Sales Pressure Lowers Grains

CHICAGO, (AP) — There was a little too much selling pressure for the grain market to absorb without backing down a bit today.

Trading moved along at a fas pace during the first half of the session, culminating in a brisk selling flurry which knocked all cereals down several cents. Soybeans tumbled nearly 5 cents in this period.

Thereafter the market made a somewhat reluctant recovery.

Wheat closed ⅝-¾ lower, December $2.51⅝-⅝, corn 1 to 1⅛ lower, December $1.76⅛-1.77, oats ⅝-¾ lower, December 89⅞, rye (new style) 1⅝-1¾ lower, December $2.00¼-2.00, soybeans 3 to 3¾ lower, November $2.92-2.92¼, and lard 12 to 20 cents a hundred pounds lower November $14.70.

Wheat —

	Open	High	Low	Close
Dec.	2.51⅛-⅜	2.52⅛	2.50⅜	2.51⅝-⅜
Mar.	2.55⅛-55	2.55⅛	2.53⅝	2.54⅛
May	2.52⅝-⅞	2.53	2.51⅞	2.52⅝-¾
July	2.43¼	2.43¾	2.42¼	2.42⅝

Recovery Continues On Stock Market

NEW YOEK, (AP) —Recovery in the stock market continued today for the second straight session under strong leadership.

Gains ran between two and three point among leaders and buoyant prices were the rule in all major divisions of the market.

Although demand persisted, the volume of trading came to an estimated 1,800,000 shares as compared with 1,490,000 shares traded yesterday, both figures well below the daily average so far this year.

Most popular divisions were oils, chemicals, steels rails, farm implements, utilities and air lines.

Santa Fe was an early gainer after the company announced it had formed a new subsidiary to mine uranium ore discovered last December on its Grants, N. M. property. Santa Fe is dickering with Anaconda to process the ore.

American Cyanamid was up more than three points at one time.

Superior Oil of California jumped up 29 points at 520 on a few deals.

FBI Captures Top Fugitive

PHILADELPHIA, (AP) — Morley Vernon King, 59, one of the FBI's 10 most wanted men, accused of strangling his wife four years ago in California, will have a hearing today before U.S. commissioner Henry P. Carr. The charge against him is unlawful flight to avoid prosecution.

King, alias William G. Wilson, surrendered to six federal bureau of investigation agents last night at a Philadelphia restaurant where he was working as second chef.

His arrest ended a four year hunt by the bureau. A native of West Virginia, King is wanted on a charge of killing his wife, Helen, at San Luis Obispo.

Arthur Cornelius Jr., special FBI agent in charge at Philadelphia, said King was opening oysters when agents approached him. Cornelius quotes King as remarking, "I wondered when the FBI would get me."

Eisenhower Coming Home.

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Gen. Dwight Eisenhower is flying home this weekend for conferences with Pres. Truman and other top ranking officials.

The White House in announcing this today, said the general is returning for talks Monday and Tuesday to cover matters affecting his supreme Allied command and the North Atlantic defense setup.

He will leave Paris at 10 p.m. (Paris time) Friday and spend the weekend at Fort Knox, Ky., with his son, Capt. John Eisenhower. He will confer with the president and other administration leaders Monday and Tuesday, holding some of the conferences at the White House.

LUTHERAN MEMBERSHIP

NEW YORK, (AP) — Lutheran church membership in the U.S. rose last year to 6,163,724 (M), topping the six-million mark for the first time.

Five Plead Not Guilty

Six county jail prisoners stood in circuit court this morning to enter a plea to criminal charges against them.

Five pleaded not guilty, and the sixth demurred to the charge through his attorney.

Trial dates for the five who said they were innocent were set in rapid fashion by Judge David R. Vandenberg. Demurrer to the incident charging Frank V. Jackman with larceny from a store was set for argument in court this afternoon.

Trial dates set by the court were:

November 15 — George Boehmer, larceny from a store.

November 23—Orville Robinson, alias J. C. Reynolds, receiving, and concealing stolen property.

November 26—David C. Johnson, obtaining money by false pretenses.

December 3—Bert Welch, statutory rape.

December 5—Tony Garcia, manslaughter. The charge arises from a car accident September 8 on Oregon highway 39 near Henley, in which two persons were killed.

Another trial involving a fatal car accident was set last week in circuit court to be held November 19.

