Hearings Set on Plan To Extend Soil District

CHARLIE PARR, air force corporal and B-29 gunner, is reported missing in action over Korea. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Parr, 3667 Flint.

Two hearings have been scheduled in the Klamath area to determine the feasibility of extending the present Langell valley soil conservation district boundaries to include some 300,000 more acres.

The hearings have been set for November 15 at Bly and Bonanza.

The Bly meeting will be held in the Bly hotel at 1 p.m. At Bonanza, the hearing will be held at the Horsefly irrigation district office.

State soil conservation committeemen have called landowners in the area to attend if possible, as a good representation is desired.

The area in question would include from the present Langell valley district to Lake county line on the east and north, along the southern boundary of the Klamath Indian reservation, and west to the present boundaries of the Poe Valley SCD. If farmers in attendance at the hearings desire the inclusion, an election will be scheduled later.

Under new state laws as passed by the recent legislature, only a majority of those landowners voting must okay the inclusion. Previously it was necessary to get a turn out of at least 30 percent of persons holding more than 10 acres of property within the proposed inclusion areas.

Vets' Bodies Coming Home

The bodies of two Klamath Falls men killed in Korea are scheduled to arrive at San Francisco from the Far East this weekend.

They are Pfc Dan McEnerny, 21, who was killed May 8 while serving with the army, and Pfc Louis Orville GeRue, 23, killed April 23 while serving with the marines.

The transport New Zealand is reported carrying their bodies among 631 Americans who lost their lives in Korea.

McEnerny was the son of Frank C. McEnerny, 4015 Clinton, and GeRue was the son of Mrs. Jennie Anderson, 3304 Crosby.

$250,000 Fire In Anchorage

ANCHORAGE, Alaska, (AP)—Fire destroyed the Anchorage City transit bus garage Monday causing damage estimated at $250,000.

One hundred volunteer firemen fought the blaze in near-freezing temperatures and kept it from spreading to other buildings in the area.

Lost in the fire were nine buses, including a reconditioned one which was scheduled to start the first Anchorage-Seward bus service tomorrow, one jeep, 17,000 pounds of new spare parts, a newly installed furnace, and the garage itself.

Days Slowly Get Longer

NEW HAVEN, Conn., (AP)—Rushed for time?

If it's any comfort, today was longer than yesterday, by one 1000th of a second. Tomorrow will be longer, by the same amount.

The extra time comes from the slowing down of the earth's rotation, due apparently to the friction of the earth's tides, caused by the moon.

If you want a longer day, just keep living. The 20th century is 36½ seconds longer than the 19th. And 73 seconds longer than the 18th.

The figures were cited today by Dr. Dirk Brouwer of Yale university at a meeting of the National Academy of Sciences.

DOG DAZE

NEW YORK, (AP) — Six-year-old Louis de Rosa, playing in the hallway outside his family apartment yesterday, slipped and fell five stories down a stairwell—and landed on a dog's back. Louis suffered only cuts and bruises. The dog, a one-year-old German shepherd named Prince, was dazed but had no broken bones.

New Fashions Make Sense!

PARIS, (AP)—At last Paris designers seem to be worrying about wearability.

Judged by the just-finished mid-season collections, they can no longer be accused of going to foolish extremes. In fact, compared with an ordinary season, the new fashions are just plain tame. Fashion writers looking for sensational new trends got very little to go on. There were no really shocking novelties to report.

In general, the mid-season clothes carry on the trends of the autumn, perhaps best personified by Dior's simple wearable dresses. His moderately flared skirts have gained influence. Though some designers still prefer really voluminous ones. The high, prim and proper neckline has not been held.

The mid-season designs have let necklines dip deeply enough to please lovers of generous decolletage. Black remains the number one color choice.

Sportsman Dies Trying to Save Drowning Wife

CASABLANCA, (AP) — Storm-battered sailors told today how millionaire society sportsman Freddy McEvoy, ex-husband of two oil heiresses and boyhood chum of movie actor Errol Flynn, died a hero's death in a vain attempt to save his third wife from drowning.

McEvoy, his French wife, Claude, and four others perished yesterday when his yacht "Kangaroo" was driven on the rocks about 100 yards offshore in a violent storm 100 miles south of Casablanca.

Three members of the yacht crew swam to safety.

The 43-year-old sportsman and international society figure was swimming through 30-foot-high seas only six feet from shore, the survivors said, when he turned back to aid his wife some distance behind. As he neared her side their strength failed and both sank.

They died after 18 hours of terror — 12 of them in darkness — aboard the wrecked yacht, which had turned on its side and was breaking up. Two French sailors were swept overboard. A Spanish sailor threw himself into the sea and sank. Mrs. McEvoy's French maid, lashed to the mast, was torn loose by the wind and carried away.

The yacht, on a cruise from Cannes to the Bahamas, was trying to enter the port of Safi but was kept out by blinding sand clouds. It ran aground Monday a few miles north of Cap Cantin shortly after noon and turned on its side.

In mid-afternoon the storm lulled and the battered survivors aboard the wreck, clinging desperately to ropes, could see the Moroccan coast 100 yards away. Two automobiles passed, but the survivors' screams for help were not heard.

As night approached and the ship —breaking up — foundered deeper into the water, McEvoy ordered an Austrian crewman to try the swim to shore. He reached it, exhausted. In the dark he could not make the lone Arab he met understand the need for help.

The next morning the two other crewman still alive — an Austrian and a German — went into the water and made it to shore. Then McEvoy and his wife, both excellent swimmers, started their futile try.

A crowd of Arabs on the shore shrieked encouragement, in vain.

McEvoy—a sandy-haired, balding six-footer—had lived most of the time in recent years on his yacht and took great pride in it. He frequently took personal command on its voyages.

McEvoy and his 30-year-old third wife were best man and matron of honor last year at the marriage of Errol Flynn to actress Patrice Wymore in Monte Carlo.

McEvoy and Flynn had been friendly yachting rivals for years. In 1943 McEvoy was a star witness for Flynn in the actor's trial in Los Angeles on charges involving alleged attacks on three girls. Flynn was acquitted.

FARTHER AWAY

NEW YORK, (AP)—That old five-cent glass of beer was up to 15 cents today after a long time at a dime. Mixed drinks also have been boosted five cents. The United Restaurant Liquor Dealers of Manhattan, Inc., voted the new prices Tuesday. They blamed higher taxes and increased labor costs.
