Crop News Spurs Cotton Buying

CHICAGO, (AP)—A broad buying movement was touched off on the board of trade today by a much lower government cotton crop estimate than anyone had expected.

Soybeans were the first to experience the buying wave, shooting up for gains which extended to more than 6 cents shortly after the cotton crop statistics came out. It was felt this would mean less cottonseed oil to compete with soybean oil.

Later, the buying spread to other pits. The gains sent most corn and oats contracts into new seasonal high ground. Wheat, rye and lard also were strong.

Wheat closed 1/4-1/2 higher, December $2.57 1/2-3/4, corn 1 1/4-2 1/2 higher, December $1.82 1/2-3/4, oats 1/4-1/2 higher, December 96 1/2, rye (new style) 1/2 to 2 cents higher, December $2.02 1/2, soybeans 3 to 5 1/2 higher, November $2.99-2.98 1/2, and lard 23 to 43 cents a hundred pounds higher, November $15.00.

U.N. News Jumbles Stock Prices

Active prices were not matched by the volume of business transacted. Volume came to an estimated 1,400,000 shares as compared with 1,000,000 shares yesterday, both figures well below the daily average for the year.

The market started lower and on at least two separate occasions made progress on the upside before falling back again.

Air lines were higher throughout. Numerous metals, rails, and steels held the bulk of their gains rather well, but many of the oils, chemicals, and aircrafts as well as building material issues had difficulty in remaining on the plus side most of the time.

McKay Stands Back of Ike

SALEM, (AP)—Gen. Eisenhower still is Gov. McKay's No. 1 choice as a Republican candidate for president.

The governor also said today he thinks the general is available as the Republican candidate.

Gov. McKay was asked today to restate his position in the light of statements made by the general during his visit to Washington, D. C.

"I want to make it clear, though, that I will give my full support to whoever wins the Republican nomination. We have to get rid of Pres. Truman before he ruins the country," the governor said.

Youth Ordered To State Pen

James Curtis White, 18, was sentenced this morning to two years in Oregon state prison for larceny.

White was put on probation last May on pleading guilty to the charge, and his probation was revoked in circuit court last week.

The youth was picked up by city police several weeks ago on a traffic violation and held on suspicion of stealing tools.

White told the court he had been a "common thief" all his life and picked up anything he wanted to take.

He confessed stealing ever since put on probation even though he was working and had money for rent and food.

Chest Reports Encouraging

Encouraging reports were coming from county areas—Gilchrist south to Malin—and so far the 810,000 quota in the community chest campaign for the county district had been whittled down 50 percent with close to $5000 already turned in.

Mrs. Dick Henzel, chest representative for Malin area, reported $906 with an assurance of meeting Malin's big $1150 goal. Of this amount, $63.82 came from teachers and students of the Malin high school and elementary.

Mrs. Bonnie Stephens and Mrs. Betty Miller took this collection responsibility.

Girl Scouts of Malin worked with their elders in making solicitations with excellent results. One of the largest donations came from Lovens Lumber Co.

Merrill has reported $534.75 of it's $2300 goal, with the campaign well under way.

Langel valley's return, under direction of R. D. Colwell and Mrs. Robert Hartley, has reached $245.85. Poe Valley, where William Tubach served as chairman, has brought in $247.50 of a $359 quota.

A surprise return came from Mrs. J. L. O'Connell's Hager section where no quota had been set, but a return of $72.25 was made. Mrs. O'Connell was assisted by Mrs. Charles Green.

Pine Grove workers were only $7.50 shy of the $150 quota, with $142.50 turned in by Mrs. Charlie Read and Mrs. I. E. Campbell and workers.

A check from the Gilchrist Lumber Co. employees, totaling $287 added to the school donation of $4.98, has made a return of $341.98 from that community.

LESS COTTON

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The agricultural department has estimated this year's cotton crop at 15,771,000 bales of 500 pounds gross weight.