Sanford LeRoy Henderson is charged with negligent homicide in a wreck August 21 on Oregon 66, 25 miles west of Klamath Falls, in which a woman from Jacksonville, Ore., was killed.

Henderson, a Reedsport, Ore., resident is held in the county jail in lieu of $5000 bond.

Fenwick Rites In Idaho

Funeral services for Edgar Fenwick who died Wednesday in Twin Falls, Ida., will be held there Saturday morning with graveside services at Boise, Ida.

Survivors in the Klamath area include three sisters, Mrs. Julian Abbott, Mrs. James Parks and Mrs. Charles Fairall, and two brothers Hugh Fenwick and Aden Fenwick of Dorris, Calif.

Potato Price Goes Higher

An apparent fitting of national potato supplies to the national demand is providing ever-better prices for potatoes, with reports on locally grown spuds running as high as $3.65 plus sack.

Tulelake buyers report an active demand by the army which has a quartermaster purchasing agent in the area.

Tulelake Growers Assoc. Mgr. Glendon Smith reported today that the use of Mexican national labor in this season's harvest proved successful, with most growers under the program satisfied.

Smith said the quality of the workmen and their output was satisfactory.

The nationals have been returned to the Tulare area, where some 20 crops, including fruit and cotton, are being harvested now.

The national potato production estimate as of October 1 set figures for the season at 337,122,000 (M) bushels; the USDA estimates national consumption, other than diversions for feed, runs annually at approximately 335,000,000 (M) bushels or slightly over.

The November 1 production estimates are not yet available.

Mercury Hits Season Low

By The Associated Press

The coldest weather of the fall season chilled areas from the Rockies to New England and into parts of the South today.

The blast of chill air from Canada was accompanied by the season's first snow falls in some areas. Rain hit parts of the frosty belt.

The weather bureau said it would probably get colder tonight in some of the North-central states.

It was near zero early today in parts of Montana and North Dakota, with a reading of around 5 above at Cutbank, Mont., and Bismarck, N. D.

Kids Behave, Police Happy

Halloween parties last night at city schools and the armory apparently kept school children, their parents and law enforcement officers very happy.

City and state police reported very few incidents of vandalism in Klamath Falls.

City recreation director Bob Bonney reported all parties held as being very successful. Bonney pointed out the cooperation this year from parents in attendance and help "was wonderful."

Approximately 600 teenagers attended the Moose lodge sponsored Halloween dance at the Armory. Bonney said there were an estimated 2000 people in attendance at the Mills school carnival.

City police reported the following prankish acts:

A "for sale" sign planted in front of the city hall; one fire hydrant cracked open; four french windows broken in a Hot Springs residence garage; store and house windows liberally soaped along E. Main and down Main to 2nd.

State police reported a carriage —minus horse—placed in the yard of 5042 Metler and a two-wheel trailer missing from 5229 Metler.

Society Honors Mrs. Flock

Mrs. Fred Flock, former resident of Klamath Falls has been elected president of the Oregon State Button society. The fourth annual convention was held last weekend in Salem.

Other officers, several of them known here are Mrs. Floyd Wayson, Portland, first vice president; Mrs. E. E. French, Salem, second vice president; Mrs. B. F. Browning, Toledo, recording secretary; Mrs. R. D. Busey, Eugene, recording secretary and Mrs. Clyde Bliven, Portland, treasurer.

The meeting, held at Hotel Senator, was attended by Mrs. Bert Thomas, representing Klamath Falls enthusiasts of the hobby.

Many fine exhibits of buttons were shown by collectors from all parts of Oregon.

Truck Wreck Kills Driver

A Klamath Falls wholesale grocery service truck driver, Harlan Felker, 27, Central Valley, Calif., was killed instantly this morning when his truck overturned on the outskirts of Nubieber, Calif.

Felker had been servicing the Redding area for Hicks Grocery Service, Klamath Falls, for about three weeks, according to information received here.

According to reports from Nubieber the truck hurtled out of control down a hill on California highway 299 into Nubieber, overturned and was completely demolished.

Company officials said Felker is survived by his widow and two children.

Drunk Driving Fine $300

DUNSMUIR — Milas Wesley Veach of Mount Shasta was fined $300 here Monday in city court by Judge Alfred A. Smith, when he pleaded guilty to a charge of drunk driving.

Judge Smith also sentenced the offender to serve 90 days in the county jail (60 days of which was suspended) revoked his operator's license, and put him on a year's probation.

Veach has a record of previous offenses.
