Robatcek-Acuff Nuptial Rites

Zion Lutheran church was the scene of a full wedding when Elaine Robatcek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robatcek, 1519 Oregon Avenue, and Delbert Acuff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur D. Acuff, 1224 California, were married at a three o'clock ceremony, Saturday, October 20. Rev. Richard E. Graef officiated, and the bride's father gave her in marriage.

The bride's gown was of white satin, long sleeved and with a court train.

Her illusion net fingertip veil was held in place with halo trimmed with seed pearls.

Her bouquet was a cascade of all white flowers fashioned of roses and stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

The maid of honor, Dolores Robatcek, sister of the bride, wore a gown of pink satin trimmed in lace. Her bouquet was modernistic colonial centered with pink carnations, stephanotis, roses and backed with lagoon and stephanotis.

Bridesmaid, Jacqueline Robatcek, sister of the bride, wore an aqua satin identical to that of the maid of honor. Her corsage was also the same, except that it was centered with aqua carnations. Cathy Colegrove, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. She wore a dress of white net over white satin. Her headband was of roses and carnations and she carried a basket of rose petals.

Kenneth Palkies, cousin of the bride was ring bearer. He wore dark pants and a white dinner jacket.

Best man was Harold Clawson. Ushers were: Lloyd Mudder, Pete Colvin and Merle Keeling, Longview.

Mrs. Robatcek wore a brown afternoon suit, and her corsage was of fall flowers.

Mrs. Acuff chose a gray costume and wore a pink rose corsage. Mrs. Graef played incidental

Evergreen Garden Club

Evergreen Garden club met at Altamont Junior high school November 8, in the evening, Mrs. J. R. Miller presiding.

Winter bouquets of dried flowers and grasses were cleverly and professionally arranged for display in the room.

Mrs. Duane Alexander and Mrs. Joe Cox gave short talks on the selection, care and handling of the materials for long lasting arrangements.

The ladies lounge on North eighth will have some of these arrangements on display this week.

Mrs. E. W. Giermark, Skiyou district director of Ashland, was present to discuss possible plans for forming a sub-district of Klamath county garden clubs for the purpose of increasing the efficiency of transacting business between the four valley clubs of this county and the 22 in the Rogue River valley.

Mrs. Will Wood has been selected to represent this area.

Evergreen Garden club is joining other groups in this district in contributing light bulbs for the large Christmas tree at Camp White.

They are also planning on a candlelighting and song service with a prayer for permanent peace simultaneously with the other garden clubs.

A report on the district meeting "open" in October was given by Mrs. Charles Larson and Mrs. S. Dahler. Eight members of the Evergreen club attended.

Among the projects planned by the organization is the sending of a box of juniper trees to Camp White for each man there, the making of Thanksgiving trays for the county infirmary, and joining the Klamath Falls club in sending a large box of juniper greens to the Portland Christmas flower show in December.

Guests present were: Mrs. Will Wood and Mrs. Ray Brownell of the Klamath Falls garden club. Refreshments were served by hostesses Mrs. Axel Bergen and Mrs. Lawrence Birk.

U OF O COUPLE IS BETROTHED

Mrs. William Burns of Albion road, Lincoln, Rhode Island, announces the engagement of her daughter, Jean Burns, to Robert Kendrick Leik, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Leik, Pelican City.

The bride elect, an alumna of the University of Rhode Island, is attending the University of Oregon graduate school. Robert is a senior in the School of Architecture at the University of Oregon.

OIL PAINTINGS ON DISPLAY AT ART CENTER

Mrs. Walter F. Brown, who is well known throughout the state as Virginia White Brown, talented artist, is showing a group of her oils at the Art Center starting November 15.

This one man show is open to the public and anyone interested is cordially invited to drop into 1227 Main and view them.

OREGON MOTHER'S ANNUAL TEA

The Annual Tea for all mothers of University of Oregon students from Klamath Falls was given Friday November 2 at the home of Mrs. W. D. Miller, 640 Conger Avenue.

Greeting the guests at the door were Mrs. Lloyd Gass, president of the club, Mrs. George Adler, membership chairman and Mrs. K. A. Moore. Assisting about the rooms were other officers and committee members: Mrs. Lowell Kaup, secretary, Mrs. Freda Robinson, vice president and Mrs. Martha McLaughlin.

After a few words of welcome especially to the new members, Mrs. Gass introduced Mrs. George McIntyre who presented Miss Jean Adams in two vocal numbers, "Morning" by Speaks, and "Serenade" by Romberg.

A short history of the club, its aims and purposes was given by Mrs. Dean Osborn, past district vice president.

The tea table was lovely with a centerpiece of bronze chrysanthemums, bright colored fall leaves, and candles in matching colors against a chaise longue background. Low bowls of fall flowers were placed about the room.

Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. M. W. Hoyer and Mrs. Frank Sexton.

Those attending were Mrs. George Adler, Mrs. Millie Ballantyne, Mrs. Dorothy Bullard, Mrs. H. F. Cadwell, Mrs. Maude Davis, Mrs. L. D. Gass, Mrs. J. F. Gubrecht, Mrs. Elizabeth Bingham, Mrs. R. E. Hooker, Mrs. M. W.
