NEW PINE CREEK

By IRVIN FARIS
The fire commissioners are still hanging tough for a fire engine that will reduce the insurance rate in the New Pine Creek rural fire protection district at least by 10 percent. If all goes well the district should have delivered in the next two weeks a 1947 Ford fire truck fully equipped as required by the Oregon fire insurance rating bureau, with an adequate amount of hose and accessories.

As demonstrated near Halsey, the truck pumps over 500 gallons per minute with over 250 pounds pressure. But we have to have 500 gallons per minute at this altitude, also when the truck is tested here at the time of delivery. The Nelson Equipment company, which made the test for the Shedd-Halsey district, and from whom the truck is to be purchased, is confident that the fire truck with its Sea-graves pump will make the Class "B" test.

Commissioners making the tentative purchase of the rig were Jim Snider, president of the board; Irvin Faris, secretary; treasurer, Keaton Butler, fire chief, and Neal Elliott, the fourth member to make a quorum vote in favor of the transaction.

O. K. Johnston finally got his California deer after hunting hard for nearly a week. His dog routed it out of the brush and Johnson sala de naa to look twice or thrice which was the deer for it wasn't much larger than a jack-rabbit with its ears.

Jim Boydston and his sister, Emma, of Union, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Gallagher last Friday.

Yvonne Keller returned home last week from a few weeks visit down in Frisco with her daughter, Bernice. She had a very lovely time she reported but was glad to get home.

Good Woman Appreciative

NEW YORK, (AP)—"We have never owed," said Mrs. Elizabeth Antonovsky, 77.

So for three years she scrimped and saved until she had $100. Then, dressed sedately in black because her husband was dead and walking slowly because she was tired, she took it to the department of hospitals.

She wanted, she said, "just to pay for the hospital where everybody was so good and kind to my husband."

FLIGHT
She and her husband, Alexis, fled from Russia, she said, and came to this country in 1923. Language difficulties prevented him from continuing his career as a lawyer, but he found opportunities as a musician.

Illness plagued him, though, and he died in Metropolitan hospital in 1948 after a nine-day hospitalization.

The hospital, she told cashiers Thursday, apparently forgot to send a bill.

Side

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Thompson returned Sunday from a five day trip up in the Portland area. While there Mrs. Thompson had a check-up in the clinic where she was operated on about a year ago. The report was favorable and she feels much relieved. They went over to the coast and spent a day or two there enjoying the beach in spite of the rainy weather.

Mrs. Oscar Branson gave her son, Gary, a party in honor of his 7th birthday. A group of playmates were invited to help him celebrate and remember the occasion. Games were played and gifts opened. Cake and ice-cream were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Loraine Hammerley, with their daughters, Barbara and Ann, finished on Sunday moving their household furnishings up to the new home in Lakeview which they have just lately purchased. Friends and relatives here will miss them. That they have not sold their two houses they have here, gives hope that they might return later.

Two youngsters popular in youth club activities here in the past, Miss Ruth Rosecrans and James T. Lee, were married by Judge Heckman last Saturday morning at Lakeview.

Mrs. Mary Newman, mother of the bride, and Mrs. Julia Lightie, mother of the bridegroom, were their attendants.

When a house becomes available they plan to locate in New Pine Creek. For the present they are making their home with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lightie, on the Sherrard ranch.

Pictured above are (right to left) Barbara Huggins and William Patton as Susan and Warren. Intruding on the love-struck couple are the members of the Hagggett family as portrayed by Marion Sparks, Brad Curtis, and Suzanne Hanson. Watching over the scene is (seated) H. Paul Kliss, who is directing the production. Curtis and Miss Huggins, who play father and daughter in this play, recently took off a weekend from rehearsals and eloped to Reno.
