Dressen Re-hired by Bums for 1952 Season

BROOKLYN, N.Y.—Chuck Dressen, being in elly not so long ago by Dodger fans, will be back as Brooklyn manager in 1952. Dressen, although he hasn't signed a contract, was rehired yesterday for one year at a salary estimated at $30,000. Brooklyn Pres. Walter O'Malley announced the retention of Dressen in a press conference. It came as no surprise. Dodger second baseman Jackie Robinson confirmed rumors that Dressen would be retained last Friday in Los Angeles. Robinson said the players were told Dressen would return. Regarding the terms of the contract O'Malley said, "chances are it will be the kind of contract we are beginning to like—one year. No trial clauses. Just a straight contract. It is his right to be paid, we probably could get together," he continued. "But I do not think he's overpaid."

CAGE MEET SCHEDULED TONIGHT

Perked up by last year's pick-up in attendance, city league cagers are determined to make this season's campaign the best ever when they meet in a second organizational session tonight in the city hall, 7:30. An eight-team loop is being eyed with the Payless Drug quintet already in practice sessions and boasting a strong club. Sponsors, managers and players are urged to attend tonight's session when the before-schedule rough spots can be ironed out. It's probable a game will be cooked up with the Harlem Clowns (formerly the Broadway Clowns) December 4 or 5 to boost sagging receipts in the city league coffers. The Clowns, through their representative, Scoop Beal of the Humboldt Standard-Times, notified the Herald and News the Clowns are available on either of those two dates.

Cavemen Hang Tough Stanford in Grid Top Ten

Vols Stay In First Position

NEW YORK (AP)—Mighty Tennessee's football team is the country's No. 1 college team for the third straight week in the estimation of the sports editors and broadcasters who participate in the weekly Associated Press poll. The Tennessee outfit, which trounced North Carolina Saturday, 27 to 0, snared 69 of the 152 first place votes and remained on top of the heap with 1230 points. The Vols were mentioned on every ballot and their placings ranged from first to tenth.

The shake-up beneath the Southwestern conference club, however, was terrific with the Michigan state slumping all the way from second to fifth and Illinois, victor by 7 to 0 over Michigan in a snowstorm, climbing from third to second. Maryland and Princeton also vaulted over the Spartans.

Hayward and California dropped out of the select group, their places being taken by Stanford and Texas. Below Michigan State came Southern California, Stanford, Georgia Tech, Wisconsin and Texas in that order. Forty teams were mentioned on the flood of ballots, one oddity being that every member of the Southwest circuit except Rice drew at least one vote.

IRISH CLIMB Michigan State, erstwhile runner up, was idle last weekend while preparing for Notre Dame. The Irish have been lolling in the second division since spilted by Southern Methodist but climbed to eleventh place today on the strength of their 19 to 0 pasting of Navy. The standings, first place in brackets. Points awarded on basis of 10 for first, nine for second, etc.

Teddies Win Continued Tilt

PORTLAND, O.—A high school football game which began last Friday night ended yesterday. Roosevelt, scoring a touchdown in 3 minutes and 40 seconds remaining from a game which was called last Friday night when the field lights went out, defeated Lincoln, 33-12. Rip of the coin put Roosevelt in Dist. 2 in state playoff pairings, Grant in Dist. 1. The two teams go down as Portland's co-champions.

CHAMP AND EX-CHAMP—Andy Tremaine (right) world's light-heavyweight wrestling champion, listens to some advice from the Manassas Mauler, the one and only Jack Dempsey, before a bout in Texas in which the ex-heavyweight boxing champion was the third man in the ring. Tremaine meets Gordon Hessel in the armory ring tomorrow night in a non-title match.

Hessel Inks for Mat Tussle with Champion

Light-heavyweight champion Andy Tremaine may be glad he isn't wearing his crown tomorrow night at the armory. Because Matchmaker Mack Lillard has come up with a rugged foe for the Texas champ in one half of the double main event. He is Gordon Hessel, Radium Springs, N.M., grappler, well known to local fans.

