocks from now on. So will her hubby and co-star, Desi Arnaz, she wants it known.

"For 12 years," wailed the flame-topped star, "I've been up at five in the morning and getting home at eight at night. Now I sleep until noon and knock off at six. No work on Saturdays and Sundays."

"We wrap up the show with two day's work and there's a live audience to give me a lift. TV—it's wonderful. It's a lot easier than making pictures."

Virginia Mayo plays a burlesque stripper who goes to college in "She's Working Her Way Through College." Suggestive title changes have the Warner lot howling. Best to date:

"Ronald Reagan's 'Bump of Knowledge' and Gene Nelson's 'The Intellectual Grind.'" the movie based on Jane's life. Who did the posters talk to—Eskimos?

Mary Anderson and ace cameraman Leon Shamroy deny new reports that they will wed. Patricia Neal won't get Ty Power in the fadeout of "Diplomatic Courier." She plays the heavy who loses him to Hildegard Neff.