This figure is 1,160,000 bales less than the 16,931,000 forecast a month ago.

Demos Strong In Kentucky

LOUISVILLE, Ky., (AP)—Gov. Lawrence Wetherby today tightened his hold on a full four year term as chief executive as late returns from Tuesday's election pushed him toward a 70,000 majority over Republican Eugene Siler.

With returns counted in 3722 of the state's 4125 precincts, the vote stood Wetherby 319,209, Siler 256,083.

Swept into office with Wetherby were eight Democrats who ran on his ticket, together with a 3-1 Democratic majority in the house of representatives and state senate.

Wetherby began serving as governor November 27, 1950 when he succeeded Earle C. Clements, now a U. S. senator. He won nomination in last August's primary by a record majority of 161,000.

Third grade mothers of Mills school are asked to meet in the school cafeteria Friday, 2 p. m. to make plans for refreshments for the meeting when fathers will be entertained by the PTA.

Special entertainment is planned.

DEER STROLL

PORTLAND, (AP)—An antlered deer strolled through the back yard at the Della Voruz residence in the southeast district of the city Wednesday.

Mrs. Voruz called police and patrolman Robert J. Coffman said he followed its travels for several blocks, then lost the signs at S. E. 83rd and Duke. The deer apparently headed back to the brush.

Most Prison Reforms OK'd

PORTLAND, (AP)—The Oregon Prison Assoc.'s 17-point program for improvement of the state penitentiary has been approved by Warden Virgil O'Malley, with one exception.

That is a proposal that an inmates' recreational council be permitted to consult with an outside citizens' group.

The inmates' council which will be set up under the supervision of a recreational director is to advise me, and I am opposed to having it in contact with any outside organization," O'Malley told a luncheon meeting of the association here yesterday.

Some points of the association program have been put into effect already, he said. He added that a recreational director was appointed this week; that menus had been improved; that adequate clothing was being issued; that brutality had been eradicated; that in-service training for prison personnel was being accomplished; and that inmates were being given more freedom to contact attorneys and social agencies.

Segregation of juveniles is made impossible by lack of facilities, he said, adding that study and segregation of sex deviates will be started as soon as a new cell block is opened. When the central corridor building is completed, better library facilities will be available.

It required the combined efforts of his mother, several neighbors, and the fire department to pull him out of the way down—swooty and quite doubtful about impending events.

Hunter's Shells Taken from Car

There's the certain type of hunter who abuses his hunting privileges on the farmlands, and there's the one who puts the thumbscrews on fellow hunters.

Charles (Dutch) Dakin, 2036 LeRoy, was hunting along Lost river near Merrill yesterday, and left several boxes of shells under the seat of his car.

He returned later to replenish his ammunition supply, only to find someone else had beat him to it. Shells are at all-time high prices.

Bly Building Bid $12,694

Low bid of $12,694 for construction of a 32x65 foot building for the highway department at Bly was submitted at Portland today by H. H. Wertz of Grants Pass.

The bid was not immediately accepted. The building is to be of masonry rock construction.

Higher Meat Prices OK'd

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The government today approved new ceilings expected to bring higher prices in most butcher shops for lamb, mutton and veal.

The new regulations issued by the office of price stabilization are effective next Tuesday. One sets dollars and cents ceilings for wholesale lamb, yearling lamb and mutton.

The second order authorizes retailers to figure new ceilings weekly to reflect changes in wholesale prices of lamb, mutton and veal. This order permits markets to pass on to the public any changes in prices up or down.

Santa Stunt Sooty Snafu

SANTA CLARA, (AP)—Thoughts of Christmas started Jackie Cambra, six, on a test run.

He climbed the trellis of his home here, crossed the roof, clambered into the fireplace chimney, and started down. He got stuck.

It required the combined efforts of his mother, several neighbors, and the fire department to pull him out of the way down—swooty and quite doubtful about impending events.
