YOU'd like to play rich organ music?
YOU can play the HAMMOND CHORD ORGAN without knowing a note!
The revolutionary HAMMOND CHORD ORGAN is designed especially for those who don't know how to play, but want to, without taking lessons. Of course, we don't expect you to believe this until you try it yourself, but the fact is that this amazing organ does make it possible for you to play rich, full-chord music without being able to read a single note of music. So, if you enjoy music and would much rather play it than sit on the sidelines and listen to it...and if you don't play any musical instrument, you are the person for whom the HAMMOND CHORD ORGAN was created.
How is it possible? Simple—really simple—instructions, with picture music anyone can read, make it possible for you to play easy, familiar pieces the first day. Not perfectly, but pleasantly. In a surprisingly short time, you can make really beautiful music.
A half hour with the Chord Organ will prove this to you—and we believe you'll find a lifetime of pleasure in the music you play yourself. Come in and try it today.

REFLECTIONS FROM
HOME FOR HUNTING was Jolene Blasier last week—with houseguests at her mother's home—Sara Woodruff had to feed the hungry hunters anyway, but the fact that Mary Thatcher, niece of Gladys and Jim Burness (senior) brought a birthday cake from Portland for Gladys—in honor of her natal date—gave impetus to the occasion so hunters and homebodies surrounded the bountiful table—Jim Burness—Jr.—Billy Burness from Portland—Betty Lou Roberts—Mary Thatcher also from Portland—Chuck and Mickey Bailey—Louis and Polly Mann—all were there to celebrate the birthday and to congratulate the hunters on a very successful hunt—Incidentally these classmates and sorority sisters of Jolene's all came down to HUNT and DID!!

A BOUQUET TO HERB CAEN for the HOOCAEN given to the ladies that ousted well 'high' heeled customers who were potential paying customers in their snobbishness—From all over the west coast came livestock men with letters of credit—money in their jeans—and the desire to spend it—but because they were without cravat and coat—stupid requests to leave greeted them—if those would be social arbiters had known the background of the Cow Palace crowd—Welcome mats would have waved like banners—NOT LIKE SAN FRANCISCO and the guy who praiseth it daily had nerve enough to say so.

THE HARLAN BOSWORTH—now living in Medford were surprised on their 25th wedding anniversary recently—and an added surprise was the gift of a scrapbook of clippings saved for many years by Mrs. O. A. Eden—Many years is right—one item from the Mail Tribune reported a permit issued Harlan and Marie when they were newlyweds to remodel their home—the sum involved was $400—might cover the cost of remodeling a sink today.