Black-thatched Hessel, who looks more like a movie gambler, is a top performer. He tussled one hour to a draw with Tremaine recently in a Portland non-title match. This is a bout that those acquainted with the fine points of wrestling won't want to miss. It's very probably Hessel, if he makes a good showing against the champ, will earn a crack at Tremaine's title in the local ring. PROMISE Tremaine has promised Lillard he'll put his crown up to a "logical contender" soon. This bout, one of the most attractive signed in many months, will share main event billing with a

Juggling Slight In Grid Poll

By The Associated Press For the second week in a row, Grants Pass won unanimous support for first place in the Associated Press Oregon high school football poll.

All 17 sportswriters and sportscasters participating in this week's balloting gave Grants Pass a first-place vote. The Cavemen kept up their high-scoring pace last week by rolling over Roseburg, 62-9.

With 170 points, Grants Pass held a good margin over second-place Roosevelt of Portland. Roosevelt retained the No. 2 spot with 150 points. PICKED UP Hillsboro, the No. 3 team again this week, picked up some points after defeating West Linn, 53-6. Hillsboro received 127 points, followed by Astoria in fourth place with 117 points. Astoria defeated North Bend, 20-0, last week.

Grant of Portland kept rolling in fifth place after downing Benson of Portland, 21-7. The victory gave Grant a spot in the state playoffs. Milton-Freewater, idle last week, held to the No. 6 position.

Eugene replaced Marshfield as No. 7 this week. Eugene topped Salem, 21-13, while Marshfield lost a 26-20 decision to Coquille. It was Marshfield's second straight loss and dropped the team to ninth place.

COVBOYS STICK Prineville and University high of Eugene remained as the only two class A-2 schools in the top ten. Prineville again was No. 8 after edging Columbia Prep of Portland, 13-12, and University high defeated Stayton, 14-0. Coquille, another A-2 school, missed the first ten by only one point. University high received 24 points, Coquille 23.

The poll's first place votes in parentheses: 1. Grants Pass (17) 170 2. Roosevelt 150 3. Hillsboro 127 4. Astoria 117 5. Grant 94 6. Milton-Freewater 82 7. Eugene 56 8. Prineville 44 9. Marshfield 24 10. University 24 Others: Coquille 23, Oregon City 7 and Medford 3.

LIGHT DRILL LOS ANGELES (AP)—The UCLA Bruins ran through a light workout yesterday in preparation for their football game Saturday in Portland with the Oregon State Beavers.

BOTH SEE WIN LOS ANGELES (AP)—A crowd of 90,000 is predicted for next Saturday's Stanford-Southern California football game. Both clubs predict victory.

BUMS IN RED BROOKLYN (AP)—Walter O'Malley, Brooklyn Dodger president, opened the club's books for a quick peek today to reveal the entire organization lost $129,318 in 1950. He used 1950 figures because '51 returns still are incomplete.

BRIGHT THROUGH

DES MOINES, IOWA — Johnny Bright, college football's "Mr. Orange," has played his last game for Drake university.

The great Negro halfback, the nation's all-time total offense leader, reinjured his broken jaw last Saturday and yesterday was advised by a dental surgeon to quit. The Bulldogs close their season at Wana Saturday.

Bright, from Fort Wayne, Ind., received the broken jaw against Oklahoma A & M October 29. The incident brought Drake charges of "intentional attacks" upon Bright by an Aggie player and prompted a Missouri Valley conference investigation.

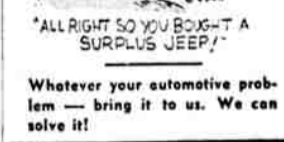

In his first game since the injury, Bright accounted for three touchdowns and 204 yards in three quarters of play to fire Drake to a 35-20 victory over Great Lakes. Bright—in three seasons—has gained 3134 yards rushing and 2769 passing for a total offense of 5903 yards. He has averaged 236.1 yards per game through 25 games and has figured in 384 points scored by Drake.

The unexpected end to Bright's college career probably will cost him his total offense lead—a position he has held since his sophomore year.
